PENNSYLVANIA'S PROUD RECORD

IN THE

HARRY G. PROCTOR The authentic narrative of the Glorious Achievements of the 28th

Division of Pennsylvania. Gives names and addresses of Pennsylvania Heroes.

Expressive English

By James C. Fernald, L.H.D.

This is destined to be one of the great books on the English language. The author places meaning above every other consideration in writing and speaking, and he shows how the writer or speaker can convey the exact im-

The emphasis on principles, the preference for plain language, and the indeptation of the subject to the needs of the practical man, are the best fea-tures. T. W. Hunt, Litt. D., Ph.D., Princeton University.

Knowing Insects

Through Stories

By Floyd Bralliar The interesting life of the insect world

"The illustrations are very brantiful, and Mr. Brailiar's stories are very well tail." You have put out an attractive book, and one which I think will not unit.

PUBLISHERS THE JOHN C. WINSTON CO.

New Books of Lasting

Interest and Value

Wit, Wisdom and Foibles of the Great

By Charles A. Shriner A fascinating new volume which introduces in an intimate and personal way the men and women whose public lives form important chapters in history, but whose private lives are largely scaled books. Here are hundreds of stories and anecdores revealing the personal habits, inclinations, and experiences which indicate the real characters of these people. This work offers the most enlightening and interesting footnotes to history. 600 pages, cloth bound. Price, $5.00, net: by mail, $5.16.

"It is a meet valuable book of reference in a library " John Hays Hammond.

WORLD WAR

What Your Boy-Your Neighbor's Boy - or the Boys of Your Town did in the World War.

Cloth-12mo, 298 pages, illustrated. Price 51.00 On Sale Today At All Booksellers PHILADELPHIA

Nerve Control and How to Gain It

By H. Addington Bruce The cloud of mystery, which hide this vital subject from the average man or woman, is blown aside by this en or speaker can convey the exact impression he wishes to convey, with the greatest power and beauty. All phases of English expression are treated in a most helpful and enlightening way that puts the full power of the language at the command of the reader. Seldom has there appeared a book on this subject written in so entertaining a style. Never has there appeared one that presents the subject in a more modern and usable way. Clath bound, 474 pages. Price, $1.60, ner; by mail, $1.72. simple and sympathetic manner the author explains health-giving nerve control in all its phases. The imporlightening and reassuring book. In a author explains health-giving nerve control in all its phases. The importance of proper food, habits, exercise, etc., is explained. The cures for irritability, insomnia, melancholia, worry, timidity, and other results of affected nerves, are described. While the book is written in popular language easily understood, it teaches accepted acientific principles and their application. Cloth bound. Price, $1.00, net; by mail, $1.12.

"Mr. Bruce writes with his usual incid-ity and simplicity. It gives me pleasure to recommend the book, to the worked, the weerstrained, the discouraged." Samuel McComb, D.D.

The Unsound Mind and the Law is portrayed vividly in this new book.

The appearance, habits, characteristics, etc., of all kinds of insects, including Butterflies, Beetles, Grasshop-By George W. Jacoby, M.D. A most valuable book for those interested in forensic psychiatry. It is a careful consideration by an expert of the various types of mental abnormalpers, Ants, Bees, and many other varieties, are described in a pleasingly ity with a discussion as to the degrees of responsibility that may be assigned to persons classified under the different varieties, are described in a pleasingly simple style, and yet with careful accuracy on the acien... c side. The book is not only most entertaining, it is also instructive, identifying all the insects, showing which are beneficial and which are bijurious. This is a simple course in Natural Bistory, arranged in se unusual and fascinating form. The book is probusely illustrated, many of the plates teing in the actual colors of the insects represented. It is bound in decorative cloth. Price, $1.60, not; by mail, $1.72. to persons classified under the different categories. The first part of the book deals with the general relation that jurisprudence bears to the treatment and restraint of those swifering from mental disorders, and the second treats of methods of diagnosis and discrimination between different types. The third and fourth parts cover hypnosis, sexual anomalies, and the manner in which opinions should be rendered. Cloth bound. Price, $3.00, net; by mail, $3.16.

