

A Varied Pictorial Portrayal of American News Happenings Glimpsed by the Camera

N.Y. Times Photo Service

©International Film Service

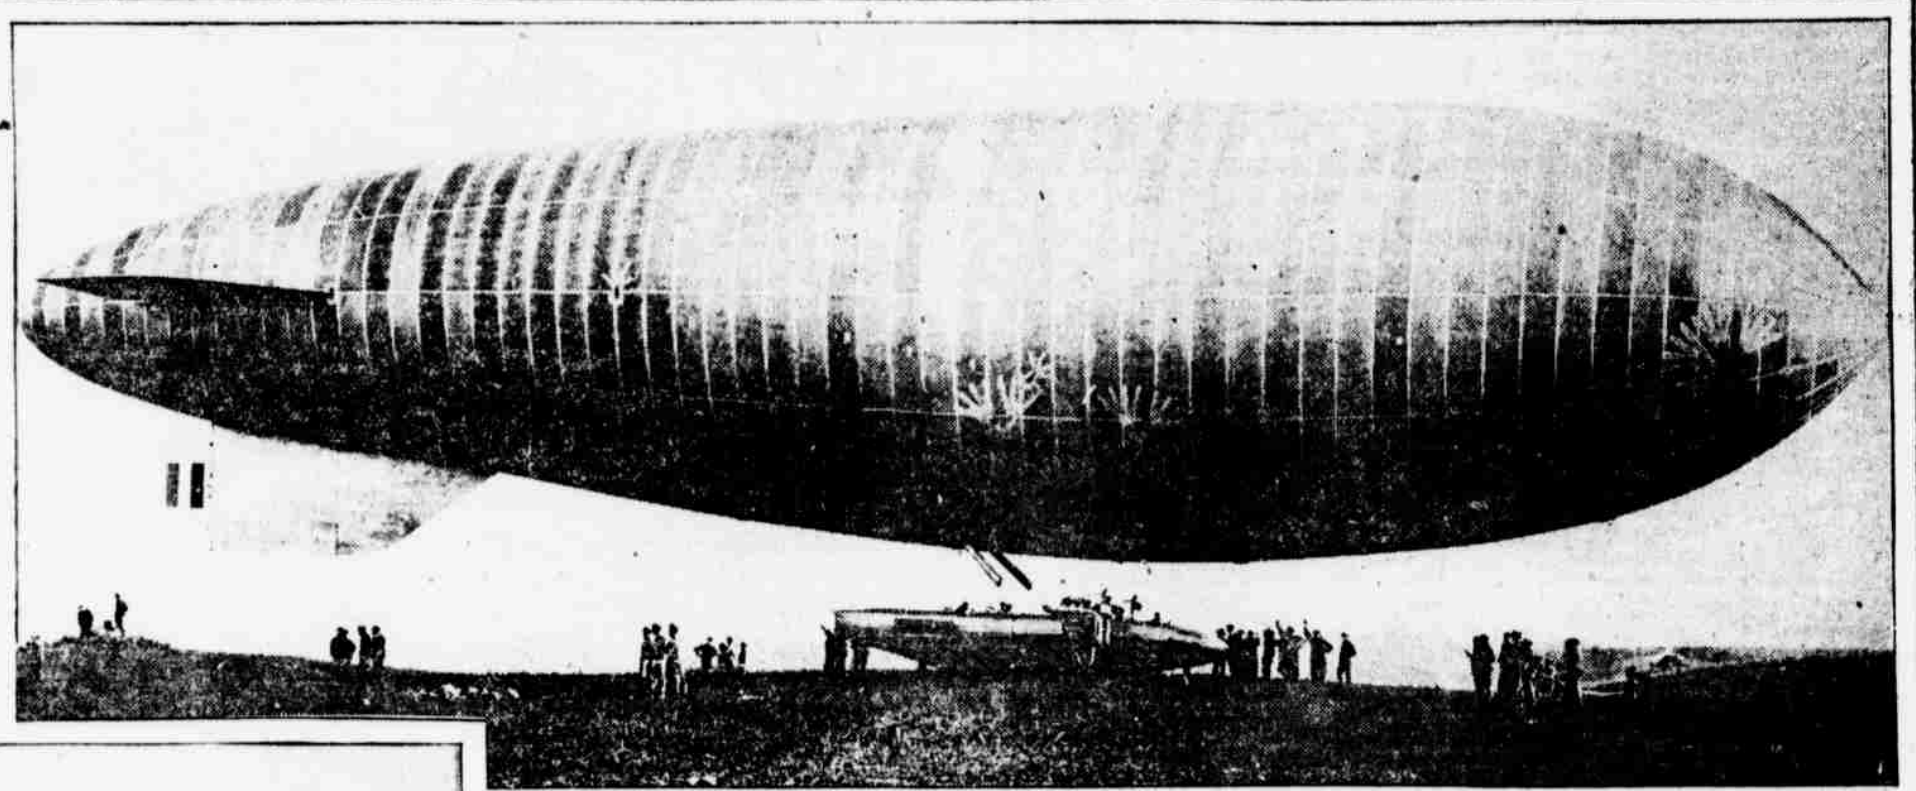

WHEN JOHNNY COMES SAILING HOME. The United States cruiser Seattle arrived in New York harbor from Brest with 1500 fighters from overseas.

WHEN THE 143D ARTILLERY BOYS arrived at Oakland, California, under command of Colonel Ralph Faneuf, the heroine of thousands of feet of film, "Colonel" Mary Pickford was there to pin a bouquet on the smiling colonel.

