

OFFICERS, HOME, GLAD IT'S OVER

Many Philadelphians Among Army Forces Arriving From France

"LUD" WRAY BACK HERE

Former Football Star Undecided as to Re-entering University

Ensign J. R. Ludlow Wray has resigned his commission, cast aside all titles and has returned to Philadelphia as plain "Lud" Wray, former Penn football star, who did his part in the war and is mighty glad it is all over.

Wray was a senior at the University when he left in 1917 to join the naval reserves. Patrol work along the Pacific coast pulled on him after seven months and he secured transfer to the naval aviation section. He was training at Pensacola, Fla., when Harry Ross, another Penn gridiron star, met his death in an airplane accident.

After being awarded a commission Wray was ordered to France for patrol work over the Bay of Biscay. He was stationed at Fremontine.

He is undecided whether to complete his course at Penn or not. He is living with his parents at 2218 Locust street.

Among the casual officers aboard the Mauretania, which docked at New York yesterday, were Lieutenant Colonel Charles L. McKeehan, of the University Club, legal department of the ordnance section, and Major Malcolm of the Raquet Club, who was attached to the ordnance center at Tours.

Leviathan Also Arrives There were a number of Philadelphians on the Leviathan, which also docked yesterday, the majority of them having gone ashore with other units and were assigned to the Twenty-seventh Division as replacements.

Among them were John Lombardo, 705 McClellan street; Antonio Rossetti, 1018 Emily street; James Powell, 245 Valley street; Romulo Sarge, 1908 Sartain street; Corporal J. Giblin, 2609 East Abigail street; Corporal Thomas A. Maloney, 138 Jackson street; Vernon L. Chalfont, Media; Joseph Lafferty, 1907 Christian street; John J. Brady, 2230 Memphis street.

Jeremiah J. Duffy, 1536 Spring street; Thomas F. Murphy, 2443 Grays Ferry road; William Kemble, 2523 South Warwick street; John Miller, Osborn street; Isidore Glass, 36 North Sixth street; Joseph Mekis, 112 Wharton street; George Mehl, 2237 Waterloo street; Herman Katerman, 1731 North Forty-second street; Michael J. Gannon, 247 North Simpson street; Martin Quinn, 1939 Westmoreland street; Joseph S. Davidson, 2537 Harold street; Wladlow Pirovski, 11 Rector street; Jacob Sargis, 2514 Chadwick street; Elmer M. Sayres, 2432 West Lehigh avenue; William Schoeber, 2107 South Ninth street; William A. Doyle, 1214 South Buckle street; David H. Richter, 2441 South Juniper street; John J. Dahn, 2233 West Huntingdon street; Benjamin Kushner, 1018 Marshall street; Joseph A. Schaefer, 2523 North Muscier street; Edward J. O'Donnell, 2457 North Bancroft street; John A. Nolan, 1118 South Twenty-third street; Hyman Ginsberg, 3905 Lancaster avenue.

Other Philadelphians Others from here included Joseph B. Regatta, 1744 South Thirteenth street; Philip Fontano, 1513 Grand, Thirteenth street; Frank Belick, 3073 Salmon street; Edward B. Steinman, 2430 Old York road; Samuel Lowery, 1018 Day street; Peter P. Plunty, 504 North Fifth street; Joseph P. Conroy, 5334 Filbert street; Wallace J. Hancock, 2438 Lancaster avenue; Joseph Loane, 526 Kauffman street; Webster Strigan, 620 North Thirty-third street; William H. Easterday, 3138 Jasper street; Martin Gill, 2205 Oakdale street; William C. Hueber, 4812 Richmond street; Walter Kolb, 4545 Edgemont street; Harry C. Hutton, 2208 Fernington street; Jarvis Conery, 1938 North Twenty-second street; Michael Farrell, 772 North Fifth street; John F. Harper, 421 Converse street; Alfred Neenan, 4538 Green street; Samuel L. Burston, 1023 Mount Vernon street; John Mitnick, 242 New Market street; Frank Lattin, 537 Mantion street; John W. Thorn, 3251 Fair avenue; Edwin G. Peony, 1547 South Twenty-eighth street; John Peterson, 522 North Franklin street; Sam Gardina, 141 Race street; and James E. Clark, 2648 South Watt street.

