LENT, he it early or late, is the signal for an exodus of all who feel the need of a change of air and scene, and for these trips small traveling clocks are great con-veniences. At Bailey, Banks & Bid-dle Company there is the most attraveling clocks are great tone veniences. At Bailey, Banks & Bid-die Company there is the most at-tractive stock that I have seen for some time. Those in pink, blue, olive, brown or black leather cases, with radium figures and hands and gilt dials, fold flat, are eight-day movements, some having alarms, and measure about four inches square. Or, if you are more ex-travagantly inclined, there are ster-ling silver or gold cases, but the most fascinating are the small nov-elty enamel clocks in any color, some folding, others like tiny mantet clocks, and one, good for an Easter gift, is inclosed in a tiny blue enamel egg-shaped case. egg-shaped case. ing only.
