NEW HOUSE AT SEDGWICK

This house, situated on the brow of a hill, has points which would please any woman wh thinks carefully when choosing a home. She would see at once that the outlook is agree able; that it is a house where the sunshine comes in freely; that it was planned to be convenient; that the rooms are large and the closets numerous; that the oak floors, o fireplaces, enclosed porches, tiled bathrooms (there are four baths) and fine finite throughout have made it a house in which a family would be happy because it would be so comfortable. It has a commodious garage, with servants' quarters.
