VICTORY LIBERTY LOAN TO BE USED ONLY IN U. S.

Restrictions for Expenditure of Credits Established Here for Allies Made to Prevent Competition With American Business and Industry Through New Bond Issue

Every dollar raised in the Victory Liberty Loan, to be offered late in April, will be spent in America or will be paid to officers of the United States, according to a statement issued today by John H. Mason, director of the war loan organization.

"With the exception of the relatively small proportion of the loan to be used for paying our soldiers in the American army of occupation," said Mr. Mason, "all money to be raised will be spent in the Treasury. Moreover, its expenditure is so restricted with restrictions in the report submitted to the House that it must be spent in such a way as to be of benefit to the United States and citizens."

ESTHONIANS ROUT REDS

Heavy Losses Inflicted on Bolsheviks in Severe Fighting Stockholm, Feb. 27.—(By A. P.)—An official statement issued by the Estonian army headquarters reports severe fighting near Narva, Paikoy, Volmar and Saltsburg and claims that the Estonians have repulsed the Bolsheviks inflicting serious losses in killed and wounded. The statement describes the fighting in the direction of Saltsburg as violent and declared that three forces were engaged.

A telegram received here from Petrograd says that Bolshevik newspapers commenting anxiously upon the reverses sustained in the fighting against the Estonians ascribe the Bolshevik defeats to fatigue, inferior supplies and poor transportation. Articles from Libau say that 8000 well equipped German volunteer troops have arrived at Libau by sea and are commanded by general von Der Goltz.
