"Old Gospel, New Power" for Reconstruction, Conference Is Told

"NO BOSSES IN CHURCH"

So Preacher Tells Brethren "Ghost" of Interpretation Walks Into Session

Special Telegram to Evening Public League Ocean Grove, N. J., March 13 .- There Hitle sympathy in the New Jersey Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, for so-called "feature" religion as a church necessity in the war aftermath if an incident during the reading of the Rev. F. A. De Maria' report, as superintendent of the Camden district, during the session is any indication.

"Camden does not need a kind of reconstruction gospel," he said. "but the old gospel with new power." The Rev. James William Marshall, retiring superintendent of the New Brunswick district, said there was no necessity for "democratization" in the Methodist Church, where "there are no bosness end where none will be tolerated."

The outburst of "Amena" outdid in fervor anything that occurred during a nession of marked spiritual demonstra-

An old ghost, thought laid last year An old ghost, thought laid last year after many years of sharp, if not sometimes bitter debate, reappeared and was tailed about for a few flery moments, during which the Rev. Harold P. Shoan, of Bridgeton, and the Rev. Herbert Ketcham, of Trenton, led opposing forces. It was the old, old question, of interpretation of Methodist doctrine, especially as it is found in text books and Sunday school publications. ence, and it is understood much progress was made with the pastoral assignments. Some delegates predict there will be wholesale changes in all four of the districts, but the opinion is general the changes will not be numerous.

No change is likely to be made in any of the Atlantic City churches, the Rev. H. J. Belting being returned to Central Church, the Rev. H. F. Parker to Chelsas, the Rev. G. T. Harris to the First Church and the Rev. A. H. Lucas to St. Paul's.

Changes in Camden

The Rev. W. Earl Ledden, of the Bel-The Rev. W. Earl Ledden, of the Belmar Church, has been invited to the State Street Church, Camden, and the Rev. J. B. J. Rhodes, of Simpson Church, Long Branch, to Centenary Church, Camden. Another change likely to take place in Camden is the transfer of the Rev. W. E. Zhumerman, of Florence, to Parkside Church, Camden. Where the Rev. P. P. Miller, pastor of Parkside, will be sent has not been determined.

Two new charges in the Camden dis-elet will have to be filled this year-ney are Embury Church, Collingswood, ad the Billingsport Congregational New Jersey Conference. The Rev.

J. B. Adams, of Linwood, probably will be assigned to the Billingsport Church. In the Bridgeton district the Rev. H. L. Burkett, of Trinity Church, Millville, has been invited to Audubon. The Rev. has been invited to Audubon. The Rev. James Lord, of Spring Lake, is to go to the Millville church. The Rev. Herbert J. Reot, of Cape May City, has been invited to St. Paul's, Pennsgrove. The Rev. John R. Reed, of Asbury Church, Camden, probably will go to Wesley Church, Bridgeton. The Rev. Edgar Cloud, of Cape May Court House, in all probability will go to the Clayton Church.

Few changes are probable Trenton district. The Rev. T. ! Trenton district. The flev. T. S. Ham-mond, of Mount Holly, has been invited to Hilltown, and the Rev. J. F. Se-christ, of St. Paul's, Trenton, probably will be sent to Sayreville,
