

THE WORLD'S LARGEST FLYING BOAT—DEMOBILIZATION AT CAMP DIX—PERSONAGES IN THE NEWS OF THE DAY

Underwood & Underwood ...

THE CURTISS FLYING BOAT, designed for the navy, largest in the world. In this "boat" Lieutenant David McCullough recently carried fifty passengers in a flight along the Atlantic coast. The upper wing span is 126 feet. From the bow of the "boat" to the tail of the machine is 70 feet. It can stay aloft for thirteen hours and can make 80 miles per hour. Despite the tremendous size and weight, it can rise to a height of 2000 feet in ten minutes.
