

NEW YEAR'S LIST HAS 107 WOUNDED

King's First Army Report for 1919 Without Other Casualties

TOTAL TO DATE 215,633

Marine Corps Suffers Four Deaths in Action, Three by Wounds, Two by Disease

Washington, Jan. 1.—General Pershing's first report for the New Year comprises a list of 107 wounded in the army, with no other casualties in that branch of the service. The total of all army casualties to date is 215,633. The marine corps list contains the record of four deaths in action, three caused by wounds and two which succumbed to disease. The severely wounded number thirty-three, and 107 are missing in action. Summarized, the casualties to date are:

Table with columns: Reported, Total, Killed in action, Died from wounds, Died of disease, Died from accidents, Missing in action (including prisoners), Grand totals.

PENNSYLVANIA Wounded Severely

Privates—John F. Biehn, Shenandoah; John A. Bremer, Haverhill; Charles Gardner, 1816 North 13th street, Philadelphia; Charles J. Koenig, 1212 North 13th street, Philadelphia; Charles J. Koenig, 1212 North 13th street, Philadelphia; Charles J. Koenig, 1212 North 13th street, Philadelphia.

NEW JERSEY Wounded Severely

Privates—James W. Reese, Upper Mount Clair, Warren, Gloucester; Joseph M. Gorman, South Amboy; Joseph M. Gorman, South Amboy; Joseph M. Gorman, South Amboy.

MARYLAND Wounded Severely

Privates—Norman Wade, Gaithersburg; Norman Wade, Gaithersburg; Norman Wade, Gaithersburg.

VIRGINIA Wounded Severely

Privates—Lennie R. Breeden, Clarksville; Forrest J. Campbell, Lebanon Church; George Davis, 1014 North 13th street, Philadelphia; Charles J. Koenig, 1212 North 13th street, Philadelphia.

MARINE CORPS CASUALTIES

The following casualties are reported by the commanding general of the American expedition forces: Killed in action, 4; Died from wounds, 3; Died of disease, 2; Missing in action, 107; Grand totals, 149.

SEVERELY WOUNDED

Privates—Eugene P. Collier, Washington; Eugene P. Collier, Washington; Eugene P. Collier, Washington. Privates—Joseph L. Hinton, Newark; Joseph L. Hinton, Newark; Joseph L. Hinton, Newark.

CORRECTIONS IN DAY'S LIST OF CASUALTIES

Washington, Jan. 1.—(By A. P.)—The War Department makes the following corrections of the day's casualty record: Returned to Duty (Previously Reported Missing)—Ing in Action: Corporals—John R. Moran, Baltimore; Dennis A. Sheehan, 2303 East street, Philadelphia; Edward Saxon, Pittsburgh; Charles J. Koenig, 1212 North 13th street, Philadelphia; Charles J. Koenig, 1212 North 13th street, Philadelphia.

Wilson Reaches French Capital

Berne, Jan. 1.—The American legation here announced this afternoon that President Wilson "protests that pressure of numerous other engagements prevents his visiting Switzerland."

WILSON INVITED KING TO VISIT AMERICA

London, Jan. 1.—(By A. P.)—There has been gossip in the London newspapers during President Wilson's visit that he had asked King George and Queen Mary to visit the United States during his term of office and that the invitation might be accepted. The Standard says today that it understands that when bidding the King and Queen farewell, President Wilson said he hoped to see them in America shortly.

LEGAL FIGHT OVER ORPHANS

Grandparents Want Possession of Children at Atlantic City. Atlantic City, Jan. 1.—Jersey courts will have to decide the custody of two children of Mr. and Mrs. George Eich and the administration of the property to which they are heirs. Mr. Eich, a foreman for the American Ice Company, died ten days ago. His wife died on Christmas. The three children temporarily are in the care of the grandparents of both Mr. Eich and his wife live in Philadelphia. They have employed counsel to obtain possession of their grandchildren.

CLOWN MUMMERS IN BIGGINS CLUB PARADE

Mummers Drive Dull Care Away

Continued from Page One. Continued from Page One. It was the execution of the Kaiser. This was greeted with applause all along the line and brought many laughs. There were touches of patriotism here and there, too, in the way of brigades. One Irish brigade carried a placard urging the people to "Keep the Home Fires Burning." The brigade was followed by a detachment of firemen in gas masks and novel attire.

