

The Valiant Marines and Spring's Fashions Feature the Photographic Review of the Day

Photos by Joel Feder...

FASHION OFTEN SPEAKS in terms of plaid for springtime. This smart, three-piece kismet and silk jersey suit has a sleeveless cape lined with pussy willow silk.

A FROCK UNFETTERED by the bonds of war. The tunic, sleeves and foundation are of lace, and satin forms the novel apron effect.

THE STATUESQUE EVENING GOWN is coming into its own again. Here a luxurious black brocade with embroidered silver roses is used with only jet beads for adornment.

THE MOST WONDERFUL STORY in all the world of a priceless hat from Chateau-Thierry.

THESE CONVALESCENT MARINES at the League Island barracks are now well enough to appear in today's parade. In the top row, from left to right, are Corporal Elbert E. Brooks, Percy Clark and William Wagner. In the front row, from left to right, are Oscar E. Carlson, Corporal Raymond W. Boone, James B. Latell and Charles A. Kuehne.

EVEN THE OLD RHINE has risen in protest against the Hohenzollern. Here a boatload of Dutch refugees from a flooded farm near Amerongen, where the ex-Kaiser is isolated, are sailing for higher ground.

I. F. S. Photo

CONVALESCENT YANKS, under the guidance of London "bobbies," seeing the sights of the British metropolis.

© W. H. U.

A BRITISH WAR DIRIGIBLE, big enough for long-distance flights, mounting two machine guns and carrying numerous bombs for use against ships. This ship contains 100,000 cubic feet of gas.

© Edmund

AMERICA'S PREMIER ACE, Captain "Eddie" Richman, recently captured by American forces in Europe. Captain Richman has received the Distinguished Flying Cross.