EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, FRIDAY, JANUARY 10, 1919 THE RIGHT WAY TO MARKET : SOME GUIDES TO POPULARITY : THE FLOWER HOLDER : LETTERS HOW TO WIN A YOUNG MAN MRS. WILSON TELLS HOW TO CUT Please Tell Me What to Do The Woman's AS TOLD BY ONE OF THEM DOWN THE HIGH COST OF EATING By CYNTHIA Exchange about a man's sincerity. I will say no more for "it's hard to train a horse to his galiop." Some letters agree with what I said about the sincerity of a man, and Four Rules Which Every Girl Might Do Well to Cut Out and Pasta Glad to Help Dear Cynthia—I am in very great rouble. May I call you up or see you? I am sure you will always be a good hing in my life—if you will help me. SUNSHINE. TODAY'S INQUIRIES 1. What is the same of "Book Titles?" 2. Describe the same of "Bur." 5. What economy can be practiced in maining pillow silps? on Her Mirror-A Very Real Youth in His Twenties The Wrong and the Right A Series on Marketing Why Overbuying Is Extravagant, Even When Cer-tain Commodities Are Cheap Sent Them In Today's Home Cooking lesson be Things on Which to Econgins a series on thrift marketing. sure 4. How can windows be kept from freezin I AM setting down here rules for these rules and paste them in a con-girls "who would fain make a hit spicuous place on her bdreau. They with a man." That was just how the young man who sent them in to the omize-Eggs and Butter There will be fifty-two practical les-5. Name an easy way to brighten copper and brass vessels. sons in economy-one to appear Nutriment of Milk each Friday. The marketing will What will remove paint from glass? HELEN H. cover the four seasons of the year. Leftovers That Require Much Additional Expense to Complete a Meal Are Wasteful elements, are vitally necessary for our physical growth and well-being. WE ARE indebted to the young man for the remark about shoes. How many, many girls do consider the nice appearance of their feet unimportant. I have seen the very smartest sort of girls ruin their entire costume with a pair of heels run down and shoes up-To Dear Dimpled Blonde YESTERDAY'S ANSWERS My dear, since you ask an explanatio Here are the rules just as he wrote with special attention to the can-My dear, since you ask an explanation, we did not publish your letter to "Puz-iled Twenty" purposely. "Puzzfed Twen-ty" wrote to us for advice and we gave it to him. He did not ask for a "roast" and I am afraid your letter was a little bit of a "roast," so of the two which came about him, we preferred the kind one, which we published. We are sorry you have been sick. Do Here are the rules just as he wrote them: First. Learn to make a man talk about himself. A man has a much better time when he is with you if you can make him talk instead of making him do all the listening. Try to find out what he is most vitally in-terested in and by adroit questioning you can keep him going all evening. Recond. Neatness and cleanilness are more to be desired than many frills and furbelows and regardless of head for a girl with a shiny nose. I am no advocate of a heavy stags make-up in the privacy of one's home or in public places, but I do think a girl is legitimately entitled to make herself as attractive as possible. If she re-source to a paparent. But paint and powder will never take the place of the good, old-fashloned song-and-water fra spessible. A surprisingly large number of men look at a girl's feet be-four the your. If you want to retain a man's respect, allow him to become surprise her shadow of a doubt the think that you are simply rear beyond the shadow of a doubt not your face or your fortune, do not the hink that you are simply reary about him and him alone. Make him think that It' he wants you he will have to work hard for you. How to Buy Meat to Get the The average weight for a woman five feet in height is from 106 to 120 ning and preserving season. These articles are especially planned for Greatest Value for the hen wallpaper is faded touch up the flowers with a little water color. the requirements of a family of of girls ruin their entire costume with a pair of heels run down and shoes un-polished. One might never suspect a visit to the shoe store or the shoe mender or a trip to the bootblack might be the way to a man's heart. But it is quite true, well-dressed young men become disgusted with the girl whose footgear is untidy, and are at-tracted to her by the neat, trim shoes. The rest of the second rule is equally important. Good old-fashioned soap and water! How very many of our girls need it! Men are fastidiously clean. Most of them have gone in for athletics and have acquired the shower. Their faces shine with the pink of health and dashes of water, How disgusted they mixe become, then, sometimes, with the endless proces In using mahogany furniture in a small room have white woodwork instead of dark to make the room look larger. four. Amount of Money Spent. This series was worked out by one, which we published. We are sorry you have been sick. Do not think of sending Cynthia a present, Even if it is a matter of a bet. She could not and would not accept it. elicately colored enameled furniture should be cleaned with sifted whiling put on with a sifehir