Tennis Team

Cambridge, Mass., Dec. 30.—Harvard will find difficulty in organizing a tennis team for next spring if present prospects indicate anything. Alexander E. Kirk, who played with and managed the team last season, is the only veteran left.

There are, however, several men from the 1921 team upon whom, it is expected, will fall the task of keeping the college in the running for tennis honors next year. These are: Captain de Turenne, John Brooks Fenno, Jr., the young Boston star, and Francis C. Hanighen, the former junior doubles champion of Nebraska, all of whom have announced their availability.

Henry Snelling and Gerald Caner, brother of the former intercollegiate champion, are also possibilities.

Sleuth Unk Russell Flails Present-Day Boxing Plutocrats

"Gee! Nearly $30,000 for a year's work in the ring in war times! Shew! That's a lot of money for a bum."
Without further comment, Unk Russell, the sleath, fondly pollshed his Pinkerton badge, broke away from a gang of faus and hastened for Broad and Washington, his regular "beat."

Unk, the enemy of high-priced boxers, had just learned of Lew Tender's earnings for the year. Unk's annual income seldom approached the hundred mark. Hence his pronounced antipathy for the modern plutocrats.

Before getting out of earshot he bellowed back: "The pickin's still good. They say the promoters is wise. Oh, to see Yi Yi back in har-ness. Wouldn't he make a clean-up?"

One suck of gum made the world rosier

"T DIDN'T have anything more than a grin-and-bear-it spirit when they first rolled me onto that little white iron bed, but one of the boys brought me in a package of chewing gum after a while and the world honestly looked rosier as soon as I took my first chew. This lad's kindness and the cheer that package of gum gave me impressed me so that after I was able to hobble around I spent five francs, all the money I had, buying gum at the hospital canteen and playing 'good Samaritan.' You can't imagine the good it did for those wounded boys, and the smile of appreciation when they saw that little package."

> This is but one of the many reasons why you are having difficulty today in getting your favorite brand of Adams chewing gum. Please remember that millions upon millions sticks of Adams gum have gone to the boys in France. If Adams Black Jack is missing from the counter try Adams Pepsin, Adams Chiclets, Adams Yucatan or any Adams brand.

"just add hot water and shave"

Every man shaves or is shaved. Some still struggle with old-fashioned shaving accessories that try the patience and are unsanitary and wasteful of time and money. Give that man a "DUO."

Soldier or civilian, traveler or stay - at - home, every man needs the DUO LATHER BRUSH—every man wants it.

"What's a lather brush?" you say. There's just one kind and one only. It's made right here in Philadelphia. It's a combination of a good brush with a good shaving cream-Mennen's. The cream's in the brush - ready for instant use. The bristles are set in rubber to make it long-lasting. A twist sends enough cream for a shave into the bristles. Then the air-tight valve shuts off the flow till the next shave. There's sanitation for you. Dip in water and lather—there's speed. And the metal top, especially valuable for travelers, keeps the bristles free from germs and keeps the brush from wetting other contents of the bag.

A corking-good gift-a useful gift for self-shaving men. Or, if "he" prefers a barber shop shave, tell him to take the brush to his barber. It's individual and sanitary. Remember, it's a "lather brush," not just a shaving brush.

Department stores, drug, hardware, stationery and sporting goods stores can supply you. If your dealer does not have it, send us $3.00 and his name, and we will send you the brush direct. Used and sold at the barber shops of Hotels Adelphia, Bellevue-Stratford, Ritz-Carlton, Vendig, Walton and Manufacturers' Club. Cream containers at your dealer's, or direct.

> THE DE LUXE BRUSH COMPANY 1033 Spring Street, Philadelphia

This is the Duo Lather Brush, $3.00 and up, with metal top. Convenient, sanitary, durable, economical. No parts to wear out quickly; all metal but the bristles. The only brush with the air-tight valve.
