

They were about to die, and deanne would die in his arms. She was his now-forever. His hold tightened. Her 'ace came neaver. He wanted to shou" to let her know what he had meant to say at Fort o' God. But his volces would have been like a whisper in a <text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text> <text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text> I hope that this will help you H. V. S.-If you will call at this office you will receive an interesting communi-cation. ----read that I will have some broth made son on earth -herself. I ask you to Jeanne you than her away from you knowledge that she must know of his a knowledge that she must know of his The next complete novelette-Over love filled him with happiness, and yet the Wire. help me. Be blind to her unhappiness, forever." for you." Philip took the letter and opened it as Plerre went quietly out of the SOMEBODY'S STENOGRAPHER-That's a Fair Enough Question . . . -1-. Convright, 1919, by Public Ledger Co. tent. Gregson had written him only a SHE AND ME HAD A SCRAP ! - SURE THIS few lines. He wrote: SSAY - MM SS OFLAGE UTENT P DOVIG? THANKS MISS OFLAGE! AN I WANT TO WRITE HER / WILL Y YOU HELP ME IS FINE AN TWO HEADS IS BETTER LOVEABLE time." Mary busiled out rather noisily leaving Mary busiled out rather noisily leaving. Margaret alone with her thoughts. Her

A Story of Salesmanship by Harold Whitehead

R. S. D.—I have forwarded your letter to "R. V. S." and if he is intersted he will get in touch with you. Thank you very much for your interest in this <text><text><text><text><text><text>

My dear Phil- I hope you I for-give me. But I'm ured of this mess-I was never cut out for the woods, and so I'm going to dismiss myself. and so I'm going to dismiss myself-teaving all best wishes behind for you. Go in and fight. You're a devil for fighting, and will surely win. I'll only be in the way. So I'm going back with the ship, which leaves in three or four days. Was going to tell you this on the night you disappeared. Am sorry I couldn't shake hands with you before I left. Write and let me know how things nome out. As ever. TOM. TOM come out. As ever.

Stunned, Philip dropped the letter He lifted his eyes, and a strange cry burst from his lips. Nothing that Cregson had written could have wrung that cry from him. It was Jeanne. She stood in the open door of the tent. But it was not the Jeanne he had known. A terrible grief was written in her face. Her lips were bloodless, her to have justerless; deep suffering seemed

.

AMERICAN GIRL.

AMERICAN GIRL. There are certain automobiles which are naturally driven by women more than men. You could undoubtedly make a success seiling them if you have the necessary qualifications. What are they? First. Knowledge of the mechanism and structure of the car. Second. Ability to drive easily and well.

well. Third. Ability to tell interestingly what the car will do. Pourth. Smart confidence-creating appearance. Fifth An absence of "know it all" Susth. Tact.

Thank you for your refre

Night, Tart, Seventh, Common sense, Eighth, A knowledge of the principles of salesmanship and their application to the automobile business. Now you can answer your question for yourselt. You might go to the Y. C. A. A believe they have a course on automobile engines. I have mailed you names of good books on salesman-hip. By the way, advertising is a growing business for women-over thought of Y