Among the Philadelphians on the Orleana arriving were Sergeant Samuel E. Corrigan, 1621 North Twentieth street; William E. Reardon, 4723 Chestnut avenue; John E. News of Lovely Springtime Things Gathered in the Big, Bright Down Stairs Store at Wanamaker's

Delightful Hats Radiant With Spring!

Where else do freshness, flowers and femininity find such felicitous combination? Where else but in the hats of Spring?

Here in the Down Stairs Millinery Salons are gathered the loveliest, freshest things we have seen in many a day. There are hats for women of every type, hats for all the pleasant frocks and suits and coats that women wear at this season of the year.

Tomorrow More Than a Thousand New Hats will be shown for the first time. All are quite moderate in price, beginning as low as $3.75—and at $5, $6 and $8 there are wonderfully fine assortments. All are charming, becoming things, eminently wearable.

Glittering Bar Pins At 1/3 to 1/2 Less

"I can't dress without a bar pin," said one woman, and there are probably many others who will echo her words. There is no other one piece of jewelry that is so often worn and so much enjoyed.

These beautiful new pins are copies in sterling silver and rhinestones of the fine pins done in platinum and diamonds. The designs are excellent, well balanced and carefully executed, with a laciness and lightness that are admirable.

At $1 and upward have gallery mounting, and at $2 and upward there are safety catches.

At $8 and $10 there are handsome pins of more elaborate designs.

Cotton Vests 30c

Women's low-neck, sleeveless vests of fine ribbed or mercerized cotton have square or pointed necks. Bodice-top vests have pink or white ribbon shoulder straps.

(Central)

Tempting Silk Underthings

Delightful camisoles, $2, so lovely to wear under the sheer Spring waist. They are of pink satin in six different styles, trimmed with fine laces, pink and blue ribbons, dainty pink and blue silk roses and hemstitching. Some have Georgette crepe tops trimmed with lace medallions and ribbon.

Boudoir Caps, 50c to $3.85, made of pink and blue satin, are trimmed with lace, ribbons and silk roses. Fetching ones of net are corded with pink or blue ribbon and lace edged; all lace caps are adorned with ribbons and silk roses.

A bandeau at $2 is of pink ribbon, lace covered, and trimmed with silk roses.

Women's Suits Have Heard the Call of Spring

and they are here in great numbers for women's choosing. This is decidedly a suit season, judging by the numbers that are being worn already.

There are sport suits, tailored suits and a goodly number of the unusual novelty things.

Prices Are Moderate

which is a most important point. Serge takes the lead at $19.75. The braided-bound coat has a long roll collar and a detachable silk vestee. It comes in black, blue and is prettily lined. At $23.50, a wool panna in navy and black is topped with an over-collar of rajah. The jacket is belted and has novel pockets.

At $25, navy serge makes this suit with a flaring jacket. Rows of heavy silk stitching ornament the coat.

Sports Suits of tweed in brown and gray tones are lined with striped silk. And attractive basket weave sports suits have large pockets and inverted pleated backs. $25.

Wool Jersey suits in various models are attractive in style and color. $25, $28.75 and $29.75.

Other fine serge suits, usually in navy blue and black made in smart styles go up to $37.50.

The model sketched comes in navy blue and is $28.50.

Novelty suits in individual models of serge, gabardine, poplin, tricotine and velour in navy blue and black and lighter shades are $37.50 to $87.50.

The Good Corset Is the Foundation for the Smart Suit or Frock

If a woman knows she has a well-fitting corset she feels no anxiety about the fit of her new Spring suit or frock.

We have three particularly good models at $3.50, one of coutil and two of figured broche for slim, average and full figures, one model is topless and the other two are medium-length skirt and medium bust. These have all sold for quite a good deal more.

We also have models at $2.50, $2 and $1.50, in varied styles to suit all figures. Some topless, some with elastic inserts over hips and some heavily boned.

800 Brassieres and Bandeaux at 35c

The brassieres are of firm batiste, lace and embroidery trimmed; bandeaux are of all-lace and others are batiste, lace trimmed.

(Central)

March Winds Necessitate a Veil

You will feel much better and more comfortable with a good-looking veil to hold unruly wisps of hair in place.

Veils at 55c come in brown, black, navy and taupe dotted with chenille or velvet.

Veilings at $1.25 a yard in the same shades are in many styles.

(Central)

The Newest Neckwear

For Spring is interesting and colorful. Organdie collars and sets—either round or roll collars—are in white and colors. And there are net sets and many unusual Georgette collars and sets.