Federal Has 300 in Line

The Federal Club, with 300 members, ventured out shortly after 10 o'clock. This organization is confident of winning many of the prizes offered by business men in the southern part of the city. Among the organizations expected to turn out later today are the Silver Crown, Lobster, Charles Klein, Trilly, Stirling Band, Meadowlark string band, short line and the Broadway Rifles.

Wilson Questa Sera Partira' Per l'Italia

La Visita del Presidente in Roma Limitata a Tre Giorni. Published and Distributed Under PERMIT NO. 341. Authority to Sell until October 6, 1917, on file at the Postoffice of Philadelphia.

U. S. Sailor Killed in Midnight Frolic

Another Dangerously Wounded and Citizens Hurt in Riot at Norfolk, Va. An elaborate concert will mark the celebration of the centennial of the birth of George Washington, Jan. 22, 1789.

Allot German U-boats

U. S. Gets Four of Surrendered Submarines in Division. London, Jan. 1.—(By A. P.)—German submarines which have been surrendered are being divided among the Allies, according to the Mail. The newspaper says that fifteen are to go to France, ten to Italy, seven to the United States.

Social Functions for War Veterans

While the mummerys are depicting themselves, Philadelphia will observe the day in keeping with its traditions. In view of the general suspension of business there will be no mail delivery. Nearly all the social clubs are keeping open house and many will hold entertainments as a feature of their New Year receptions.

Fire Patrol Has Party

No. 2 Sees New Year in and Entertains Friends. Members of Fire Insurance Patrol No. 2, 417th street above Berks, and their friends and relatives to the number of several hundred, welcomed the New Year last night with a banquet and entertainment in the fire station. A stage was erected on the first floor and a moving picture exhibition was given in addition to other entertaining features. Solos were sung by Miss Marie Lever and several others.

Advertisement for Seely's Adjusto Rupture Pad, featuring a diagram of the product and text describing its benefits for hernia and other ailments.

BLOODY BATTLES OCCUR IN POLAND

Posen Declared Under German Martial Law—Won by Poles, Says Report

TEUTONS ARE BLAMED

Warsaw Quiet After Clash Between Troops and Bolsheviks

By the Associated Press. Basel, Jan. 1.—German authorities in Poland have declared Posen under martial law, according to a report received here from Posen. Earlier information received from Berlin quoted the Vorwarts to the effect that the Poles are masters of Posen, having disarmed German officers and soldiers following violent fighting in the streets. The Poles had out communications with Germany, the Vorwarts said. Strikes continue in upper Silesia, Germany, according to reports reaching here. At Leipzig soldiers fired on a crowd and several persons were killed or wounded.

Warsaw, Dec. 30.—(delayed)—(By A. P.)—German soldiers are blamed by Polish leaders for the fatal rioting at Posen, in a statement given out tonight for the Polish version of the trouble there. It is said that German soldiers recruited in Posen, angered at the reception given Ignace Paderewski by the Poles, formed a counter-march, shouting "Posen is a German town."

The Poles retorted this, and the street fighting ensued. German soldiers, headed by an officer, appeared with machine guns and fired into the crowds in the square. Forty-seven persons were killed, the statement says. A state of virtual martial law exists in Warsaw. Sympathizers with the Bolsheviks marched to the Hotel Bruhl yesterday and demanded the release of said Bolshevik agents. Polish troops fired into the crowd, after several soldiers had been wounded by the mob, and five persons were killed and a number of others wounded.

Renewed activity by Ruthenian and Bolshevik forces at Lemberg is reported in an official statement issued by the Polish army headquarters here. They are said to be attacking vigorously south of that city, having heavy German artillery. The Poles are said to have been forced to fall back. It is said that the forces commanded by Petura, the Ukrainian peasant leader, are joining in the attack.

It is possible that if more troops are sent to Lemberg the expedition against Vilna, reported in Bolshevik hands, will be unbarred.

