purposes. The board, which recently was incorporated in New York state, was organized with the aim that event-vally it would become the national box-ling association in this country, controlling both amateur and professional branches of the sport. General Wood fills the place that was to have been filled by the late Theodore Roosevelt. In addition to the active leadership of General Wood, the new organization will have as patrons and advisers many men prominent in army, navy and politmen prominent in army, navy and political life, including Admiral Henry T. Mayo, fourteen major generals of the army, fourteen rear admirals, Governors Boyle, of Nevada, and Harding, of Iowa; five United States Senators and See college presidents.

Major Biddle on Board

The advisory council is made up of fifty-six persons, including Charles H. Sabin, president of the Guaranty Trust Company, Major Anthony Drexel Biddle, director of government athletics, Henry S. New, United States Senator from Indiana; Miles Poindexter, United States Senator from Washington; Rear Admiral

T. S. Rodgers and Charles Thorley.

The prospectus of the board states that it desires to develop boxing in this country to a higher level and prepare the way for entry into the sport of men returning from service abroad. It seeks in states, among colleges, various in-dustries and among nations. Control of dustries and among nations. Control of the amateur as well as the professional

The challenge round for the Davis Cup. If precedents are followed, probably will be played in Melbourne late in November or during the first week of December.

At present the Davis Cup is in this country, although held by Australasia as a result of the victory of Brookes and Wilding over the American team at Forest Hills, Long Island, N. V., in 1914. The declaration of war, which preceded the final matches, made it advisable to leave the trophy in the United States for the period of hostilities.

The cup probably will be forwarded to Australia during the next few months. The cup probably will be forwarded to Australia during the next few months.