One, for example, has a pleated round collar and cuffs of figured Georgette in red, navy or tan, and is decidedly French looking. At $1.

(Central)

Women's Silk Stockings Special, 75c a Pair

Seamless stockings of good silk with cotton garter tops. Black, white, taupe, gray, champagne and dark brown are the colors. They are "seconds," but the imperfections are minor ones that will not hurt their wear.

(Central)

Fresh Blouses Are Special at $3.90

In crepe de chine these new blouses take three pretty ways.

—one a round neck with a pleated frill;

—two with roll collars and fine tucks.

The colorings are lovely, embracing rose, bisque, sunset or jonquil yellow, flesh and white.

Also at $3.90 are many pretty blouses of Georgette crepe trimmed with heading, embroidery or hemstitching.

Tub Silk Waists $2.90

In clear candy stripes, these waists are simply tailored with two-in-one collars. Business women, in particular, will like them.

(Market)

MIDDY blouses at $1 are of white galatea laced in front. Sizes 6 to 14 years.

(The Junior Store, Central)

Percalé Aprons 38c

Good-size aprons of a good quality percale in stripes and figures with pockets and strings. These are a little lot specially bought, and we do not think they will be here long.

(Central)

Good School Suits for Boys of 7 to 18

Nine different patterns in these splendid suits for boys, three in browns and six in gray. All are of pure-wool cheviot that will stand a great amount of wear.

The coats are lined throughout with mohair and have slanting pockets and loose, buckled belts. The trousers are lined and all the seams are strongly taped. Another point that you don't always find in boys' suits—the pockets are faced with self-material.

At $14.75 these suits are unusual.

Women's Lovely New Wraps as Fresh as Springtime

Whoever wants to feel the tingle of Spring has but to slip into one of these pretty new coats or capes, or into a dolman, if your fancy is for the newest things. The materials are soft to touch, the colorings are charming to look at and the linings of gay silks swish pleasantly as you slip into them.

Between $13.75 and $16.50

there are more than a dozen styles in Spring capes and cape coats, mostly of serge, but some of poplin or burella.

From $19.75 to $29.75

—a wonderfully fine lot of velours, serges and silvertones in the form of capes, coats and dolmans. Two of these are sketched, the one on the right is of velour in henna, tan or Pekin blue at $22.50. The other, a silvertone cape, is in rookie, henna and Pekin blue at $25.

These are but two of the many, many attractive wraps that Spring has brought. Finer things of silvertone, bolivia, evora, tricotine, duvet de laine and silvertip bolivia are lined with soft and lovely silks. Fashions are unquestioned and all the small details that mark clothes of the finer sort have been carefully carried out. Prices range upward to $145, with splendid choosing at $32.50 to $57.50.

Service Capes and Coats

of sturdy tweeds, covert, velour and serge are here at $25 to $49.75. The tweeds and coverts are good raincoats.

The Right Clothes for Junior Girls

There is a certain youthfulness about them that is charming on Miss 15-to-17, yet they are grown-up enough to suit her tastes.

New Coats and Capes

The coat sketched is of navy blue serge and is half lined. 13 to 17 year sizes at $13.50.

A velour coat in tan and henna has unusual pockets, collar and belt stitched in silk. It is fully lined. 12 to 16 year sizes at $19.75.

A tan or Copenhagen blue velour cape is lined throughout. The yoke back is trimmed with buttons and the front is belted. 12 to 16 year sizes at $18.75.

Charming Taffeta Frocks for Spring are in navy or Copenhagen blue and green. There are several styles, some with round necks finished with simple pleated frills, some embroidered and others with unusual skirts. $15 to $29.75 in 8 to 17 year sizes.

Spring Suits at $22.50

Navy blue or Copenhagen serge suits, made in box-coat style with attractive vestees and often collars of contrasting material are prettily lined.

(Central)

No End to Vestee Newness

Since suits have taken such a decided change and so often need a smart vestee to add a finishing touch, vestees are playing up and make any suit interesting.

You will see many styles that you like among these from $1 to $9.50. Snowy pique, crash, linen, novelty materials and unusual silks make them with or without collars (usually to about). And they have belts, rows of buttons, and many pretty touches for trimming.

(Central)

Cotton Foulard Petticoats $1.25

For the woman who needs a petticoat for everyday use these are well worth her consideration.

They come in various colored grounds—blue, brown, black, taupe—with colored flowers and stripes, have gathered flounces and will give good service.
