Pay as you save Our Deferred Payment plan makes it pos-able for any property owner to have OLOBE Automatic Sprinklers without felay. GLOBE protection means a re-duction of insurance rates. The premiums saved soon pay for the installation. Ask us for details.

GLOBE AUTOMATIC SPRINKLER CO. 035 Washington Ave. Dickinson 531

$200,000 IS AWARDED FOR OLD MISSIONARIES

Baptist Layman Agrees to Donate Sum if $750,000 More Is Raised

Dr. J. Foster Wilcox, director of the Baptist Victory campaign in the eastern Pennsylvania district, announces a gift of $200,000 for the Morehouse Me-morial Fund for aged ministers and onaries.

The donor, who is a prominent Bap-tist layman, has agreed to give $200,000 conditional upon the success of the Baptist laymen in raising $750,000 for the Morehouse Memorial Fund within three years.

Last year the Northern Baptist Convention instructed the ministers and missionaries benefit board to raise a Morehouse Memorial Fund of $1,000,000 for worn-out preachers, their widows and dependents. The campaign was temporarily withdrawn last spring to make way for the million-dollar drive. In the Victory campaign, by which the 10,000 churches of the Northern Baptist Convention propose to raise $6,000,000 by April 30, it is planned to raise $750,000 to complete the Morehouse fund, there-by making the total of the benefit fund at least $2,000,000.

The Morehouse fund derives its name from the Rev. Dr. Henry L. Morehouse, founder of the ministers' and mission aries' benefit board.

Frederick Gilbert Bourne

New York, March 10.—Frederick Gilbert Bourne, financier and yachtsman, died at his country home at Oakdale, L. I. Saturday. Mr. Bourne, who was commodore of the New York Yacht Club, was a member of the syndicate which built a defender for the America's Cup in 1914 before the races were suspended on account of the war. He was a director of many corporations and of numerous clubs and other organizations.

Deaths of a Day

THOMAS W. JOPSON

Real Estate Title Insurance and Trust

Thomas W. Jopson, vice president and irust officer of the Real Estate Title Insurance and Trust Company, and a member of the Philadelphia and Montgomery County bars, died on Saturday after three days' illness, at his home, 314 High street, Germantown.

Born in this city, February 5, 1869, Mr. Jopson was graduated from the Central High School in 1885 and from the University of Pennsylvania Law School in 1892. He became a clerk in the Real Estate Title Insurance and Trust Company thirty years ago and Tr associations.

Surviving Mr. Jopson are a widow a daughter. Miss Elizabeth Jopson, and three sons, Sergeant William S. Jopson, late of the 103d Engineers, who was wounded in France and recently returned home; Lieutenant Arthur B. Jopson, Fourth Machine Gun Battalion, who is in France recuperating from a wound, and John Marshall Jopson, a student in the University of Pennsylvania.

Murtha J. Kelly

Murtha J. Kelly, a retired linen mer-chant, of this city, died suddenly of heart disease yesterday at his home, 64 North Lansdowne avenue, Lansdowne, Mr. Kelly was born in Dublin in 1842. When a youth he went to Canada, where for some years he assisted missionaries among the Indians in the Saskatchewan region.

among the Indians in the Saskatchewan region.

In 1870 he engaged in the linen business in this city, which he continued until nine years ago when he was succeeded by his two sons, Joseph M. Kelly and Frederick W. Kelly, under the firm name of M. J. Kelly's Sons, 314 Filbert street.

William D. Wharton William D. Wharton, formerly a malater, died yesterday morning in the Masonic Home, Broad and Ontario streets, at the age of seventy-six. He was a member of Athleston Lodge, No. 48, F. and A. M. He was born in Philadelphia, February 19, 1843, and has been an inmate of the Masonic Home for the last three years. He will be buried Tuesday.

Mrs. Eliza Cunningham

Mrs. Eliza Cunningham

Mrs. Eliza Cunningham, widow of James C. Cunningham, died at her home,
253 South Farragut Terrace. Mrs.
Cunningham had been a semi-invalid for the last fifteen years, but was confined to her bed for only a week. Her husband died last August as the result of falling downstairs. She was the daughter of Richard Osborne, and is survived by three children, Ralph, Miss Florence M. and Miss K. Blanche Cunningham, Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home. Interment will be made in Greenwood Knights of Pythias Cemetery.

