

JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Mr. and Mrs. William Montgomery Return From Washington After Absence of More Than a Year—Death of Mrs. Woodruff—Son of Colonel Groome Engaged

THE William W. Montgomerys are back from Washington. You know he's been there virtually since the very first day of the war...

In honor of Major General George Barnett, U. S. M. C., and Mrs. Barnett. Mrs. Stacey B. Lloyd, of 1713 Locust street, will give a dinner at the Bellevue-Stratford...

By the way, I hear Joe Du Barry has a month's leave and he and Ella are at the Wellington, where Mrs. Arthur Brock, Ella's mother, has apartments also...

Miss Helen Moore, daughter of Mrs. George Cameron, of School House lane and Green street, Germantown, spent the week-end in Atlantic City...

SUCH fun as the school set had at the Bellevue on Friday night! You see, the Wurts class was going on in the North Garden and the Penn Charter dance was proceeding in the Rose Gardens...

A wedding of interest in this city took place in New York on Saturday, when Miss Helen Palmer, of Detroit, became the bride of Mr. Frank David Boynton, Jr., of this city...

I HAVE been thinking of the numerous good works—and people who benefited by them—of the losers through the sudden death of Mrs. Clinton Rogers Woodruff on Friday...

The engagement of Miss Emma May Prince, daughter of Mr. Richard J. Prince, of Mount Airy, and Mr. Harold William Fullmore, of Germantown, was announced yesterday by Miss Prince's mother...

A pretty home wedding was solemnized on Saturday evening, when Miss Amelia Hatt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hatt, of Camden, N. J., became the bride of Mr. Nelson Furman, of Woodlyn, N. J.

All the States rise and answer their names in the old Friends' Meeting House at Fourth and Arch streets when the 200 soldiers, sailors and marines on their historical hikes, taken every Sunday, are called upon by their guide to proclaim their origin.

AND now we hear that Jack Groome is engaged. And to an Augusta girl. I tell you, it's wonderful what staying down in Augusta last year did to the members of the Troop as far as Dan Cupid is concerned...

The campaign will end on May 24, at the end of which time a badge will be awarded to each scout who has kept two weeks straight running kept 75 per cent of the rules of the crusade.

Several persons who were down in Augusta last year that they met Gladys there and that she is a very attractive girl. Of course, you know that Jack is the son of Colonel and Mrs. Groome and a brother of Agnes Groome Dixon and Martha Groome Thompson...

On the site of 518 Market street Washington lived for ten years while in Philadelphia. But the boys are hungry by this time, so their guide leads them to the New Century Club, where some of the nicest women in Philadelphia, "or anywhere, for that matter," say the boys, have a good hot supper for them.

HE WAS all by himself, with his over-zealous cap in such a wall-eyed position he had to hold his head high to keep the cap from sliding off. But he would have held it that way, any how, he was so glad to see dear old narrow Chestnut street again...

At the back is the lot, never yet built on, where the Indians set up their wigwags and by the time they are through all of it, including the great trays of homemade cake that are passed around, they readily acknowledge that Pennsylvania, which Penn is a silent champion of, is one of the greatest States in the Union.

Miss Evelyn Levinson and Miss Edith Burman. Who are members of the committee of the friends of the Uptown Home for the Aged, who are in charge of a dance to be given on Wednesday at Mercantile Hall.

The committee in charge includes, Mr. David Schwartz, chairman; Miss E. Goldman, secretary; Miss E. Levinson, Miss E. Goldman, Miss B. Solomon, Mr. David Waxman, Miss Anna Kivitt, Mr. Ed. Stoller, Mr. S. Gould, Miss Rose Frank, Miss Reba Frank, Miss S. Gold, Miss S. Silverman, Mr. H. Lonsdale and Miss D. Glusman.

DANCERS IN VALENTINE REVUE

MISS ANNA L. LARKIN MISS MARGUERITE LARKIN. In the ballroom of the Bellevue-Stratford by the members of St. Francis Junior Aid

ENTIRE UNION SHARES SERVICE MEN'S HIKES Men From Every State Take Part in Sunday Tramps Through "Historic" Philadelphia

All the States rise and answer their names in the old Friends' Meeting House at Fourth and Arch streets when the 200 soldiers, sailors and marines on their historical hikes, taken every Sunday, are called upon by their guide to proclaim their origin.

The boys follow Mr. Myers silently, reverently. The spirits of Washington, Jefferson, Franklin are about them, and deposited their feet to joke one another.

On the Fifth street side of Independence Hall is the old City Hall of Philadelphia. From these the hikers go to Carpenter's Hall at Third and Chestnut streets, and the National Bank, built in 1797.

At the back is the lot, never yet built on, where the Indians set up their wigwags and by the time they are through all of it, including the great trays of homemade cake that are passed around, they readily acknowledge that Pennsylvania, which Penn is a silent champion of, is one of the greatest States in the Union.