moistened cloth. Then who off with a bleve of old fam-nel wrung out in clear water. Finally polish with a pleve of silk. Mrs. Wilson in the Navy School for Wisdom of Fish Cooking, of which she is the head and founder, and the experiment By MRS. M. A. WILSON was highly successful. Through Then a room is small use small patterns in chintz or cretonnes rather than large ones. our physical growth and well-being. (Copyright, 1919, by Mrs. M. A. Wilson, All rights reserved.) these tested plans, then, the house AFTER the holidays most of us Now, next to knowing what to THE 'CHEMISE' FROCK Wants to Make a Date wife will be enabled to feed her Wants to Make a Date<sup>6</sup> Dear Cynthia—I am a young man of nineteen and have known a girl for eight months. She and her parents lived in the same house that my parents lived in the same house that my parents lived in a nother city. I expect to go home for a vielt soon and she is still in the same city, but not the same house. I would like very much to keep up our friendship, but I have never made any appointment with her since we first met. How shall I go about it? Is there any day in the week that is best for making a date? Would it be proper to ask her to meet me at the station? Should I invite her to my home? What would be a nice birthday present for this girl of eighteen? Write the girt a little note and tell a house where the staircase runs in a direct line from the first to the third foor, have the same wallpaper all the way up. buy comes the problem of when and family as she desires and still con-CONTINUES IN VOGUE have in mind the reduction of where to purchase the food. Many trol cost. household expenses with a view to women are attracted to foods which look nice in the store or market, and economy. Yet many women, when band discovered that he could do To Remove Iodine From Ivory To the Editor of Woman's Pape: Dear Madam—Could you tell me what will remove loding stains from while ivor? They have been on a year. They you and I will look for my answer on the thoman's Page. DAILT READER. in this way they will frequently purthey begin to economize, will cut the same amount of business in a chase some food which they cannot down at once upon meat, eggs, milk less expensive office, how long do afford. Do not overbuy; even though and butter. These four foods always you think it would take him to make How disgusted they must become, then, sometimes, with the endless proces-sion of young girls who build their faces up with 'kalsomine'' when a good scrubbing would be much more to the point. And a man does not like a shiny nose, either. This means, girls, use powder and a little color if you need it, 'but please get into the full glare of the day with your mirror be-fore you go out into the street. it is possible to turn the leftovers the change? Between you and me, into palatable dishes. 'This is parneem to come in this order in their we will agree that he would move ticularly true of perishable foods, as Exposulphide DAILY NEADER. Exposulphide of soda, such as photographers use, will take out the stains if not too persistent. Use a diluted solution. Before you get this try a little alcohol. This might remove the stain. in a hurry; he would want to elimithey very often cannot be utilized as Fruit, fresh vegetables and vari- nate the waste immediately. Now leftovers without the additional exnate the waste immediately. Now it is just the same with you. In-stead of buying expensive foods, learn to purchase those that will give you the greatest value for the money that is spent. Some of the methods of saving are to eliminate the expensive chops, steaks and roasts and to have in their place the stews, braises, gou-lashes and potroasts that will supply your family with the maximum amount of nutriment for the money Fish will be found, by actual test, Fish will be found, by actual test, pus other foods that are classed as it is just the same with you. In- pense of other purchases to complete her For Thin Hands high in price are used very sparing-To the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam—Will you kindly tell n what to do for thin hands? Mine are thin I am ashamed of them. I would ever so grateful to you for a suggestion. SELF-CONSCIOUS, ly. Quite recently one housewife wrote me that she felt it good econ- money that is spent. THE first rule I firmly believe in, I regardless of the fact that it is i omy to cut down on foods that she Massaging the backs and palms of the hands with cocoa butter will help to make them fleshier. Use a firm, rotary motion and be faithful in treatment. let him think that you are simply crary about him and him alone. Make him think that if he wants you he will have to work hard for yon. Any girl might do well to cut out felt were not really essential to the are to eliminate the expensive chops, alize the actual amount of food that daily menu. Now keep this in mind: To keep Kitten Found Good Home the body physically fit and in good To the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam-Many thanks for sending me so many good homes for the lost little kitten. I have written to all the lades, tell-ing them he found a good home through your paper. The lady was