$2.25. It wouldn't pay you to make them when you can get such nice ones at such a little cost. TINTE NURSES THE WOMAN'S EXCHANGE The Question Corner About Pearl White
To the Stirps of Moman's Page:
The Pearl Madam—I have read the Words, the weak of the weak o Today's Inquiries Today's Inquiries What novel little mascets for the various companies, regiments, etc., have the members of the American expeditionary forces adopted? There are almety medical colleges have opened their doors to women? Is it correct to wear dark gloves to the theatre in the evening? When putting in a drawing string, what simple little trick will pre-vent it from slipping out? What type of bib has been found to be little dress underneau? What uppe of bib has been found to be little dress underneau? When a nightgown wears out at the top, to what good use can the under part be put? want to give a home to them, as I do not think we ought to keep them with a baby around. MRS. B. MRS. B. TO STAY ON DUTY Fifteen of Original Sixty Volunteer to Remain 20 NOW IN BORDEAUX Organization Earned Univer-Yesterday's Answers

Little Boys a Bit Lonely

Salad Jell

Lime Jiffy-Jell is fla-vored with lime-fruit essence in a vial. It makes Yesterday's Answers In the game of Biarney flags to be played at the St. Patrick's day party thy little green flags are hidden all over the room. Then a game similar to that of the game of musical chairs is played. The guests march around the room to the tune of some lively Irish march. When the music stops every one rushes to hunt for flags. When it begins again the march is resumed and so on; the guests fly in and out of rank until the hostess calls a halt. The one find-ing the most flags wins. "Marmee" is the famous mother in Louise M. Alcott's book, "Little Women." Fifteen of the original sixty nurses he went abroad with Base Hospital 20, the University of Pennsylvania unit, have volunteered for duty with the army of occupation in Germany and ill remain with that organization until peace is finally signed and American oldiers are withdrawn from Europe. Women." Little gold buttons used plenti-fully on a black velvet dress are sufficient to ornament it. White buttons sewed on with black thread afford attractive trimming. An innovation in wallpaper is the border at the base as well as near the top. This preserves the paper, as the lower part of it gets very much solled. News of their sacrifice in volunteering for further service with the army when the remaining nurses in the unit were letached for the trip back home was rought to this country by members of a party of twenty-three nurses from the mit who landed at New York on the 6. Do not pour bot water on stains from milk, eggs or meat juice, for is stain. Use soap and water for washable materials or sould in water with ammonia in it. A maste of raw starch and water will help to remove stains from thick material that cannot be soaked.

Make good-sized shannrocks out of stiff pasteboard covered with green in another basket for the gries in another two is another basket for the boys to draw from. When the four pieces are matched together together together together together together together Old neckties can be ripped and

Fete for Bucks County Heroes

Twenty others of the original party are still in Bordeaux awaiting trans-port to this country after a brief tour of duty at that seaport. The fitteen wolunteers are already in Germany as members of the nursing staff of a mo-bile hospital unit. Not one but would have been glad to return home, the have been glad to return home, the nurses arriving home said, but they felt the need for their services was so great that they could not conscientiously dethe task they had set out to per-i until the job had been completed. training ahead of the advancing troops

With Army

sal Praise, According to Member Just Arrived Home

transport Agamemnon.

Two Lucky Philadelphians Martin Costello, a private, of 136 Elm axonue, Ardmore, and Charles Sweeten, 2885 Germantown avenue, were among 1835 Germantown avenue, were among the lucky men in the 102d Ammunition Train who survived nineteen engage-ments during the course of which the detail was cited six different times in the army orders. They told of the cap-ture of a wounded German woman who

VARIETY But the PRICES of Flowers The Century Flower Shon 12th Street below Chestnut Street

OUR STORE ORDERS scheme than the deep green against the snowy whiteness of the table cloth? The St. Paddy's favors and decorations I

BUY ANYTHING-ANYWHERB store but may divide the as to get the very best v been in business for over 27 MARRIOTT BROS, 1118 Chestnut

