STATE WILL HONOR POLES ON SUNDAY

Aside in Tribute to People of Infant Republic

Governor Sproul has issued a state instant a should be been a subject a subject of the Leg-islature and to the public, in which he urged, in response to requests, that next Sunday be set aside as Polish Day in Pennsylvania to do honor to the people of the Polish republic. The Governor paid tribute to the nation and said in tions.

"The people of the United States, and especially of Pennsylvania, where so many Americans of Polish birth or de-scent have settled, have a deep interest in the fate of Poland and a reverent in the fate of Poland and a reverent hope that she may come through the unsettlement of nations and the chaos of races which now is in evidence in Eu-rope, a strong and united nation, with a free government and the deserved lib-erty for which her loyal neonie have rope, a strong and united nation, with a free government and the deserved lib-erty for which her loyal people have awaited through generations. "I would, therefore, respectfully sug-gest that we set aside Sunday, March 3, as Polish Doy, in the hope that our peo-ple through public meetings and in other ways, may show their interest in the weifare of Poland, their appreciation of the patriotic services of our Polish fel-low clitzens in the world's crisis and their hope that Poland may attain her mational aspirations speedily and effect-ively. It is to be hoped that ways and means may be devised for such encour-agement as may seem expedient for ively. Cobb's Creek Drain Following numercus complaints re-ceived from residents in the Sixty-ninth and Market streets section, Chief Al-bright, of the Bureau of Surveys, an-nounces that he will urge Councils to appropriate 350,000 for the completion of the Cobb's Creek sewer. The waters of Cobb's Creek, where it runs along the western boundary of the city, are polluted by several sewers, notably a large one from Ardmore. Filth and waste gather at the Milhourne dam, emitting an offensive odor, which has been a source of complaint from resi-dents throughout the district. Following the receipt of numerous complaints last summer an investigation acoperating with the Bureau of Health.