delighted with him. Many, many thanks. (Mrs.) R. T. excent that, like all other stories, they ways of making a needle float on the health, it will demand good food chould, if possible, he typewritten, or if surface of the water. The simplest way and plenty of it; particularly is this not that, very clearly written with wide is to place a plece of tissue paper on it, spacing between the lines. Use only one The paper soon becomes soaked with true of growing children and perspacing between the lines. Use only one side of the paper, of course. The best way to find out the sort of story any magazine will buy is to study the maga-zine. You can in that way find out the sort of story it does buy. Children like pend on the age of the little ones for whom you are writing. I am malling you the addresses of some children's magazines, as you re-quested. Darlor Magic To the Editor of Woman's Page: Deer Madam-Not so long age on your Woman's Page you mentioned two partior Fish will be found, by actual test, one and one-quarter pounds of vegesons doing hard physical labor. to be cheaper than meat, and if it is tables, two ounces of butter, two Don't Run Away Dear Cynthia-I am a kirl seventeen years of age, considered good-looking, although I don't think so unyself. I am of a settled disposition. T have been going with a young man for six months. This young man is twenty-two years of age. While I have been going with this fellow I have not been out with any on-eise, and I am most sure he has not been out with any other girl. Now this fellow has asked me to marry him, and to do so I would have to run away, for I know my parents would not consent for me to marry, not that they have anything against the fellow, because he is very nice and he works steadily, doe not smoke, chew nor drink. This fellow has never told me outright that he loved me. He will say. "That he cannot get a nicer girl nor a prettier girl anywhere." Don't Run Away (Mrs.) R. T. Virtually half of the money spent placed twice a week upon the menu, ounces of sugar and six ounces of We were glad to help place the kitten. in the home is devoted to the purnicely cooked and served, the family bread, will supply the average man Cure the Cause chase of food, and even though the will be delighted. Milk is still the cheapest and best with a daily ration, which will main-tain his weight and keep him physi-To the Editor of Woman's Page: exorbitant rise in prices has made To the Latter of Waman's Page: Dear Madam—You have helped so many others in various ways, so I am writing to you to learn whether you could help me. I have been troubled with persuring fost for some time. It is continuous. It is decidedly ruinous to my shoes, but that would concern me the least if I could secure a remedy. Can you help me? CONSTANT READER. this problem a serious one to the of protein foods, and yet if you ask cally fit, even though he is doing average housewife, I feel that fre- the average person how much milk hard, physical labor. quently the lack of knowledge of he or she drinks, they will inform Now, during the coming year we food and its true value contributees you that milk is for babies and chil- will keep this subject in mind, plan-to help give us less food value per dren. Yet a quart of high-grade ning from time to time to review cause them to sink Games." by Blakely. creamery milk at the cost of eight- and look over our menus, expense Many women are satisfied to just cen or twenty cents per quart, is far accounts and plans for the months get along, hardly caring that fre- cheaper and more wholesome than to come. Right here I want to ask quently they could obtain certain sirloin steak at fifty cents per pound. the housewife to plan her kitchen has hever told me outright that he loves me. He will say, "That he cannot get a nicer girl nor a pretiler girl anywhere." And of course I pass that as a joke. Then he will get cross and will say. "That he should know, that he is older than L." Now by his actions I really think he loves me, although he has not told me so. And I know that there is not another fellow I could love better. Do you think there is so much harm in running away to get married? I know Dad would not let me get mar-ried because he won't let us bring a fellow to the house. Still he knows I go with them. I have told this young hellow I would go in February and he gave me a ring for Christmas, not a diamond, though. Please let me know what you would do if you were me? I can break the engagement, but I know I will lose my friend when I do it. At least I think so. I remain a Don't run away, dear. In the first A Creeping Blanket A creeping blanket can be made a veritable fairlyland to a young adven-turer on his knees if the adjustable cover is of basket weaved canvas em-broidered in delicate colors with cross stitch animals and flowers parading around the border. foods at a much lower cost if they Milk also contains other valuable garden for the early spring, plantwould be willing to take the time nutriments. Besides the protein, it ing it with a view to having a conand trouble to turn them into at- contains large amounts of mineral stant supply of lettuce, radishes, This "chemise" frock shows an in-