Miss Julia C. Linn Miss Julia C. Linn. 100 years old, for-merly of this city, died at the home of her nephew at Mount Vernon, N. Y. She was a daughter of John Linn, of Phila-delphia. Despite her advanced age, Miss Linn was active up to the time of her death. She is survived by a sister, who is ninety-six years old.

K. & E. HOFFMEISTER Quality Hair Shop 217 South Broad St.

Opposite Bellevue-Stratford MEN'S TOUPEES Hair Goods

INPLUENZA AND PNEUMONIA Eau Lustrale Hair Tonic is highly efficient in simulating the grewith of new hair and preventing baldness. SATISFACTION GUARANTEED

GERMANY IN WAR

Blueprints and Other Military Secrets Revealed, Palmer's Report Says

AGENTS NOW INTERNED

Scored by Late Alien Property Custodian

How Germany gathered business secrets for military use during the years prior to the entrance of the United States into the war is told in the report of A. Mitchell Palmer, allen property custodian, just made public.

German-owned firms, it says, supplied many of the most intimate objects in the many of the most intimate objects in the big American war industries and thus were able to obtain inside information of great value to be forwarded to Germany for whatever purpose was decided upon there.

Some of the most important of these firms were located here. Among those in Philadelphia, made public by Mr. Palmer, are the Schutte-Koerting Company, by Litosilo Company, with a capi-pany, the Litosilo Company, with a capi-tal of $21,000; Messer Manufacturing Company, capital $20,000, and Rohm & Hass, exporters of chemicals, capital

In describing the activities of the Orenstein-Arthur Koppel Company, of Koppel, Pa., Mr. Palmer says: "This concern was a branch of a German company with agencies in every country in the world. It manufactures light inside railway equipment and was a bidder for this class of work in every industrial plant in this country.

Blueprints Lent Germany "This company was thus enabled to obtain much confidential information regarding these plants, which was quickly forwarded to Germany in the form of blueprints, there to be held for whatever the German strategists could make of it. This was the first German-owned plant sold by the alien property custo-dian and is now in the hands of 100 per cent Americans ernt Americans.

"The company installed light railway equipment in virtually all American munition plants, steel plants and kindred concerns. It had contracts with the Westinghouse Company, with the United States Steel Corporation, with the du Pent works and with nearly half of the blat industrial, plants, operation in this were susseried wars in ferance efforts made to save property for German owners. This concern Mr. Paimer says:

were susseried was and controls the exclusive rights to certain patents under which automs of the warships of the type which are used in most of the warships of the type which are used in most of the warships of the Carnegle of German.

To the warships of the United States. The real owner of this concern is Ernest Koerting, sometimes referred to as the Carnegle of German;

Camouflage Transfer

The company owns real estatory equipment and other approximately $1.50 to the real owner of this concern is Ernest Koerting, sometimes referred to as the Carnegle of German;

Camouflage Transfer

The company owns real estatory equipment and other approximately $1.50 to the real owner approximately $1.50 to the real owner of the concern is Ernest Koerting, sometimes referred to as the Carnegle of German;

Camouflage Transfer

The company owns real estatory equipment and other approximately $1.50 to the real owner of the concern is Ernest Koerting, sometimes referred to as the Carnegle of German;

Camouflage Transfer

The company owns real estatory equipment and other approximately $1.50 to the real owner of the concern is Ernest Koerting, sometimes referred to as the Carnegle of Germany.

Camouflage Transfer

The company owns real estatory equipment and other approximately $1.50 to the real owner of the company owns real estatory equipment and other approximately $1.50 to the real owner of the company owns real estatory equipment and other approximately $1.50 to the real owner of the company owns real estatory equipment and other approximately $1.50 to the real owner of the company owns real estatory equipment and other approximately $1.50 to the real owner of the company owns real estatory equipment and other approximately $1.50 to the real owner of the company owns real estatory experience to the real owner of the support of the real owner of the support of the real owner of the support of the real owner of the

Thomas W. Jopson, vice president and at approximately $1,700,000. The firm liam and Elizabeth Price Jopson. His mother was a descendant of Withelm Price, one of the founders of German-town. He was a member of St. Michael's Episcopal Church, the Union League, Mitchell Lodge of Masons and an officer of several building and loan associations.

Surviving Mr. Jopson are a widow a daughter. Miss Elizabeth Jopson, and three sons, Sergeant William S. Jopson, late of the 103d Engineers, who was wounded in France and recently returned home; Lieutenant Arthur B. Jopson. Fourth Machine Gun Battalion, who is in France recuperating from a wound, and John Marshall Jopson, a german propaganda machine."

detained at Philadeiphia into a powerful German propaganda machine."

