

THE GUMPS—A Peep at a Fortune

Copyright 1919, by the Tribune Co. By SIDNEY SMITH

The Young Lady Across the Way

The young lady across the way says the soldiers get used to anything, but personally she knows she'd never close her eyes all night if she had to sleep on a post.

PETEY—It Didn't Occur to Him That Southerners Ever Visited the North

By C. A. VOIGHT

Cut out the picture on all four sides. Then carefully fold dotted line 1 its entire length. Then dotted line 2, and so on. Fold each section underneath, accurately. When completed turn over and you'll find a surprising result. Save the pictures.

News to Him Sam—Ah done heard dat dey fin' Columbus's bones. Kara—Lawd! Ah nevah knew dat he wuz a gamblin' man—Panther.

PARTY FEELING

JIMMY EARNS THAT SATURDAY NIGHT DIME MUCH EASIER NOW SINCE DAD BOUGHT THAT BATH TUB SEAT

SCHOOL DAYS

By DWIG

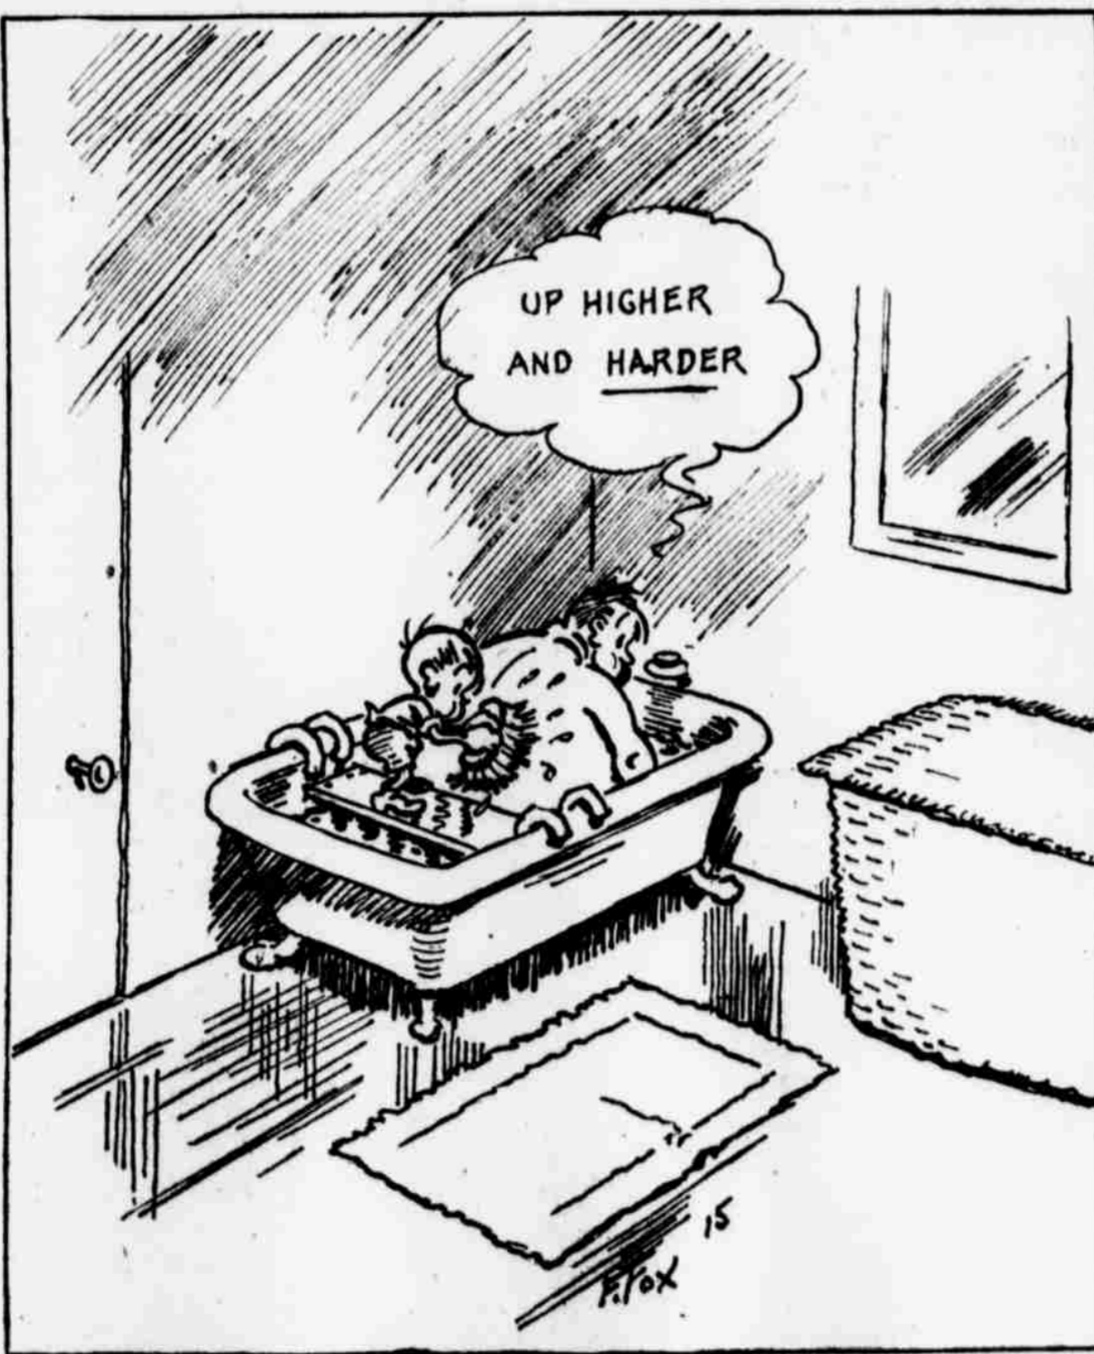

—The Bystander. Father (to young host)—Hullo! What's the meaning of this? Son—Huh? Anybody would think it was their party the way they are enjoying themselves!

CROSS CURRANTS

—The Tattler. Lady, going shopping—And then we shall want some currants. Jane—I doubt if you get any currants, mum; they ain't demobilised currants yet.
