Thirteen Players Receive Gilhooley, Walters, Cald-"A. W. A."—Three Candidates Get Numerals

WEINER WILL RETURN

Thirteen members of the West Philadelphia High School soccer squad were of the athletic committee yesterday.

dates for the soccer team were given their numerals. They are Sensening. Chestnut and Oestricher.

The basketball team was given a set-back yesterday when it was learned that Captain Kneas was ill and probably will be out of the practices for some time. Ceach Warner Weiler, however, has returned from the army and will Immediately take care of the squad. immediately take care of the squad. A rumor was circulated yesterday that Phil Weiner, the star pitcher, would leave eschool and enter business. This report, however, was denied by Weiner, who said that he intended to continue school cuntil next June. He will be available for the buseball team.

The St. Joseph's High basketball team got away to a flying start in the first game of the season defeating Miliville 29 to 18. McVeigh, the center, was the leading scorer with four field goals. Captain Duffy also played a clever game and caged a pair of two-pointers.

New York, Dec. 19.—Two of Columbia's veteran baseboil players who have been in the service reported to Fred Dawson yesterday and indicated that they would probably be back at the university in the early spring and ready to play. The two are E. F. Koenig, who was a pitcher last spring, and John M. Spottke, an outfielder, who played two years ago.

Spottke, an outnesser, who believe early years ago.

Koenig will enroll in the college early in January, but Spottke, who is in the air service, does not expect to get his discharge for several months, and therefore will not be available, until well on in the second term. Spottke and Koenig bring the number of Columbia's returning ball players up to three.

PENN CAGE MEN REPORT

Among the basketball candidates reporting for practice at Pennsylvania yesterday was Danny McNichol, who was ordered to Camp Dix for physical recuperation before his discharge from the army. Danny waived all claim against the Government for the injury and was given his discharge yesterday.

Captain Davis was the only member of last year's varsity on band yesterday.

Al Mouradian, "Nap" Labrum and Mite Treshman five last year, were out. Waiker, the football man, and Waschter, a new candidate, were also among those trying to land a berth on the varsity. There was a much better squad of hope fulls for the 1922 five present. Among the yearlings were Armstrong, who this fall played guard on the scrub football team and who will more than likely land the center position on the freshman the sum this winter: Kennedy, Manship, Boyle, Howell, Edwards, Nolan, McIntosh and Kenworthy.

Boston never would have made it with out a strong cash consideration of the side. The only damper on the deal is the question whether Shore will play next season. Shore won a commission as ensign on Tuesday and in Boston he was quoted as saying their he wants to put in a year at sea before he caturns to basebail.

Lewis also is in the navy at present, holding the rank of petty officer in the Mare Island Navy Yard. He managed the Mare Island baseball team last year, but expects to get his discharge by next spring.

"Just Add Hot Water and Shave"

The "DUO" is the last word-and then some—when it comes to saving in shaving. It saves time, trouble and temper, saves mess and saves money in the long run, through its durability and regulation of the cream supply. It comes to you with Mennen's Shaving Cream in the brush. You twist, it clicks and the cream is in the bristles. A stroke of the brush and presto ithere's a lather that makes the most stubborn, stubbly beard as docile as a lamb.