Under the management of the alien property custodian, the report says, the employes of the German-owned mills subscribed to more than $10,000,000 of Liberty Bonds and contributed $500,000 to the Red Cross.

NAVAL HERO EULOGIZED

Memorial Service for Lieutenant Lewis Gouverneur Smith

Lewis Gouverneur Smith

"His life was part of the price paid for the redemption of the world," said the Rev. Dr. Carl E. Grammer at a memorial service for Lieutenant Lewis Gouverneur Smith, of the United States destroyer Yarnall, yesterday afternoon in St. Stephen's Church.

Lieutenant Smith, who was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lawrence Smith, of Strafford, was swept overboard when a great wave struck the destroyer off the coast of Portugal on January 7. The lieutenant remained on deck with a companion to fasten down a hatch and was washed overboard.

Twenty-five seamen from the destroyer, as well as friends and relatives, attended the memorial service for the lieutenant.

Lieutenant Smith was born in Philadelphia November 13, 1894. On his mother's side he was related to three generations of Episcopal clergymen. He was a student at Haverford College and the University of Pennsylvania. In 1915 Lieutenant Smith joined the naval reserves and was detailed for foreign service in 1917.

Tou must pay the price, why not get full value? TRUE SHAPE socks cost the same as ordinary socks, but there the similarity ends. They wear longer because they are knit to fit the feet and the fabric is therefore not subjected to strain.

A. R. UNDERDOWN'S SONS 202-204 MARKET STREET Established Since 1838

FIRMS HERE AIDED DU PONT KIN MEETS DEATH WHEN AUTO TURNS TURTLE ACTOR'S ANNIVERSARY

Joanna Bush, Twelve-Year-Old Granddaughter of Former United States Judge Edward G. Bradford, Killed Beneath Overturned Car in Accident Near Clifton Heights

A daughter, Joanna du Pont Bush. The father and mother and the three was killed when an overturning auto-mobile buried out the family of William suffering any injuries except scratches Burh, of Wilmington, Del., near Clifton Heights yesterday. The family is re-Adelbert Fischer Especially lated by marriage to Alfred L du Pont.

leaping out of their own vehicle, went to the rescue. The Rev. Edwin H. Bonsail, 'Jr., a clergyman of Clifton Heights next arrived.

The mother, holding the senseless form of the eldest child and accompanied by the other three, was put into the home at Gladwynn of Mrs. Bush's father, former Judge Edward G. Bradford, of the United States District Court.

Judge Bradford's daughter, Alicia, the sister of Mrs. Bush sister of Mrs. Bush sister, and sister and sister of Mrs. Bush sister, and sister and siste

FUND TO AID IRISH Plans Started to Raise $150,000 Body of Charles Stoker Sent Here Design for Women, was Forrest's city to Meet "British Propaganda"

The meeting was held to arrange plans to raise Philadelphia's quota of $150,000 toward the fund in the United States. It was decided to open head-quarters in the vicinity of Broad and Chestnut streets. A committee of 100 is to be appointed to manage the cam-paign. The nucleus of this committee, as appointed last night, is Mr as appointed last light to the partial partial

Seventy-Eight More Actions Filed 1918 Than Preceding Year

More suits for divorce were filed in 1918 than in 1917, according to the official report of Henry F. Walton, pro-thonotary of the Courts of Common Pleas. thonotary of the Courts of Common Pleas.

The report shows that 1798 actions of divorce were filed last year, as against 1720 in the year preceding. The financial statement in the report shows proceeds of $449,860,59.

The report adds that of the number of divorce actions credited to last year many have not been determined, while 1144 suits were brought over to 1918 from the preceding year.

SOUL OF WAR IN LECTURE

Philip Gibbs to Recount Battle-Fron Views Here Tonight

The Soul of the War" will be the subject of a lecture this evening in the Academy of Music by Philip Gibbs, British author and war correspondent. Mr. Gibbs, who is touring the country, will use as material for his talk, the first of his four years' experience on the Allied fighting fronts!

He will try to show the splendid courage which steeled the French army in the face of a perfectly organized, long-planned invasion that was sweeping on toward Paris.

Watches for Men

A Patek Watch with its observatory record for dependable time keeping will be treasured for a lifetime of future generations.