In spite of the tense situation Warsaw was quiet today and nothing was heard from the revolutionists. The revolutionists are well equipped with rifles, motorcars and machine guns, but it is not believed they will succeed in seizing the government if Brigadier General Joseph Pilsudski, the Polish dictator, remains firm.

Copenhagen, Jan. 1.—(By A. P.)—Bogrov occurred in Posen on Sunday according to a Berlin dispatch received here. Youths raided Jewish houses, killed thirty persons and wounded many. It is said the Jewish synagogue at Posen is reported to have been destroyed. The Berlin Tageblatt says that during the fighting at Posen on Saturday, Jews fired upon Poles from the synagogue, whereupon the Poles directed a true fire at the edifice, which was filled with worshippers.

Advertisement for Dutch Hall, a social club, offering a good time to change those stairs.

U. S. Gets Four of Surrendered Submarines in Division

London, Jan. 1.—(By A. P.)—German submarines which have been surrendered are being divided among the Allies, according to the Mail. The newspaper says that fifteen are to go to France, ten to Italy, seven to the United States.

Social Functions for War Veterans

While the mummerys are depicting themselves, Philadelphia will observe the day in keeping with its traditions. In view of the general suspension of business there will be no mail delivery.

Fire Patrol Has Party

No. 2 Sees New Year in and Entertains Friends. Members of Fire Insurance Patrol No. 2, 417th street above Berks, and their friends and relatives to the number of several hundred, welcomed the New Year last night with a banquet and entertainment in the fire station.

Advertisement for Venison, a delicacy, served with orange slices or cherries instead of the hackneyed jelly.

COAL FAMINE DANGER PAST

Supply Adequate, Barring Unforeseen Difficulties

PHILADELPHIAN HONORED

J. H. Flanagan Chosen to Head State Optical Society

York, Pa., Jan. 1.—John H. Flanagan, of Philadelphia, was elected president of the Pennsylvania Optical Society here. Other officers chosen are: First vice president, J. Faust, Allentown; second vice president, E. L. Egge, Harrisburg; secretary, Hubert Rosser, York; assistant secretary, Albert M. McConnell, Pittsburgh; treasurer, Leopold Goldstein, Philadelphia; directors, S. P. Twining, Scranton; William H. Undergrove, Johnstown; and Horace Lacity, Easton.

NORTH PHILADELPHIA IS CELEBRATING DAY

Three Thousand to Parade and Sprout and Beidleman Will Speak

Three thousand persons, members of patriotic and business men's organizations of North Philadelphia, will participate this afternoon in a New Year's demonstration in that section. Climax of the affair will be reached following a parade, when a fifty-foot American flag, said to be one of the largest in the country and donated by Frank C. Kenyon, will be unfurled from the headquarters of the Patriotic Order Sons of America, 1417 North Broad street. Government-lect Sprout and Lieutenant Governor-elect Beidleman will speak. Forming at Broad and Diamond streets at 2 o'clock, the marchers, under the leadership of Louis P. Steas as grand marshal, will move down Broad to Montgomery avenue, to Tenth street, to Columbia avenue, to Twenty-eighth street, to Oxford street, to Broad, to Girard avenue, and counter-march in Broad to 1317 North Broad, where it will be reviewed by the Governor-elect and other officials. Thence it will proceed to the P. O. S. of A. headquarters. The following organizations will participate: P. O. S. of A., Boy Scouts, veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic, Boys' Brigade, Home Defense Reserve, four camps of Red Aets, Spanish-American War Veterans, Salvation Army, Twining, Scranton; William H. Undergrove, Johnstown; and Horace Lacity, Easton.

Large advertisement for Bidding Clearance Sales, featuring the text 'Bidding 1422 WALNUT STREET' and 'BEGIN TOMORROW THEIR ANNUAL CLEARANCE SALES OF SVITS-GOWNS, DRESSES-COATS, WRAPS-BLOUSES, HATS AND FVRS AT ESPECIALLY ATTRACTIVE PRICES'.

Large advertisement for Stewart Trucks, featuring the text 'Thousands of Stewarts Used Throughout the World' and 'The world-wide use of Stewart Trucks is accounted for by these three reasons: 1. Cost less to buy. 2. Cost less to run. 3. Give long service.' It also includes a price list for various truck models.