salts. These, together with the vi- corn, salad, scallions and young Now, Mrs. Housewife, if your hus- tamines, which are the life-giving beets.

Mrs. Wilson Answers Housewives' Questions

My dear Mrs. Wilson-I am taking the liberty of writing to the liberty of writing to you and I want to ask you some-thing. I am a girl sixteen years old and I have a sick mother; and I have to go to work and when I get home I have to get supper ready. I get home about 6 o'clock. Can you tell me how and what to cook? I would like to knew something that would not take very long to cook to get ready. My mother is a very sick woman and I don't like to ask her what to cook all the time (she has been sick for a good while and she is kind of grouchy). Well, I hope I have not asked too much hai the lat of pre the soli gar ma Pls her size car val wh fro Per ear its

to suc tion sys vid sor ret from cha cha elu

mo ing The ma tea cor go J11 of bri wounded

of

lows

One teaspoonful of salt One tablespoonful of water One-half teaspoonful of paprika One tablespoonful of sugar Two tablespoonfuls of vinegar Beat to mix and then fold into Four tablespoonfuls of salad oil Toss gently to mix and then serve Pour into thin glass and dust with stiffly beaten whites of one egg.

Four tablespoonfuls of salad oilToss gently to mix and then servepan broiled half-smoked sausagesor fried bacon with this salad. Manydishes may be found in the EvennedPuzzuc LEDGER that will help youout.stiffy beaten whites of one egg.Pour into thin glass and dust withnumeg and serve.least I think so. I remain aSTEADY READER.STEADY READER.over. that reason does not hold goodand the designers continue to producethe designers continue to produceto produce the designers continue to producethe designer

A Daily Fashion Talk by Florence Rose T is difficult to tell just what is the real reason for the continued popularity of the chemise dress. Of course during wartime we all said that it was because the chemise dress was a simple style, that was particularly suited to the times. But now that the war is over, that reason does not hold good teresting combination of serge and velvet

the feet at night and rubbing into them a little vinegar or alcohol will help to lessen the trouble. But since it is so persistent. I would not content myself with this temporary measure. A doctor would be able to answer your second inquiry. It is a hit beyond me to give expert medical opinions. Writing Children's Stories To the Editor of Women's Fage: Dear Madam—Could you please tell me some of the rules about sending short stories to children's magazines. There are no particular rules about sending stories to children's magazines. Withing stories to children's magazines. The table to children's magazines. Swimming needles. Here they are: The vanishing dime—Stick a small piece of white wax on the nall of the piece of white wax on the nall of the piece of white wax on the nall of the piece of white wax on the nall of the piece of white wax on the nall of the piece a dime in the paim of your hand and tell the audience that you can make it vanish at the word of command. You then close your hand so that the dime sticks to the waxed nall. Blow on your stories they would like? There are no particular rules about sending stories to children's magazines. Swimming needles—There are several