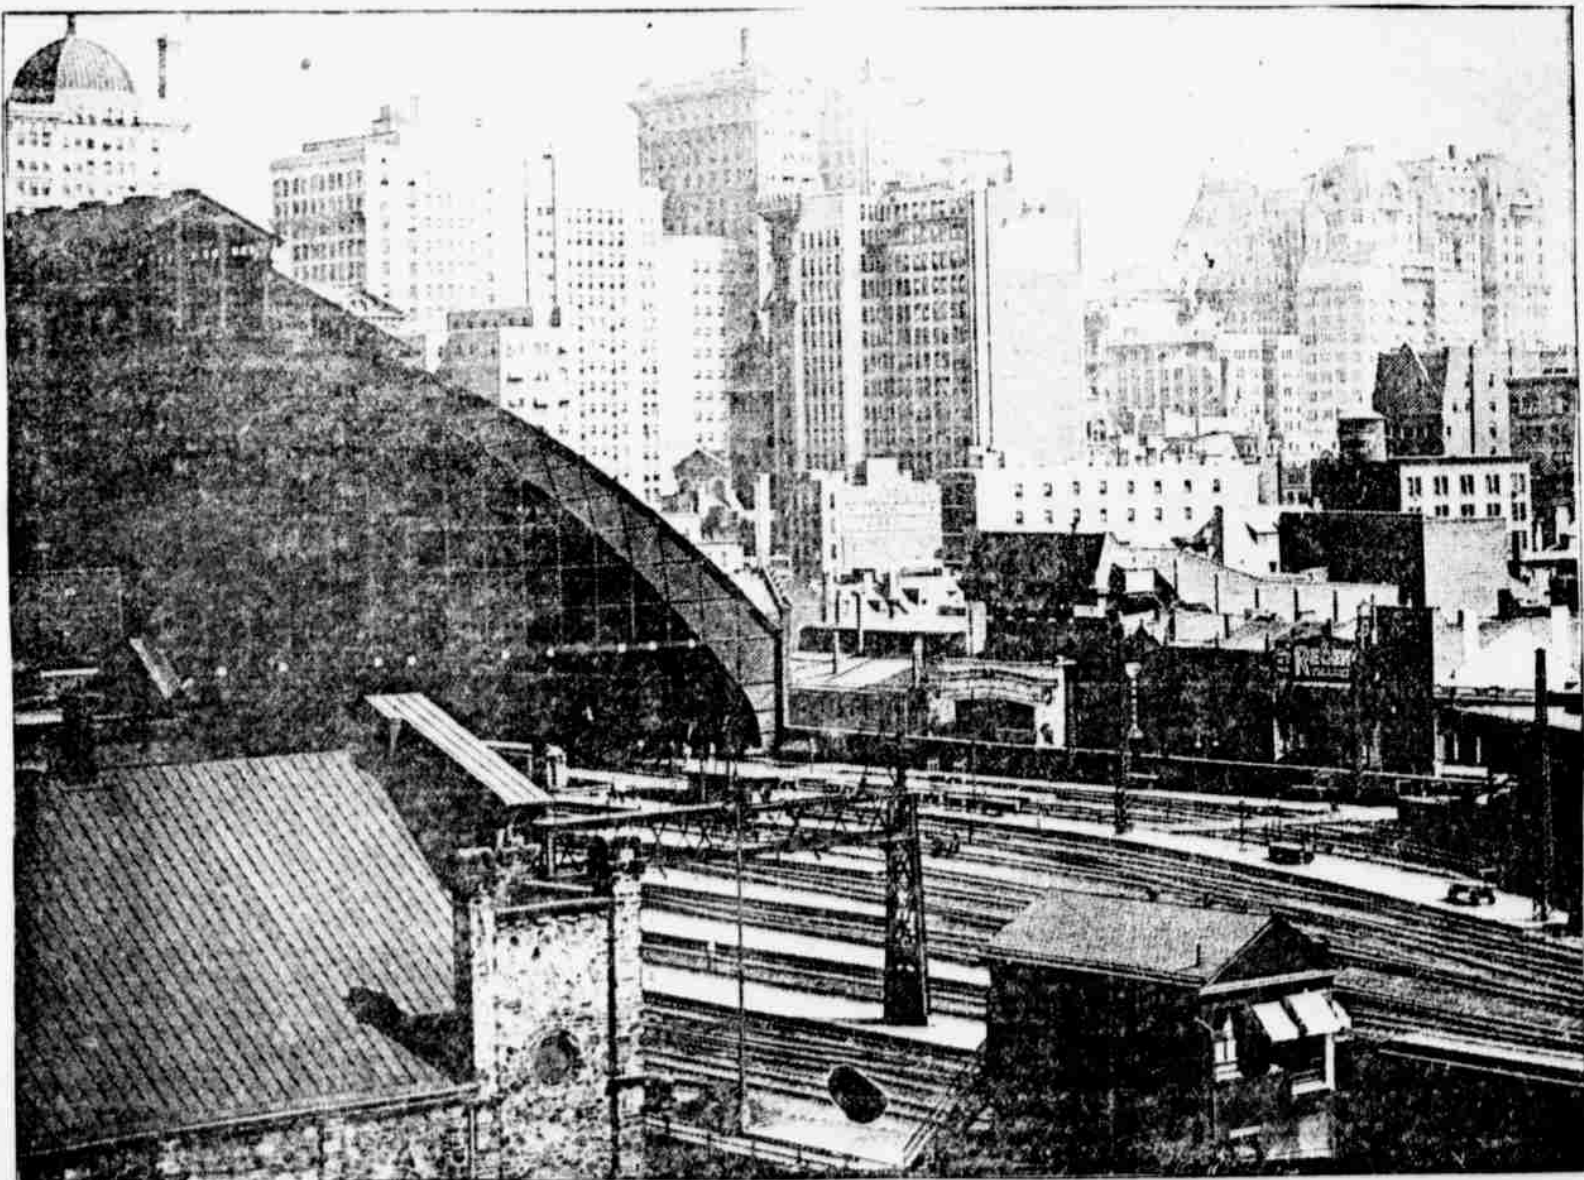

©Underwood

THE ORCHESTRA HIT of this New York theatre, where Herbert E. Hyde is directing his own music to the pantomime "Staggy," is under the singer; the demands of the performance require that action and music synchronize, so Mr. Hyde watches the stage through a trench periscope as he directs his musicians.

