

BORAH IS FIRM AGAINST PENROSE

Progressives Aveer His Selection to Head Finance Body Would Defeat Party SENATE CONTROL HINGES "Dry" Also Expected to Oppose Choice of Pennsylvanian Leader

Washington, Dec. 17.—The movement which took definite shape in the Senate a few weeks ago to prevent Senator Boies Penrose, of Pennsylvania, from becoming chairman of the Finance Committee... The matter is in no wise a personal one, but is a party matter, pure and simple—the outcome of which may mean Republican success or defeat at the polls in 1920, Senator Borah stated today.
