

In Rheims Cathedral; Victory Ball Participants; Varied Views From Home and Overseas

© U. & U.

CARDINAL LUCON, Archbishop of Rheims, explaining to President and Mrs. Wilson the damage done to the great Cathedral by the German bombardment.

© U. & U.

A DEPTH BOMB EXPLODING—An excellent war-time photograph of a bursting underwater bomb.

© I. F. & S.

JUDGE KENESAW MOUNTAIN LANDIS, U. S. District Judge, Northern District of Illinois, and Mrs. Landis greeting Captain Reed Landis, American ace with twelve enemy planes to his credit, just returned from France.

© U. & U.

A STREET DEMONSTRATION in Berlin. Anti-Spartans of the German Democratic party passing through Bellevue strasse.

MRS. SIDNEY BROCK, a participant in the Victory Ball tableaux last night.

MISS MARY GLENDINNING and Miss Ellen Glendinning in the crinoline of long ago at the Victory Ball.

MRS. EATON CROMWELL in a Victory Ball tableau.