IMPORTANT PRICE MOVEMENTS TO LOWER LEVELS IN NEW YORK

Removal of Restrictions on Money Accommodations Has No Influence on Trading—Shipping Stocks Decline Due to Drastic Cut in Ocean Rates

High Points in Today's Financial News

New York stock market did not respond to removal of restrictions on the brokers' borrowing and important price movements were to lower levels.

New York, Jan. 27.—The removal of the restrictions on money accommodation had no influence on trading at the beginning of the new week and failed to bring in the slightest amount of outside buying.

Some of the trades bought stocks at the opening and there were good activities in a number of the closely held issues.

The news of the drastic cut in ocean rates was followed by heavy selling of the shipping stocks, with Marine preferred selling down from 19 1/2 to 18 1/2.

Aluminum, Gulf and West Indies followed with a drop of 3 points to 95. Cuba Cane Sugar sold off more than 2 points to the new low record of 20 1/2.

The steel industry was heavy, although United States Steel rallied after an early decline of 1 point.

In the final trading a strong tone developed, with prices rallying all around the room.
