

MRS. ROOSEVELT RECEIVES ESTATE

Colonel's Widow to Hold Property in Trust During Lifetime

PLACED AT $500,000 Empowered to Dispose of Fortune by Will as She Sees Fit

Oyster Bay, Jan. 10.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt's will, made in 1912, was read to members of the family at Sagamore Hill yesterday...

Although the value of the former President's estate was not made known, it was understood to amount to not more than $500,000.

The silver and family plate, Mr. Cobbe said, are to be divided among the children, as is a $60,000 trust fund left to Colonel Roosevelt by his father.

The will named as trustees Lieutenant Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., and W. Emlen Roosevelt, a cousin of the Colonel.

Mrs. Roosevelt, who was unable to attend the funeral, will visit the grave today, after which she will visit Colonel Roosevelt's sister, Mrs. William Sheffield Cowles, at Farmington, Conn.

As the visitors stood about the grave an army airplane from Quantin Roosevelt Field at Mineola flew low and dropped a laurel wreath which landed squarely on the grave.

grams, cablegrams and letters of condolence continued to pour into more Hill, and Captain Roosevelt that all which bore addresses were answered.

IDENT AROUSES KRUSEN Two Deaths Cause Criticism of Speeding Ambulances

The second death as the result of an automobile accident Wednesday night at the west end of Market street bridge has aroused Director Krusen...

"There is no necessity for driving ambulances through the streets at excessive speed, either day or night," he said.

350 Smart Serge Frocks Offer Big Savings

Every one of these dresses is made of fine serge. The models are unusual in inexpensive frocks. In several models the bodices are tucked and the dresses are trimmed with buttons. Other tailored models show many bone buttons. Colors are navy blue, Copenhagen, tan, green, brown and black.

Loose panels in front are heavily embroidered in braid; many frocks are embroidered in silk and have corded girdles; military braid is used on other dresses that have overskirts.

As in all the newer frocks, the rollarless bodice predominates. One of these is sketched.

Fluttering rainbow colors in Dance Frocks and Evening Dresses, $19.75 to $35

Frocks for young girls to wear to informal affairs are made of lustrous taffeta in pink, orchid or light blue. The skirts are draped and the sleeves are about three-quarter length.

Then, as well as the very fluffy things, there are dresses all of black net or of black net over rose-color satin.

It's the Freshness of the New Hats That Charms

It's a pleasure to look at their light, trim, clean-cut lines after the heavier hats of winter. There's a freshness, a grace about them that is altogether charming.

There are straw hats for the South and straws whose springiness is tempered by satin and Georgette crepe for those who want to wear them right here in Philadelphia.

Most of the shapes are small—but with a dash—and colorings run to black, dark brown, navy blue and henna, with here and there a bright, gay splash of red or turquoise blue.

Exceptionally fine hats will be marked $3.75 and $5 for Saturday. (Market)

SPECIAL LOTS

Blackoney throw scarfs, $5, $6.75 and $7.50. Brownoney muffs, $6.75. Kitoney muffs and scarfs, $5, $6.50 & $7.50.

Skunk or taupe nutria neckpieces, small, $3.75. Skunk collarets, $7.50. Black-dyed lynx and taupe nutria neckpieces, $9.75.

(Of these last groups the quantity is limited and, as the values are quite remarkable, it is advisable to come early.)

1200 Men's Four-in-Hand Silk Neckties Special at 35c —3 for $1

We are very proud of this lot of neckties—and with reason. They are made from the short ends of various high-grade silk that are used to make scarfs which sell for three or four times this price.

The patterns and colorings are a man's kind—you know—the kind that a man likes to choose for himself.

To let you know how good the ties are, we'll tell you a secret. The buyer, himself, is getting a dozen for his own wear! (Gallery, Market)

Reductions on Hats for Small Boys

Now $1.50 Hats of velvet, of plush or of combinations of the two materials. All in dark colorings or black for boys of 3 to 7 years.