"The book is simply and clearly written, and is worthy of wide distribution among the members of the legal and of the medical prefession. Y Dr. Lewellys F. Barker, Baltimore.

For Sale in All Book-stores, and by the Publishers

FUNK & WAGNALLS COMPANY, 354-360 Fourth Avenue, NEW YORK

While Paris Laughed

Being Pranks and Passions of the Poet Tricotrin

Anyone who knew Paris when that laughing city was the world's playground will find here a delicately tinted portrait in miniature of the thing he loved—gay, brilliant Paris at play. The book's light inconsequence is extraordinarily skilful, exceedingly amusing. The escapades of the elegant, preposterous Tricotrin and his absurd companions are ridiculous in the extreme, but they are the effervescence of an irrepressible lightheartedness that is a gift of the gods. There is scarcely one novelist in a generation who can transfer it to print without dulling its sparkle.

"Had Leonard Merrick been born in France his brilliancy, wit, pathos and keen insight into life would have made his name a household word no less than Alphonse Daudet,"—The Nation,

Price, $1.75 net (postage extra). At all book stores,

E. P. DUTTON & CO., 681 Fifth Ave., New York

By TEMPLE BAILEY

Greater story than "Contrary Mary" or "Mistress Anne"

It is the story of love-of friend for friend, of father for daughter, of man

By the Author of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse"

The Shadow of the Cathedral novel by Blasco Ibanez, calls the book "one of the fullest and richest in odern fiction, worthy to rank with the greatest Russian work and

Translated by Mrs. W. A. GILLESPIE New Edition, entirely reset, $1.30 net. For Sale at all E. P. DUTTON & CO. 681 Fifth Ave.,

At all bookstores $1.50 for maid, and of all for country.

Jacket by Coles Phillips

THE PENN PUBLISHING COMPANY

beyond anything yet done in English."

In these days there is only Leonard Merrick.

LEONARD MERRICK'S latest novel

CITY AND STATE IN NEW BOOKS-LATE NOVELS Facts on World Problems

Demands Everything Be Subordi-

nated to Itself

WAR GLORY OF A SECOND WAR NOVEL BY ARNOLD BENNETT

Thrilling Deeds of Pennsylvania National Guard Per-"The Roll Call" Elaborates the Proposition That War manently Recorded

"The Iron Division in the World War" pays fitting tribute to the patriolism, bravery and glorious war record of the old National Guard of Pennsylvania, Pennsylvania was one of the two States admirably and, in this day of the vogue NEW YEARBOOK of period furniture, some of which is of period furniture, some of which is pseudo or badly done, with his book in hand there is no need for the buyer to be ignorant of the "points" of au-thentic Jacobean, Tudor, Empire, or even the multiple Louis periods.

HANDBOOK OF FURNITURE STYLES, By Walter A. Dyer, New York: The Century Company, $1.50.

Read Gene Stratton-Porter's A DAUGHTER OF THE LAND 'An epic of young womanhood' Vet $1.50

TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY SALE Thousands of Books-All Subjects-Perfect Condition-All Greatly Reduced

GEORGE W. JACOBS & COMPANY 1628 Chestnut Street

FRANKLIN IMPRINTS IN CURTIS MUSEUM

Classic Collection Classified and Described in Beautiful Volume

Stated and Explained by an Authority

BUSINESS METHODS FOR PHILADELPHIA

Joseph Jackson, Editor of Constructive Civic Philosophy Convenient, Accurate and Full Manual started on what should prove a successful career by the issue for 1919, if the merits of this admirable work, compiled and edited by Joseph Jackson, receive and edited by Joseph Jackson, receive due reward. Mr. Jackson, receive due reward. Mr. Jackson, recognized as an authority on all that pertains to Philadelphia, post and present, and a special writer for the Public Ledger for panny years, sets forth in his foreword his purpose to provide "an informative, statistical and historical guide to the city's activities and a record of its programming activities and a longfelt want.

