until they saw it done many times.
But those early graduates who had the health and genius to endure and study, who used the morning sun and the midnight lamps were of a stock which make heroes and scholars. They are the best possible advertisement of the college. In factories, banks, courts, faculties, Legislature and Congress they were recognied as a "noble work," and so our England that the laboring man "saw the light."

If you are a manufacturer of anything that might be sold in foreign countries; if you are an executive or clerk in such a concern; if you are interested in foreign banking, investing, shipping, advertising or selling; think what a wonderful opportunity has been opened to you. But to krasp and hold it you must have training.

To give you the necessary training for export business we shall conduct a special class in Foreign Trade, beginning Tuesday, February 18. The course is intensive, practical, complete.
