

CITY AND NATION LADY ROOSEVELT

Dead Leader's Memory Is Honored Here and Throughout America

Civilization yesterday paid tribute to Theodore Roosevelt. In Washington, where for seven years his forceful spirit radiated from the White House...

EUROPE JOINS TRIBUTE

In London, Westminster Abbey broods a "prelude" to the memorial service for the first time in history with memorial services.

Imparting Tributes Here

Thousands of men, women and children were present in the Metropolitan Opera House, while in churches and synagogues reverent congregations honored the memory of the great man who has gone.

Impressive Light Effect

The addresses in the Metropolitan Opera House were delivered in semi-darkness, emphasizing the solemnity of the occasion.

Mr. Pinchot's Tribute

"He was the mightiest man and the most beloved man of whom we have record. No other man in human history was just like him."

Mr. Pepper's Eulogy

Theodore Roosevelt stands out in strong relief against the evening sky. He is an heroic figure. He can be seen from everywhere.

Why World Needs Mr. Roosevelt

"Think of the ways in which we need him. We need him to guide our thoughts and industrial problems. Almost alone among American public men of affairs he has both the vision and the will to lead the inner consciousness of the man who toils with his hands and who is occasionally illegitimate desires."

PROMINENT PERSONS AT ROOSEVELT MEETING

Among prominent men and women at the Roosevelt memorial meeting in the Metropolitan Opera House were...

PHILADELPHIA HEROES DECORATED FOR VALOR

Three More Men From Here Added to List of Gallant Soldiers Receiving the Croix de Guerre from the French Government for Extraordinary Heroism—Two Others Get D. S. M.

Valorous achievements on battlefields by Philadelphia heroes have won them official recognition and commendation by Allied governments that participated in the war.

Private Jacob Rosen, Company C, 214th Infantry, 3242 Market street, was cited for conspicuous bravery near Verdun on November 2.

Top Sergeant Charles A. Finley, Company A, 110th Infantry, 1807 Hoffman street, was cited for bravery at Chateau-Thierry and the Argonne Woods.

Sproul, Rear Admiral Francis V. Howes, assistant general manager of the Pennsylvania Electric Company, was cited for his services in the war.

Glowing Tribute of James M. Beck

Declaring Roosevelt the "Admirable Creation of our generation," James M. Beck, secretary of the Metropolitan Opera House, while in churches and synagogues reverent congregations honored the memory of the great man who has gone.

Roosevelt Takes Reins

"Who should guide the fiery course of this mighty chariot of civilization? The answer is clear. It is the hands of Theodore Roosevelt. Marvelously, he directed for seven years the course of the Republic, and he guided the destinies of the American people."

Disdained Compromise

"Roosevelt disdained diplomacy or compromise. He was a swift sword, not a man to those who serve. He favored neutrality on any question was abstract to him. Upon all questions he had a belief, and he expressed it with precision and emphasis."

ROOSEVELT SERVICES IN MANY CHURCHES

The memory of Theodore Roosevelt, leader and patriot, was extolled at special services in churches and synagogues in this city and the suburbs.
