"With the Help of God and a Few Marines"

BRIGADIER GENERAL A. W. CATLIN, the author, takes you into the very heart of the battle of Belleau Wood. The story and the history of the United States Marines. The Philadelphia Press says: "Nothing will so thrill heart and fire enthusiasm as this tale of how the Marines were sent into the thick of the fight at Chateau-Thierry, and in that small strip of land known as Belleau Wood, met the Hun in an inferno of battle and by their gallantry of action saved Paris from the invader."

Vogue's Advance Spring Patterns are ready now

A complete showing of new pattern designs, charming hand-colored sketches of every detail, the favored materials for Spring, are now on exhibition at the Vogue Pattern Room. The line of the new silhouette—interpreted in the straight, slim frock, and the softly draped, graceful, essentially feminine one, both markedly different from war-time fashions—is embodied in these new spring patterns, modified to suit the requirements of the woman who wishes to be correct, but not extreme. Vogue Patterns are easy to follow. Every difficulty of cutting, fitting, and combining is forestalled. Every piece is marked in plain English with full directions. Every seam is indicated with a perforated line. Lining, goods, and trimming are cut in paper of three different colors. There is no endless changing and trying on and refitting. Just follow directions and the result is a success. Thousands of women bridge the gap between a limited and an unlimited allowance by the use of Vogue Patterns. By using Vogue Patterns you have your dress expense and double your dress distinction.

CITY IMPROVEMENT OVERCHARGE DENIED

Salaries Not Listed in Emergency Fleet Bill. Investigator Finds

After an investigation by the Emergency Fleet Corporation, conducted by H. B. Winfield, housing expert, of the statement that the city was being overcharged today noon, the Philadelphia Tribune today said: "When interviewed, he spoke cordially and proudly of the men whose fortunes he had shared in camp, in training and in the most trying, but now, without action and with growing of deep-seated homesickness, we have the opportunity to show that we are not only hell-cats for fighting, but leavers for patience."

CONVICT PLOT SUSPECTS

Inquiry Board to Recommend Deportation of Five Spaniards Five Spaniards arrested in Philadelphia ten days ago on charges of being implicated in a plot to harm President Wilson were given a hearing before a special board of inquiry at the Gloucester immigrant station. The board will recommend deportation, but final decision rests with officials in Washington.

The men are Jose Gonzalez, Juan Marquez, Juan Rodriguez, Eduardo Parades, and Emilio Santo Farca. Marquez claimed that he was an American citizen and could not be deported, but records produced at the hearing showed that all five are aliens and that they are in this country illegally and did not pass the proper inspection.

Extra Mural School Designed to Help Men Employed During Day

WANT BURLESON OUSTED

Trades Council of Reading, Pa., to Ask Removal of Postmaster General Burleson "on account of his actions toward the workmen and his arbitrary methods toward the laboring class during the war" will be requested of President Wilson and resolutions to that effect will be framed in the near future by the Federated Trades Council.

The workingman with ambition will be able to get an advanced education at the University of Pennsylvania under a novel scheme outlined by Provost Edgar P. Smith. The provost points out that many young men do not have the necessary money or time to go to college, and are forced to seek employment. But they are anxious to better themselves and would like a chance to study. For the benefit of such as these Doctor Smith suggests establishment of an extra-mural school.

Banner Cargo Is Off for Orient

The Japanese steamship Malay Maru will leave port today with a general cargo for the Orient. She will proceed to Nagasaki direct via the Panama Canal, with merchandise valued at many thousands of dollars. It is said to be the largest and most valuable cargo ever loaded at this port for the Orient. Two square figures will also set sail today for foreign lands. The French bark

"Primarily the courses in the extra-mural school would be for earnest-minded students—persons who were desirous of supplementing their practical pursuits with a theoretical training. Such persons do not have the time for a university education, and maybe had never desired it. Yet they felt they might supplement their practical knowledge to a certain extent by courses relating to their callings."

The Boys telling Velvet Joe how much they like his tobacco

You, too, will like Velvet tobacco. It's aged in nature's way, the slow way, the sure way, the expensive way, but the right way. Two years' ageing in wooden hogsheads makes Velvet cool, smooth and mild. A pipeful of Velvet will tell you—then you will tell others.