Use Cuticura For the Scalo

Beginning Tomorrow-Extraordinary

Thanking you for your A. S. help, I am, A. S .- I shall be very glad to help you. Next time you write just tell me what you like. As you have so preferably from the shoulder or little time to prepare the meal, I neck, very fine and place in a fruit would suggest that on Sunday you jar, together with make a beef or lamb stew or a nice One and a half cupfuls of cold potroast. Then this can be easily water reheated for one or two evenings One branch of thyme during the week. Perhaps you have neighbors that would help you out by cooking a little for you now and more than one hour to prepare a hours. Strain and season with salt.

meal. However, try these: Macaroni and Beef

Cook one-half package of macaroni in a saucepan of boiling water for twenty minutes and then turn into a colander and let the cold water run on it. Now return to the saucepan and sift over the macaroni four level tablespoonfuls of flour. Toss or stir the macaroni so that the flour will be evenly distributed. Now pour over the macaroni

One and one-half cupfuls of mill: One-half cup of water

Stir until it comes to a boil and then set on the back of the range while you prepare the beef.

Tear into small pieces two ounces water over it and let stand for five place in a saucepan and add minutes. Drain and then add to the macaroni. Then season the macaroni to taste.

Beans and Salt Pork

Have the butcher cut the salt pork into thin slices and then remove the rind and nick the edges of the meat with a sharp knife. This prevents it from curling. Parboil for five min-utes and then drain. Fry until golden brown in hot fat and then lift to a warm platter. Then turn a can of beans into the pan and heat slowly for fifteen minutes. If you are willing to do a little cooking after your supper, you could prepare the next day's evening meal.

Boil potatoes in their jackets until tender and then drain and cool. They may be used for French fried. plain fried or potato salad. To French fry: Pare the cold-boiled potatoes and then cut into cubes and fry until golden brown in hot fat. For potato salad: Pare and dice the potatoes and to every two cupfuls add again. Unless you use canned foods it in a pan of warm water. Bring to to one quart. This is the concenand fry or broil meat, it will require a boil and then cook slowly for two trated extract of chicken.

Two medium-sized onions, cut fine Little parsley, chopped fing

My dear Mrs. Wilson-In some of your recipes you mention sirup. Is this corn sirup or molasses? Also, would you please explain just how you use a candy ther-mometer and an oven thermome-ter? One teaspoonful of finely minced Beat with a dover egg beater for five minutes and then pour into wellter? Are they the same? By this I mean can one thermometer be used for both purposes? Also, I would appreciate it very much if you would explain why some cook books tell you to simply but. greased custard cups. Set the cups in a pan of warm water and bake until firm in the center in a moderate oven. Serve either hot or cold. cook books tell you to simply but-Dust lightly with mace. ter a cake pan, others to butter

Mutton Puree

broth in a bowl and add paraley

Have the butcher cut one and a half pounds of the neck of mutton of dried beef and then pour hot in small pieces. Wash and then Three cupfuls of cold water One fagot of soup herbs One small onion served either hot or cold.

small bowl and then add

Yolk of one egg phia.

Orange Souffle

Ask Mrs. Wilson

through these columns. Address questions to Mrs. M. A. Wilson,

EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER, Philadel to be served as a dessert or dur-ing the meal? Thanking you in advance for all this information, I am, Mrs. L. J. T. Mrs. L. J. T .- White corn sirup is Bring to a boil and cook slowly for two hours. Strain the broth into a used. A candy thermometer is bowl and let cool. Remove the cake placed in the saucepan against the of fat that forms. Now return the side and held in place by an arliquid to a saucepan and add four rangement on the back of the thertablespoonfuls of well-washed mometer. This thermometer is used tapioca. Cook slowly until the only for boiling sirup, etc. Oven tapioca is transparent and soft and thermometers are made so as to set then add one well-beaten egg. Cook on the floor of the oven and they slowly for a few minutes and then cannot be used in connection with season with salt. This may be boiling liquids.

