

MANY BIG LEAGUE MANAGERS HAVE REASON TO FEAR NEW RED LEADER

PHILLIES SIGN 2 NEW PLAYERS
President Baker Refuses to Name Latest Members of the Club
ONE A STAR INFELDER

William F. Baker, president of the Phillies, is far from discouraged over the outlook for his team this season.

The president of the Phillies announced that he had completed a deal whereby a first class major league second baseman and catcher had been added to the club's personnel.

Mr. Baker, who along with William Veck, of Chicago, was named a National League committee by President Hoover to study names of persons qualified to fill the position of chairman of the National Commission, has called a meeting of the two committees.

JIMMY BROWN'S LEAD IN DANGER
"Liz" Powell Makes Decided Gain and Is Only One Point Behind
HANCOCK DOES WELL.

Jimmy Brown's position as leading scorer of the American Basketball League is in danger. The speedy St. Columbia guard is in danger and now he has but a one-point lead over Liz Powell of Hancock.

But that the league's leading point-getter is not over a hundred, is solely a matter of his own business, and had he remained in Monday's contest with Yours Truly, he would no doubt have at least hit the century mark.
