The Young Lady Across the Way

NO CAR YET FOR ANDY AND MIN

UNCLE BIM HAS A CRAFTY LOOK IN ONE EYE AND EVERY TIME THE WORD AUTOMOBILE IS MENTIONED HE WINKS. HE SURE HAS THE GUMPS GUESSING.

MIN—HE'S BOUGHT A CAR—I KNOW IT I HEARD HIM TALKING OVER THE TELEPHONE

LET'S GO IN AND SEE IF WE CAN'T GET HIM TO SAY SOMETHING

GEE MIN—WOULDN'T IT BE GREAT IF WE HAD A CAR TO NIGHT?

OH! WOULDN'T IT? ONE LIKE WE SAW AT THE AUTOMOBILE SHOW—OH! WELL—WE'LL NEVER HAVE ONE UNLESS SOMEONE GIVES IT TO US

GO ON GO ON—

IF I HAD A CAR NOW— I'D GO DOWN AND GET A BRICK OF ICE CREAM— I WISH SOME GOOD KIND—RELATIVE WOULD MAKE USA PRESENT OF ONE

GEE! THAT WAS A GOOD ONE YOU SHOT AT HIM— I THOUGHT I'D DIE— YOU'VE GOT TO HAND IT TO YOU— MIN

WELL—NOTHING—NOTHING GAINED

AND DO THEY HAVE REAL KANGAROOS IN AUSTRALIA UNCLE BIM?

The young lady across the way has a jar of the best cold cream made almost twice as much as it used to, but she guesses all dairy products have gone up.

Breaking Point

My "good-bye" to Henry, I realize that those roads are in a shocking state, but I really must ask you to break the tension of this blphemous scene.

Perhaps Doubly—It's awfully annoying, Mary. Just as I am getting in the hot touches on the canvas the wretched cat has to have a bit.

Mrs. P.—Perhaps she caught a glimpse of the picture, dear.—Pearson's Weekly.
