CITY BEAUTIFUL IN NEAR FUTURE

Parkway to Be Finished and Northeast Boulevard Completed

PUBLIC BUILDINGS, TOO

Work Will Take Years and Additional Funds Must Be Provided by Councils

This is the sixth and last of a series of articles on municipal affairs in Philadelphia.

So far this series on probable municipal activities in the next few years has dealt exclusively with improvements peculiar to a city useful.

The articles would be incomplete, however, without a reference to other projects primarily having to do with a city beautiful and which in their aggregate will cost future generations many millions of dollars.

Under this head comes first the Parkway, upon which $20,000,000 has already been expended...

Next in importance from a utilitarian standpoint comes the Northeast Boulevard, with its network of roadways...

Structures on Parkway

Next to the two main thoroughfares that form the foundation of a city beautiful come the handsome public structures...

During the Civil War, in spite of Miss Anthony's efforts and protests, suffragists were prevailed upon to give their work by the promise of men in Congress...

Side by side with the effort to secure Federal action the State campaign began in 1848 was continued. Miss Anthony always advocated securing support from the State...

THOUSANDS SAW MODEL

In 1912 loan funds to the amount of $1,500,000 were set aside for the construction of a new museum...

Constant changing of the plans has prevented any proposals for estimation and estimates of cost based on the architect's drawings run far in excess of the remainder of $1,716,000 available...

THOUSANDS SAW MODEL

Building construction both for ornamental and useful purposes furnishes employment for many different kinds of artisans...

FIGHT 44 YEARS TO PASS SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT

First Drafted by Susan B. Anthony in 1875—Women Long Have Sought Right to Vote—Militancy Marks Recent Efforts

The movement for the adoption of a Federal amendment enfranchising women was crystallized forty-four years ago when the first draft in its present form was made by Susan B. Anthony.

Since the amendment, providing that the rights of citizens of the United States shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of sex, was first introduced in Congress in January, 1878...

First Voted Upon in 1887

The amendment was first voted upon in the Senate in 1887, when sixteen Senators voted in its favor and thirty-four rejected it.

Senate Defeats Suffrage Measure

Wisconsin—La Follette, yes; Lenroot, no.

Wyoming—Warren, yes; Kendrick, no.

Twenty-four Democrats voted for the resolution and eighteen against; thirty-one Republicans supported the resolution and eleven opposed it.

Form Congressional Union

The Congressional Union became a separate organization with the object of securing the passage of the Federal suffrage amendment.

Picket White House

In 1917, from January until November, suffrage pickets first stood at the gates of the White House in order to draw attention to the fact that the President, as leader of the party in power, was responsible for lack of action on the suffrage amendment.
