It Is May in the Store, Though It Be March Outdoors

To Manage Well With a Little Is Not a Small Matter

It is a sign of a good chauffeur when you see him turn his car around in the little room of a close corner.

One must study hard to do a thing cleverly in a small space or with scant means.

Taking good care of a small sum, saved week by week, has been in thousands of cases the foundation of a large fortune.

It has been frequently stated during the recent war that many battles were lost and won back in the last half of a day of hard fighting.

The saying of Captain Lawrence: "Don't give up the ship," has redoubled the efforts of men in a struggle and turned the tide of disaster to success. We are never done trying to win out; every obstacle is making this a great Store.

Madam, That Hat, Which Seems Just Made for You—may be in this new collection which the Gray Salons have ready for your seeing.

There are little hats—to wear shopping, or with your new suit, or to business, or for motoring.

There are larger hats—perhaps you find these more becoming.

There are hats for dress and hats for better wear.

Hats of many sizes, of many shapes, and all the fashionable colors are included.

$10 to $30. (Second Floor, Chestnut)

This is the Time of Year Young Women Like to Wear Sports Suits—

You will admire their good tailoring, their good lines, their youthfulness and their simplicity.

All the smart Spring colors are here.

$27.50 to $37.50—14 to 20 year sizes. (Second Floor, Chestnut)

3000 Yards Mercerized Foulard Special at 38c a Yard

DARK blue or black grounds with stripes or pretty little chintz patterns, and they are 32 inches wide.

Scarcely necessary to tell any woman what useful and attractive morning dresses for shopping or business wear these dark-colored foulards make. The price is much less than it has been for some time. (First Floor, Chestnut)

The Boys Simply Must Have New Spring Suits

There is no getting away from that fact.

And in a boy's suit the one thing that matters most of all is reliability.

Leave it to the average sturdy boy to put the reliability of a suit of clothes to a test. The first essential of reliability in boys' clothing is, of course, good wool materials. The next is good tailoring—a very vital thing.

In both of these particulars the new Spring suits that we are showing are the best that can be turned out. In the tailoring they are especially fine—the finest we believe at retail in America for the prices. $20, $25 and $30 in sizes for boys of 8 to 18 years. (Second Floor, Central) will be glad to get these pretty hand-embroidered, imported robes of net or fine batiste.

Women Looking Ahead to Summer—

If You've Ever Owned a Folding Clock

Some of these convenient little leather-case folding clocks have radium dials, and they are all the good, dependable Waltham make. Almost any color leather case and from one-day movement at $10 to eight-day movement at $35. (Jewelry Store, Chestnut and Thirteenth)

NOTES

HAVE you seen the plump and joyous Kewpies in their new satin-ribbon and tulle dresses? They are novel and bewitching little affairs; the same dresses, by the way, may be seen on a few regular dolls. Also there are some dolly trousseaux in little round boxes which may be had for $10—including the doll who is to wear them. (Seventh Floor, Market.)

THE March winds are fine for the farmer's future crops, but not so fine for women's complexions. A facial treatment in the Salon de Beaute often helps to relieve the roughness and wind-burn. (Third Floor, Chestnut.)

THERE is a certain Philippine hand-embroidered scallop which women who like the simplest of fine lingerie are very fond of. We have just received nightgowns and envelope chemises with it—the first priced at $3.25 to $4.50; the second at $3.25. The latter have regular armholes or straps—whichever you prefer. (Third Floor, Chestnut.)

Many a Man's Best Spring Tonic

The tailor-work in these Spring suits is about as fine as it is humanly possible to have it.

If you want your new Spring clothes to be right from foundation to finish, you will surely want to see what our men's clothing store has to show you.