Exclusive Philadelphia Agents

and become the keepsake

TRAIN KILLS AIR VETERAN

for Burial for Burial of the actor were held there under the direction of Miss Emily Sartain. A plea for funds "to meet British propaganda against Irish freedom" was made last night by Michael J. Ryan, former public service commissioner, at a meeting of the United Irish-American Societies of Philadelphia in Grand Fra-

Aero Corps in France, sent to this city for burial. It is coming here today from Syra-cuse, N. Y., where Stoker dled Satur-day.

Stoker died Saturday.

The soldier was killed by a train while he was visiting the state fair at Syracuse. He was standing on the New York Central Railroad tracks, according to the statements of officials who investigated the circumstances, and did not hear the approach of the train that ran him down. Stoker lived at 2018 Dauphin street. Stoker lived at 2018 Dauphin street. He had numerous friends in this city. He had recently visited here following his discharge from the army, and in-tending to return to Philadelphia and

When America declared war on Germany, Stoker was among the first to enlist. He was detailed for duty with the 107th Aero Squadiron, and saw active zervice with that unit. He was discharged from the army on January 21. His discharge papers and his warrisk insurance were found in his pockets. Stoker enlisted in New York, was relieved of his badge, his revolver and his blackjack. The men ran Cooper said he was too flabbergasted to chase them.

WILLS $500 FOR PICNIC

"I thought they were kiddin me," he reported at headquarters.
Cooper has been a "special" only a few days.

MME. BRESHKOVSKY VISITOR

"Little Grandmother of Russian Revolution" Lectures Tonight Madame Catherine Breshkovsky, the estate was left for home and foreign missionary work. Mr. Frescoln, who died in Jefferson Hospital, left an estate miued at $21,000.

The will of John Zoelis, Jr., 984 North Fifth street, which also was aemitted to probate today provides for bequests of $100 each to Christ Home for Homeless and Destitute Children, the Charity Hospital and the Lutheran Orphans' Home. The balance of his $47,000 estate was left to relatives. ued at $21,000.

Other wills admitted to probate today included: Mary Wilkinson, of Atlantic City, $11.498, to relatives; George B. Knockle, of 1112 East Susquehanna avenue. $6000, to relatives, and Margaret A. Bell, of 5136 Arch street, $2250.

DIAMONDS AND OTHER PRECIOUS STONES Bought for Cash. Appraisements 1% CHAS. DEAN Above Fancon

Good Time to Change Those Stairs DUTCH HALI Or any style. Estimates.

Snedaker&Co.9th&TiogaSts

BENEFICIARIES HONOR

Memory of Edwin Forrest Observed Today in Thespian Home He Founded ford, of the United States District Court.

Judge Bradford's daughter, Alicla, the sister of Mrs. Bush, married Alfred I. Mr. Bush was driving his motorcar flown Baltimore avenue when at the last and state of the United States of Clifton Heights.

Joanna, after an examination was pronounced dead of a fractured skull. The Deep Purple': Miss Carrie Lee Stoyle: Mrs. Annie Firman Jack, widow of John Jack, who died at the home in 1914; Miss Amy Lee, whose mother was flown Baltimore avenue when at the last appeared in The Deep Purple': Mrs. Carrie Lee Stoyle: Mrs. Annie Firman Jack, widow of John Jack, who died at the home in 1914; Miss Amy Lee, whose mother was flown. Mr. Bush was driving his motorcar flown Baltimore avenue when, at Bishop's avenue, he suddenly applied the brakes. The car swung around in a circle and overturned, throwing all out but Joanna. She was pinned beneath the car.

suffered no serious harm.

Mr. Bush is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, class of 1896. Mrs. Brush was Miss Johanna du Pont in Stone, Mrs. Jennie Stone, Mrs. Samuel Charles, Miss circle and overturned, throwing all out Pont, was Miss Alicia Bradford, A but Joanna. She was pinned beneath the car.

WINS SERVICE CROSS

Sergeant Elver J. Bowles Wins Medal for Courage Under Fire For extraordinary heroism in activ near Brahant-sur-Meuse on October 23, 1918, Sergeant Elver J. Bowles, was awarded the distinguished service cross. During an offensive in the Boissols Bois Sergeant Bowles remained in the open under direct machine-gun fire and artillery bombardment and assisted a comrade in operating a trench mortar for fifty-seven minutes, firing 230 bombs. After this strain both meg fell over exhausted and were assisted behind the lines.

lines. Sergeant Bowles, although a native of Ohlo, is anticipating living in this city and is now aboard a transport bound for the United States. His arrival in this city is eagerly awaited by his mother and sixty who was a living at 121. South and sister, who are living at 2515 South

Rosewood street. Before enlisting in the army Sergeant Bowles served a four-year enlistment in the navy. He had not been a civilian long when war was declared, and he im-mediately enlisted. He is twenty-seven years old.