Entries are made tonically and on a dictionary plan. The style and arrangement of the work are protected by copyright. Much of the material is the larvest of Mr. Jackson's indefatigable industry in his specialty and of his well-stored mind, but in many cases he has had statements prepared by persons of authority in their several fields.

The volume contains much matter of historical value and Ts' likewise amply supprised with up-to-the-new-year information concerning contemporary activising the war in the home lines of defense by team-working communities; the betterment of the community, physical, social and otherwise, was left till the star had been won.

The great gains of civic consciousness and civic teamwork will not be lost now that the war has been won. Civic betterment in the home lines of defense by team-working communities; the betterment of the community, physical, social and otherwise, was left till the star had been won.

The great gains of civic consciousness and civic teamwork will not be lost now that the war has been won. Civic betterment luss gone decades a shead in a couple of years so far as intelligence and receptivity are concerned. We have made the world safe for democracy; now the star had been won.

A constructive program is outlined in mation concerning contemporary activities, political, business, social, literary, etc. It is comprehensive in subject selection, accurate in details, concise in style. It is both informative and au-style. It is both informative and authoritative.

Gilbert sets forth his purpose briefly as the desire to officentrate attention on the possibilities of constructive city adelphia: Published by Joseph Jackson, Brail Estato Trust Building.

The Estato Trust Building.

The Estato Trust Building.

The Estato Trust Building.

An Aid for the Cook

Bushess office efficiency in the kitchen is the aim of "The Recipe Cabinet," by Fannie Merritt Farmer, author of the 'Boston Cooking School Cook.

Book." The recipes are on topically arranged index cards and include some of the favorite tested "receipts" of the director of the Boston Cooking School. They come boxed and with blank cards for the housewife to add some of her own culinary formulas.

RECIPE CABINET. By Fannie Merritt Farmer, Toronto. Canada: Musson Book Company.

the better city.

Hindu Fairy Tales Mrs. Florence Griswold has retold from the Jataka eleven tilndu stories about Buddha and hts former births. She has retained the naive simplicity of the original narratives, that are among the earliest tales of which we have any knowledge. The stories are interesting on their own account, but they are espe-cially to be commended to parents who wish their children to know something Demands Everything Be Subording and the process of Benjamin Frankiin always thought of himself as a printer—witness the char-acteristic epitaph which he composed for himself in terms of typographical terminology—(lough the world rememest and most important gathering, as it indivertised itself to be, of Frankliniana, since his own private collection numbered about 250 titles. The collection in the Curtis museum contains more than 260 titles. The collection by the late Henry V. Massey in 1896, and in 1908, numbering 174 titles, was sold to John Grisbel, who almost doubled the enumeration, exclusive of a long the of Franklin's newsmaper, the Pennsylvania Gazette. In 1915 Mr. Grisbel, who almost doubled the Gazette. In 1915 Mr. Grisbel, the Grisbel with a long the of Franklin's newsmaper, the Pennsylvania Gazette. In 1915 Mr. Grisbel, the Grisbel with the latest t his first wife and seems not to be to discover that his second wife lov him. It takes the generous act of wife had befriended years before to open his eyes to the state of affairs at his own hearthstone. Yes Bottome wins the sympathy of her readers for her characters. The situation in the second story, called "Rose," is not so simple, Rose, an English girl, marries a French-"Jackson's Philadelphia Yearbook" is gained by the United States in the war, wife of another man who wishes to make with a tensity of power only equaled by its charm."—Philadel OMMON (AUSE a novel by Samuel Hopkins

Adams

THE Balkan Tangle-Russia-Portugal-The American Railway Situation-Foreign Markets-The League of Nations-are these not vital questions today? Here are volumes that will give you definite facts on all of them.

The Eastern Question

By J. A. R. MARRIOTT, 550 Pages. Net $1.25

A systematic account of the ori gin and development of the Eastern Question, dealing successively with the Ottomans, Hapsburgs, Russian Empire, the Hellenic Kingdom and the new Balkan States, with an epilogue brought down to June, 1918.