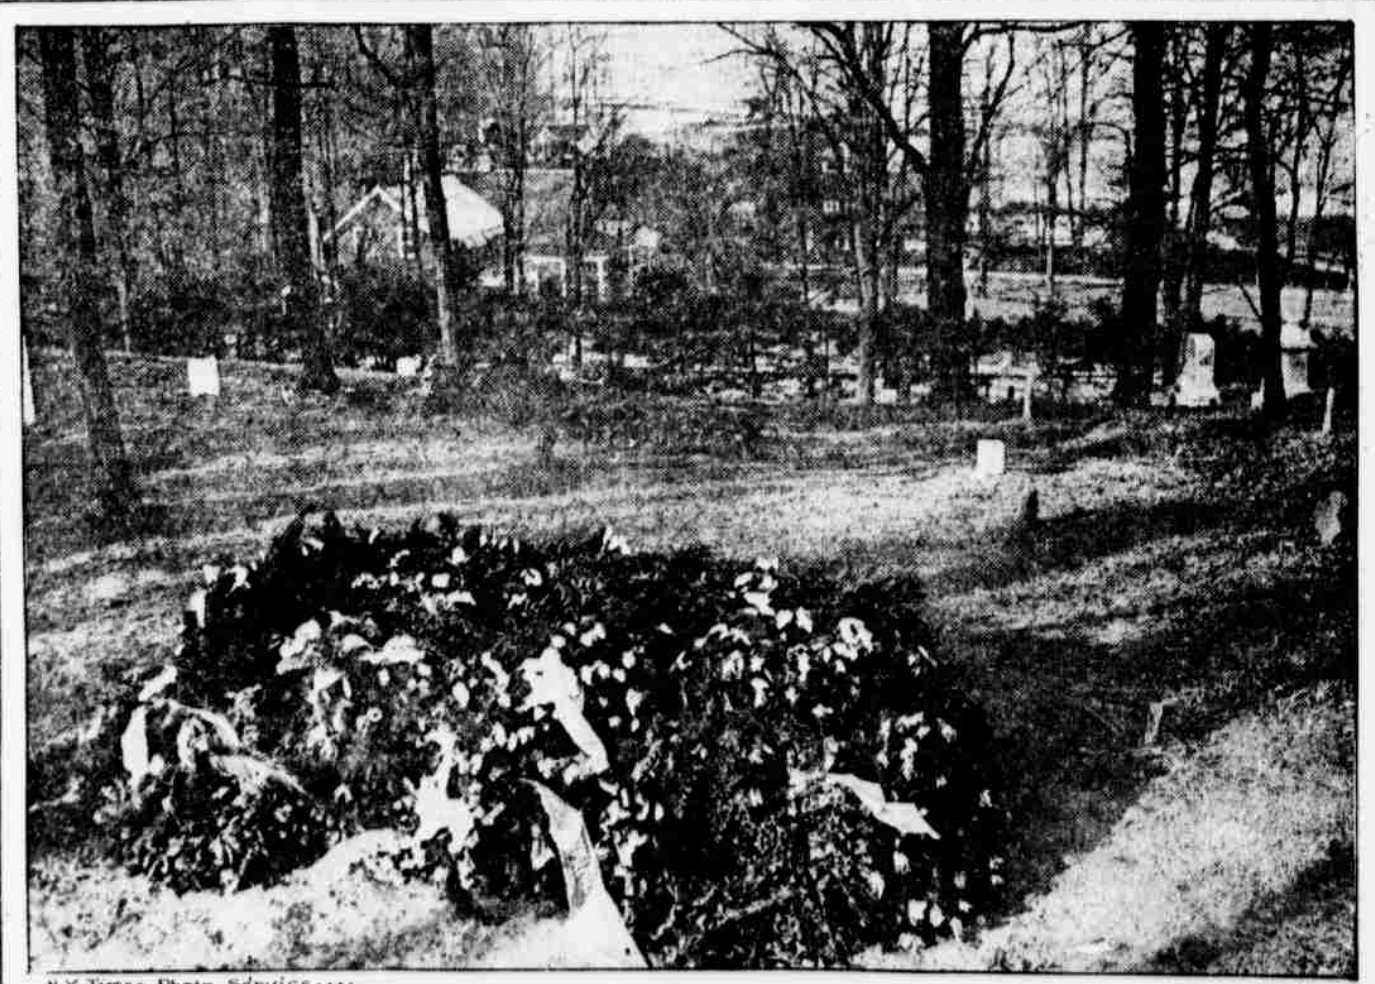

Underwood & Underwood Photo

THIS IS THE BIG NAVY DIRIGIBLE C-1, the largest of its kind in America, which recently made the flight from Rockaway Naval Air Station, L. I., to Key West, Fla., a distance of nearly 1500 miles. The crew, consisting of six men, was under the command of Captain S. V. Parker.

PHILADELPHIA'S SKYLINE OF HOTELS AND OFFICE BUILDINGS just south of the City Hall makes an impressive and effective greeting to the traveler arriving at the Broad Street Station. To the left is the arch of the Pennsylvania's trainshed.

N.Y. Times Photo Service

THE RESTING PLACE OF FORMER PRESIDENT THEODORE ROOSEVELT, on a knoll in Young's Memorial Cemetery near the rambling, rural highway along which he traveled so many times in boyhood and in manhood between the Sagamore Hill house, which was his home, and the quiet village of Oyster Bay, seen through trees in distance.