REMOVES SUPERFLUOUS HAIR the removal of a hair growth from under the arms or the face can be very easily accom plished by using this excellent preparation. Sold by drug and denorthment stores. Price $1.00 samples 10c. te Fevre Co. 329 N. 15th St. Phila

Shop is gay with soft and lovely things for Spring trousseaux. Here are negligees and little bed sacques with bewitching frills of lace and frivolous bits of ribbon. You'll find this charming little corner just back of the Blouse Salon. (Market)

WANAMAKER'S

Beads for Dress Trimmings and Bags

Bead trimmings and beaded bags, as everyone nows, are much in vogue just now. The beads for the woman who prefers to make her own color scheme and design are here at 10c for a halfounce bottle. They are in plain and mixed color assortments.

(Art Needlework Store, Central)

Longcloth Special at $2 for 10 Yards

It isn't often that we can get this special longcloth and it never lasts long when we do. It is 36 inches wide, of good quality, and because the 10 yards are in two pieces the price is lessened. The pieces are always in practical lengths, suitable for underwear and such things.

(Central)

Women's Mocha-Finish Lisle Gloves

in lovely soft shades of gray, mastic and buck, fit the hand beautifully. They will wash well and are a good investment. They have two clasps and are $1 a pair.

Washable Leather Gloves

lvory color, washable capeskin gloves for women are a pretty contrast to dark suits. These, special at $150, are outseam sewn with self-stitched backs or full pique sewn with embroidered backs

(Central)

A Smart Vestee

is an asset to any Spring suit, and most of the suits (the new box coats especially) need vestees. There are vestees of silk, of organdic, crash, linen, pique and novelty materials in white and colors or combinations of colors. $1 to $9.50 are the prices. (Central)

New Combinations Have Arrived

for the women that have been asking for them. Either skirt or drawer combinations, made of soft mmed with neat embroider

Tweed Capes Have a Fresh, Outdoors Air

WANAMAKER'S

They make one think of country lanes, of golf courses and such pleasant outdoor places. A pretty cape has a coat front and is marked $19.75. Another, with a belt across the back, has a generous flare and is $29.75.

Navy serge and poplin are quite as practical, and some of them boast cheery linings of silk. Quite a number of pretty capes and dolmans are here at $15, $16.50 and $19.75.

The softer velours and silvertones in Spring colorings-plenty of henna and Pekin blue-are to be had in the forms of capes, coats or dolmans at $19.75 to $29.75.

(Market)

For Real Service, Frocks of Serge or Jersey

Both of these materials will stand a great amount of wear and still retain, with the occasional addition of a fresh collar, their trim smartness. You will be amazed to see how many ways there are of making these simple and inexpensive frocks.

Down Stairs Store

at Wanamaker's

Braid is the most popular trimming for jersey frocks, which are often generously pocketed. They are in navy, Pekin and Copenhagen blues and in various tan and gray shades. Some have leather belts. Wide choosing between $16.50 and $18.75.

Serges vote, almost unanimously, for navy blue. Much black silk braid is used, and you will notice a good many straightline dresses, loosely girdled, that are becoming to so many women. The frock that is sketched is of navy serge with scroll stitchery done in black. It has a narrow girdle that ties, and there are deep tucks around the hem of the skirt. $15. Several hundred other dresses between $13.50 and $18.75. (Market)

There are waists of various kinds of voile, cross-bar and plain, and one style in batiste. Some are lace trimmed, some prettily tucked. Some have square and some V-neck effects, and there are several different collar styles.

One lacy model of voile has a square neck and vest effect, with sailor collar.

A plainer, but attractive, batiste waist has V neck, is finely tucked and has rows of

Some Summer and Kommerche State and Barby THE BENGUYER CORPORATION 1214 WALNUT STREET

Our Story Tonight Is "Fashions"-The One Subject a Woman Never Tires Of

We have told you about our Shop,

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

