

WOULD HOLD UP DEMOBILIZATION

Allies Complain of Rapid Disbanding Army CLOUDS IN EUROPE'S SKY Washington Officials Believe Peace Conference Will Reduce Rate of Discharge

Washington, Jan. 18.—A sudden check may be put on the present rapid rate of demobilization of the Allied armies, especially that of the United States, from which men are being discharged more than twice as fast as from any of the other armies which fought Germany.

A plan for demobilization of all the armies that fought against Germany on a basis that will be fair to all will probably be one of the first matters considered at the Paris Peace Conference.

The statement of General Peyton C. March, chief of staff, a few days ago that the American army is being demobilized more than twice as rapidly as the British army, which stands second in that respect, has brought forth considerable criticism from France and England, particularly the former.

The British papers are clamoring for the return of their fighting men, who were in the war four weary years ago. The peace conference has discussed informally the question of keeping a formal Allied army in the field to meet any possible emergency.

The situation in Russia, where some happening may inflame the whole population over night and throw it into civil or revolutionary war, is another factor some other nations, is regarded by State and War Department officials as a serious problem.

The situation in Italy, where some happening may inflame the whole population over night and throw it into civil or revolutionary war, is another factor some other nations, is regarded by State and War Department officials as a serious problem.

Peace Council May Hear Bolsheviks

George's proposal and subsequent utterances. As to the other three, speculation among diplomats is that Italy will stand with France because Italy has fears of Bolshevism within her own borders, and something like the method to crush that to which he is opposed.

On the other hand, there is strongly held opinion that American action is based on the belief that President Wilson is convinced that Bolshevism cannot be conquered by troops, and the only alternative in sight is parleying.

Such a plan almost sure to be the rate for demobilizing the American army at much below what it is now, War Department officials believe.

TO LIMIT SCOPE OF NATION'S UNION

David Jayne Hill Would Admit Only Those Who Fought Germany TO ESTABLISH JUSTICE Sole Duty of League Maintenance of International Law. He Says

New York, Jan. 18.—Union of the nations which fought to bring international lawbreakers to justice is the hope of the world for the establishment of principles of justice which will extend to all nations, David Jayne Hill, former ambassador to Germany, declared here last night.

The present Allied policy is nothing more or less than a "big game" between the German people and the Allies, he asserted, and should be limited to the maintenance of international law.

The former diplomat "disturbed" any confederation with powers beyond this limitation and predicted that the United States would never transfer to a league of nations, "of which it would be only a parochial part," authority vested by the Constitution solely in the "responsible representatives of the people."

Americans may well ask: How long shall the Allies "use" the Rhine? That is, perhaps, the largest question before the peace conference.

preferred to have continued the struggle and to have battle with the battle which offered itself as a wrong, but a father of a family could not help think of the blood that would be shed. A victory, however, costs the lives of men. We held victory in our grasp without any further sacrifice. We took it as it came.

The German high command was not ignorant of the fact that it was rendered everything was prepared for an offensive in which it would have fully been succumbed. On the 14th we were to attack in Lorraine with twenty French divisions and six American divisions. This attack would have been supported by other movements in Flanders and in the center.

The Germans were lost. They capitulated. There is the whole story, which will correspond with the magnitude of our victory. We must have a peace as absolute as was our success and which will guard us against all future aggressions.

The armistice is signed, but peace is not yet concluded. So long as the status of Europe has not been settled, let us watch; let us watch together, so that we lose not the fruits of our common victory. Let us remain united as we were in battle.