I am not familiar with the methods used in cookbooks. Butter is too expensive to be used for greasing Strain the juice of one orange into pan and it will also cause a cake to burn much quicker than if other shortening is used.

The apple fritters may be used as a sweet entrement and served with If you have any cookery probthe roast or as a simple dessert at lems bring them to Mrs. Wilson. the close of the meal. She will be glad to answer you and flour them and still others to line with greased paper.

I have a delicious recipe for apple fritters, to be served with lemon sauce. Are these supposed

From Men's Old Shirts

Neat kitchen aprons can be made our men's shiris that have worn-out ollars and cuffs. Little work is re-uired, because the shirt is siready

Helen H. Writes Again

One branch of thymeOne branch of parsleyOne branch of celeryFasten the lid on the jar and setit in a pan of warm water. Bring toa boil and then cook slowly for twohours. Strain and season with salt.Beef CustardPlace one cupful of cold beeforoth in a bowl and addTwo cggsDring to a boil and then cookaboil and then let cgol. Re-move the fat and return to the ket-tie, and simmer slowly until reducedto one quart. This is the concen-trated extract of chicken.Helen H. Writes AgainDear Cynthla—As I read the lettersthat were in this evening's paper, hotherthat were in this evening's namer. As i read the lettersthat were in this evening's namer. As i may form theone warm water. Bring toa boil and then cook slowly for twohours. Strain and season with salt.To serve: Heat and season onecupful of the broth or use it as inmutton puree or beef custard. If Igain more fully.Helen H. Writes AgainDear Cynthla—As I read the lettersthat were in this evening's namer. As i read the lettersthat were in this evening's namer. As i may set in the second of the dress is of the velvet andthe parents think of girls who camouffagetake very little heed of what theirmothers where they are going; come inwhen they please, and act as they please.Are the mothers to blame for the waryprove of a girl doiling up and paradingthey may and paradingthey may and paradingthey may and paradingthe commented of facture are of this newspaper.(Copyright 1912, by Florence Rose.)

prove of a girl dolling up and parading the streets? Ito the mothers believe in getting their daughters rich husbands? Will the mothers of these camoufage (Copyright, 1919, by Florence Rose.)

Today's Beauty Hint

will the monthers of these camouflage dolls answer? "Experience." I would not think much of the man who would break an engage-or even send at little note giving the reason. The men I go with would not think of breaking an engagement, and if they had to they would let me know and i would not have to wait till I saw them again. Fut if any thing like that ever happened I would not speak to the boy many would? I say very few. If they did they must certainly want his friend-ship very badly. Since you cling to what you said

TOMORROW morning they will be ready-hundreds of pairs of these stunning NEWARK Shoes-all marked at $2.45 and $3.95 for quick and final clearance.

Mewark Shoe for WOMEN

They are the identical NEWARK Shoes that have been selling in such great quantities all season long at $3.50 and $5. per pair.

What woman will need a second invitation to such a royal feast of values? It's like the good old times you used to know-real bargains for mighty little money. Sale begins promptly at 8:00 tomorrow morning. Don't miss it!

104 S. 52d St., South of Chestnut Ridge and Columbia Aves. 2236 N. Front St., near Dauphin 5622 Germantown Ave., near Chelten Ave. 32 South 60th St., near Market 2818 Kensington Ave., near Hart Lane 1431 South St., bet. Broad and 15th 216 N. Sth St., bet. Race and Vine

Extra Special!

75c. Bath Slippers. 59c 10c. Corn Cure ......7c