The Balkans

By NEVILLE FORBES and others. 408 Pages. Net $2,25.

An excellent volume to read in connection with Marriott's Eastern Question, Histories of Bul-

Net $4,25.

Portugal, Old & Young

By George Young, 359 Pages Net $2.25. Portugal's part in past and recent European history, and the potential moral and intellectual powers of her people. American Railway

Problems

in the Light of European Experience. By C. S. VROOMAN.
384 Pages. $2.40.

The results of private and government ownership of railways in Europe and some lessons therefrom for our country.

The Mechanism of

Exchange

By J. A. Topp. 270 Pages. Net $2.25. A handbook of currency, banking and trade, containing much useful information for those engaged in foreign trade.

A REPUBLIC OF NATIONS

A Study of the Organization of a Federal League of Nations, by RALEIGH C. MINOR, 346 Pages, Net $2.50. Provides a definite programme for the formation of a permanent

League of Nations, with a constitution based on the Constitution of the United States. "Must be read by every serious student of the most important have now before the world,"-Chicago

"Scholarly, dispassionate discussion of the whole subject, deserving of the carnest, serious consideration of every individual who loves peace."—New York Sun.

(Average weight of each book 2 lbs.; postage extra.) At All Bookstores or from the Publishers

The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse

AND THE NEXT GENERATION ARE DEAD, THIS BOOK WILL REMAIN TO KEEP ALIVE A RIGHTEOUS INDIGNATION AGAINST THE REMNANT OF BARBARISM WHICH POSED ITSELF AS THE APOSTLE OF CULTURE. . HE WHO WOULD REALIZE THE FRIGHTFUL EVILS OF THE RULE OF MIGHT OVER RIGHT, SHOULD READ THIS BOOK.

By VICENTE BLASCO IBANEZ

Author of "The Shadow of the Cathedral."

$1.90 net wherever E. P. DUTTON & CO., 681 Fifth Ave., New York.

THERE is plenty of the weird and mystic in "Blue Aloes," there are incidents and scenes that you rarely encounter in modern fiction, there are thrills enough to more than satisfy you, and there's the passion and romance of South Africa permeating the pages that gets into your system and carries you to the dreamy, fascinating Veldt which Cynthia Stockley knows so well. A thoroughly enjoyable book, whatever your preferences. $1.50 net at all booksellers.

Blue Aloes

By CYNTHIA STOCKLEY

Author of "Poppy." "The Claw," "Wanderfoot," etc.

New York - G. P. Putnam's Sons - London

Library of French Fiction Edited by BARNET J. BEYER, Sometime Lecturer at the Sorbonne

Translated masterpieces of French literature which give the reader a view of the life of all sections, types and classes of modern French society. The first issues of this valuable series are;— Jacquou the Rebel By Eugene Le Roy

Reveals the sturdy rural communities of Perigord, wher neither the conditions of life nor the gentle qualities of the people had changed from the period of this novel to the time of the present war. $1.90 Net Nono: Love and the Soil By Gaston Roupnel

A forceful story of life in the wine-growing district of Burgundy-s deep drama in which stark realism is combined with the finest and Six further volumes are either in press or in process of translation.

At all Bookstores E. P. DUTTON & CO. 681 Fifth Ave.

The most dramatic figure in the world to-day.

What would you not have given to stand close to this wonderful man through France's years of tensest strain, to hear him explain the undercurrents of events, to see how one old man by his eloquence sustained the courage of a nation. To realize what his desire for France has been, and with what aims he comes to the peace table, read

France Facing Germany

$2.00 net at all E. P. DUTTON & CO. 681 Fifth And bookstores E. P. DUTTON & CO. 881 Fifth And of the ideas and ideals of another race HINDU FAIRY TALES, Retold for chi-dren. By Ploreure Griswold Boxton Lethrop. Lee & Shraard Company, 41.2.