WAR LECTURE AT OAK LANE Lieutenant Rotan Will Describe Experience as Ambulance Driver

Lieutenant Ellwood J. Rotan, who drove a Red Cross ambulance on the Italian front, will recount his experiences before the Oak Lane Park Improvement Association this evening.

Uptown Home Benefit The friends of the Uptown Home for the Aged are completing arrangements for their fourth annual dance, which will be held on Wednesday, February 13, at Mercantile Hall, Broad and Master streets.

BENEFIT FOR HOSPITAL Indian Legends and Dances Aid Institution Social Service

Indian legends, songs and dances featured a benefit performance given at the Little Theatre this afternoon for the social service committee of the Howard Hospital.

The women were Mrs. W. W. Arnold, Mrs. William Houston, Mrs. Cathie J. Milne, Jr., Mrs. G. Colebury Coates, Mrs. Strickland Keane, Mrs. William N. Van Leer, Mrs. Edward H. Coates, Mrs. Ell Kirk Price, Mrs. Fred H. Shelton, Mrs. Sydney Thayer and Mrs. Howard K. Yarnall.

GOVERNOR SPROUL WILL ATTEND COSTUME BALL Chief Executive and His Wife to Honor Affair for Victory Temple

Governor Sproul is going to be the guest of honor at the big costume ball to be given Thursday night at the Academy of Music for the benefit of the fund which will be used to erect a Temple of Victory on the Parkway.

The women in charge of the other five tableaux have also arranged a number of surprises. They are a unit in asserting that the tableaux will be the most interesting and instructive spectacles of their kind given in Philadelphia in many years.

PHILADELPHIA'S FOREMOST THEATRES FORREST BROAD & SANSON TONIGHT

'GONGING UP' THE ALTIUDE RECORD FOR MUSIC, FUN AND LAUGHTER

BROAD—NOW NIGHTS AT 8:15 'Ullo! 'ere's a 'it!

GARRICK LAST 2 WEEKS NIGHTS AT 8:20

Tailor-Made Man GRANT MITCHELL

CASINO MILLION $ Dolls TROCADERO The Crown-Up Babies

STOKOWSKI FINDS CITY COLD TO NEW MUSIC

Must Appreciate Modern Spirit or Go Backward, Declares Orchestra Conductor

"Philadelphia must appreciate the spirit of the new in music, else, musically, it will go backward. There can be no standing still."

Leopold Stokowski, conductor of the Philadelphia Orchestra, this afternoon epitomized in that way, his opinion of the attitude of Philadelphia audiences toward the works of modern composers.

The attitude of some toward Composer Scriabin, he said, was a case in point. "One of the modern works played last Saturday night by the Philadelphia Orchestra was Scriabin's 'Poeme d'Extase'."

"I have shown the new music to the audience to approach the work with a deeper sympathy and not to pass judgment on it until they had heard it several times."

"You know the world has changed. It has changed greatly in many ways in the last few years. The spirit of the new in music must be appreciated as a new thing, but it must not be appreciated as a new thing, but it must not be appreciated as a new thing, but it must not be appreciated as a new thing..."

WAR CAUSE OF TRUANCY 1918 Delinquents Double Previous Year Because of Big Wages

War conditions are given as the cause for the great increase in truancy cases in the public schools during 1918. The official report just issued for the term ending January 21, 1919, shows that 2280 cases were brought before magistrates in 1918, as compared with 1079 in 1917.

ADELPHI SAT. MATS. $1.50 1918 EXTRA-HIGH EPOCH MAT. $1.50 LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY BEST $1.00

OH LOOK! WITH THE DOLLY SISTERS FOX'S

PALACE 1214 MARKET STREET

ARCADIA CHESTNUT BELOW 10TH

VICTORIA ALL THIS WEEK

REGENT MARKET ST. BELOW 17TH

GLOBE MARKET STREET

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

CLEO MAYFIELD

MADAMA BUTTERFLY

SCENARIO TO SCREEN AND IN BETWEEN

News of the Photoplays and Players—The Evening Public Ledger News Reel's Latest Pictures

Helen Clark McCoy has been engaged as soloist for the Fifty-sixth Street Theatre for this week, which marks the third anniversary of the opening of the house.

C. Folk Kline has been appointed manager of the Coliseum Theatre. He goes from the business world into the amusement game and is expected to win out.

This is the anniversary week of the Belmont Theatre and double features have been selected for presentation.

In the Evening Public Ledger Screen Telegram No. 8, the news reel issued by the International Film Service and released by the Universal Film Manufacturing Company, a series of excellent pictures are appearing.

The first of their kind ever shown demonstrating the manner in which the British barrage boys baffled the "Zeps."

PHILADELPHIA'S LEADING THEATRES

Return Engagement for 2 Weeks

ADELPHI SAT. MATS. $1.50

OH LOOK! WITH THE DOLLY SISTERS FOX'S

WHY MARRY?

LYRIC Evenings at 8:15

$1.00 Matinee Wed.

WALNUT Mat. Tomorrow, 25c to 10c

TWIN BEDS

PHILADELPHIA ORCHESTRA

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

MADAMA BUTTERFLY