Now 75c Knocok hats of various wool mixtures are in several shapes suitable for boys of 5 to 10 years. (Gallery, Market)

A New Corset Is the First Spring Thing to Buy

Before the frock or suit comes the corset, chosen with care and fitted with skill. It is easy to find the proper corset and to find it at moderate price in the Down Stairs Store.

Front-Lace Corsets For slender women there is a good La Camille corset of white coutil with an elastic top. $2.50.

Two good Gossard models are marked $3. One, of pink coutil with a blue ribbon top, is for average figures, being lightly boned in front and a little heavier across the back.

The other is for stout women, and is of pink or white coutil with a long skirt and medium high bust.

Back-Lace Corsets At $2—an American Lady corset of white coutil, for medium to average full figures, has elastic insets over the hips.

A Warner Corset at $2 has a graduated front steel, well-boned skirt and medium low bust. At $2—a Royal Worcester corset, with elastic insets at top and bottom, is made of pink coutil and lightly boned for slender women.

Special at $1.50 A topless corset of figured pink poplin for slender figures. It is lightly boned and has elastic around the top.

If a Man Wants to Save Money on a Suit or an Overcoat without sacrificing one bit of quality or style, he should come to the Men's Store on the Gallery, Down Stairs.

Special All-Wool Suits, $22, $24.50 and $29.50 These are splendid suits of cassimere or chevrot in various good dark mixtures. The single-breasted coats are made with 2 or 3 buttons.

There are all sizes in the lot, but in the groups at $22 and $24.50 the choosing is especially good in sizes 33 to 37.

Special Overcoats at $22 B-r-r-r! When the days are cold—as they are now—every one of these coats will keep some man comfortable and warm. They are box coats and are made single-breasted.

From $30 to $35 men can get practically any kind of storm ulster or ulsterette that they want. They can feel sure that the coats they get are all wool and will give 100% wear, for our standard of quality is held rigidly high. (Gallery, Market)

Special! Men's Knitted Mufflers at 85c

Knitted fiber mufflers in dozens of different patterns and colorings composing a manufacturer's entire stock. Then, too, we are clearing out our own stock.

The result is that many of these mufflers are less than half price. Some have slight imperfections in the weave, but others are first quality.

Included are some woollen scarfs in gray or tan.

And at $1.85 Many of these mufflers are of beautiful silk, while others are of fiber. The weaves and colors are various.

Men's automobile mufflers of knitted wool usually sell for a third more. They are in gray or tan and have fringed ends. $1.85. (Gallery, Market)

Chenille Rugs Half Price

One of our good mills that makes high-grade chenille rugs has discontinued certain patterns and colorings and has sold them to us at exactly half price.

We have priced them accordingly and they will be ready on the Center Aisle tomorrow. The colorings are ever so pretty and the rugs are firmly woven, though very soft. Good fringe finishes the ends.

27x54 inches, $3 30x60 inches, $3.75 (Chestnut)

Gingham Petticoats Sturdy gingham in blue-and-white or gray-and-white stripes makes them. They have tape at the waist and deep flounces at the bottom. $1. Extra sizes in the same style are $1.25, and these are very generous in width. (Central)

Coats for Young Daughter of 12 Years to 16

She has gone along very nicely with a lightweight coat—up to now, but it seems as if the Winter is here to stay. That means a new, warm coat and mother knows where to buy it!

Coats are of mixed or plain colorings at $9.75 and $12. Other better coats go gradually up to $30.

A Youthful Frock Special at $10

It is a button-on model with a skirt of box-pleated plaid. The waist is made of fine, maize gingham; very good-looking for a girl of 10 years to 16.

Striped Gingham Dresses at $3.75 will fit girls of 8 years to 14. They are well made in a short-waisted style with a wide belt.

Heavier Dresses

of dark plaids and of navy blue wool serge are wrought in many, many attractive models for girls of 12 years to 16. $12, $13.50, $16.50 and $18.75. (Central)

Soft Velour for Draperies Special at $2.75 a Yard

A lovely shade of brown and one of blue are special value at this price.

The velour is 50 inches wide and would do nicely to upholster furniture, as well as to make lovely draperies. (Chestnut)
