The Young Lady Across the Way

The young lady across the way says nothing is more important than regular exercise if one is to enjoy good health, and for her part she goes through her neuroathletics every morning just as religiously as she takes her cold bath.

PETEY—No Matter How the Argument Ends, He Wins

By C. A. VOIGHT

Same Job, New Address
—Gandy Buletin.
Chorus—What's happened to that clumsy scene-shifter—the one that was always knocking the scenery down?
Buletin—Oh, he's still scene-shifting—with the artillery in France, you know.