PENN MEN START DRILLING

Thirty-Five Start Work in Reserve Officers' Training Corps

CITES 1766 RECORD IN DEFENSE OF PORT

Claim That City Cannot Handle Troops Unjustified, Sproule Shows

The memory of Edwin Forrest is being honored today by retired stage folk and students of art who are living and study-ing allow, has discovered that the port of automobiles was necessary before the car could be lifted clear. H. D. and W. D. Wilckens, of 67 North Franklin street, Wilmington, saw the overturned car, and leaping out of their own vehicle, went to the rescue. The Rev. Edwin H. Bonsail, 'Jr., a clergyman, of Clifton Heights, next arrived.

steamer Haverford and land more than

In support of the contention that this city can handle any number of returning troops in one day, Mr. Sproule points out one specific instance, back in 1849 when more than 1500 passengers were discharged from the six vessels of the wind-jammer and bark type in one day. This was on May 20, when the bark Agitator, under Captain Magee, arrived from Belfast, Ireland, with 160 passen gers; the ship Isaac Newton, under Cau-tain Bush, came from Liverpool with 240 Forrest's grave in the churchyard of Old St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Third street below Walnut, was decorated to-day.

The ship Savannah, under Captain Theodore Julius from Liverpool, with 240 passengers; the ship Lord Maldstone, under Captain Sheridan, from day.

The house at Broad and Master Londonderry, with 256 passengers; the streets, now occupied by the School of Design for Women, was Forrest's city Williams, from Londonderry, with 345 residence. Special exercises in memory Captain Beck, from Londonderry, with 250 passengers.

> STRUCTURAL DRAFTSMEN, first-class detailers and checkers wanted; permanent position. Fransportation paid.

> PORCUPINE COMPANY Bridgeport, Conn.

YPEWRITERS Guarantee Typewriter Co.

R. MANUFAC TURER - who - doesn't - have - to - advertise," let the bookkeeper hand you a memo of last year's advertising account, and you'll be surprised to see how much you spend without taking it seriously.

HERBERT M. MORRIS Advertising Agency Every Phase of Sales Promotion 400 Chestnut Street Philadelphia

CADILLAC MAXIMS

The Cadillac carries its own good road with it."

This is not a parable-

it's a fact.

Recently we had a man in the store who is engaged in the Insurance business—selling Life Insurance. He is one of those fellows who are after "Big Prospects." We knew him well enough to tell him that the clothes he was wearing were not good enough for a man who was trying to land big business. To his credit, be it said, that he didn't get angry, but took our advice, and also one of our "Custom ailored Ready to Put On Suits. Afterward he frankly admitted that those clothes made him "feel like a Million Dollars," and that this added confidence n himself brought him handsome returns.

JACOB REED'S SONS 1494-1496 CHESTNUT STREET

Final Week

of the Big

Wind-Up Sale!

¶ Out go Remainders of Perry $40, $35, $30 and $28 Winter Overcoats, Fall and Winter Suits in the last and final Week of the last and final Wind-Up Sale of Winter Clothes at the One Uniform Price, $25!

It's your last opportunity to get something good and big and satisfying in clothes values for five straight Fives! Just dig into the advance information on what everybody will pay for presentable merchandise next season, if you want to get a line on the intrinsic merits of these Overcoats and Suits as a twenty - five - dollar proposition! When you compare them with what $30 to $40 will buy you next Fall and Winter, and then tell your friends that you got them for $25, you'll know-and they'll knowyou made a ground-floor entrance!

But, now's the time to get in. The doors are open this week on the last chance! Sizes are good, though not all sizes in any one lot or assortment!

$40 Overcoats for$25 $35 Overcoats for$25 $30 Overcoats for$25 $28 Overcoats for $25 $40 Suits for$25 $35 Suits for$25 $30 Suits for$25 $28 Suits for$25

> ¶ Single-breasted Overcoats and double-breasted Overcoats in dark colors and in novelty patterns-full silk-lined Oxfords-plenty of conservative and of fashionable Coats!

Medium - weight and heavyweight Suits in a good range of fabrics and patterns-Suits that you can wear well into the warm weather-remainders of $40, $35, $30 and $28 Overcoats and Suits, at-MAN A

$25

One Uniform Price

PERRY & Co. "N.B.T."

16th & Chestnut Sts.