Beat McGovern Last Night and Meets "Bat" Leonard at National Tonight

BATTLES ON MONDAY

These are busy days for Pal Moore ecent winner over Jimmy Wilde in the nterallied tourney in London. Last night the speedy southern bantam defeated Young McGovern in a twelveround battle in Baltimore, tonight he faces Battling Leonard over the sixround distance at the National and on Monday evening he goes against Dick Loadman in a scheduled ten-round fray in Buffalo

Moore is in demand and he will be seen often during the coming season. He came to the front virtually overnight and his victory over Wilde made him a greater ring figure nationally than if he had annexed the bantam crown from Pete Herman. Right now he is the sensation of the bantam ranks.

Battling Leonard, Moore's opponent tonight, is a game fellow and a boy capable of making the southerner show

In the other bouts Len Rowlands engages Joe Bailey, Bat-tling Mack takes on Hughie Hutchinson and Jack McClelland faces Artie Mace. Johnny Nelson Kensington vatering Johnny Nelson, Kepsington veteran caster representative, at the end of six hard rounds at the Cambria A. C. last night. The battle was a slugfest all the way, and the capacity gathering saw all the action they wanted bunched into eighteen minutes of real fighting. Nel-son's punches were clean and hard. He also forced most of the fighting. Joe Bowinkle, the most recent sen-sation in Cambria circles, came through with his usual win, this time taking the measure of Joe Marks. Bowinkle continues to show improved form, and his ability to mix it freely with all kinds of opposition has made him a favorite with the Kensington fans.

Dulath, Minn., Feb. 1,—Mike Gibbons won his fight with George Chip last night by a wide margin. Gibbons held his slower opponent at a distance and his slower opponent at a distance and out-boxed him in every round of a slow and uninteresting ten-round boat.

Gibbons seemed content to make Chip miss time after time, apparently taking no chances on in-fighting. His fifteen months of army life seemed not to have slowed him up.

New York, Feb. 1.—Heinis Zimmerman, the doughty third baseman, dropped into the Gianta' office yesterday to show he was all residy to take up the task of covering the stuffed canvas. The "Great Zim" appeared to be in first-class physical condition.

As to the story he wasn't going to be flitting around his old station. Heinie wouldn't discuss it. All I gotta say," remarked Zim, "is that it won't be healthy for any other guy to plant himself permanently at that bas. This is no aftreat," he concluded. "but he'd better wear shinguards."
