Mrs. Ralph Strassburger, of Gwynedd Valley, Shares Father's Estate

HUSBAND WAS ATHLETE

One-seventh of Commodore Frederick G. Bourne's Estate Bequeathed to Daughter

Mrs. Ralph Beaver Strassburger, of Gwynedd Valley, will receive more than $4,000,000, approximately oneseventh of the estate left by her father, Commodore Frederick G. Bourne, of New York, by the terms of his will, just admitted to probate.

When his daughter was married to Mr. Strassburger, who is a graduate of Annapolis, where he was a star football player and a veteran of several diplomatic posts, as well as one of the prime organizers of the naval reserve, Commodore Bourne presented $1,000,000 to 000,000. Many substantial bequests are made to charities and the remainder is to be divided equally among the seven children of the deceased. Commodore Bourne died last Sunday at his country estate, Indian Neck Hall, Oakland, L. I., which adjoins the estate of William K. Vanderbilt.

The engagement of Miss Marion C. Bourne, another daughter of Commodore Bourne, to Alexander Benson, son of Mrs. Edwin N. Benson, of Chestnut Hill, was announced last May.

The children of Commodore Bourne. besides the two daughters mentioned are Arthur K. Bourne, Alfred S. Bourne, she has her choice Miss Margery Bourne, Mrs. Florence feather ornaments. Hard, and George S. Bourne. Arthur To complete the

by Late General's Will

Two Masonic institutions benefit by the will of Brigadier General J. Lewis Good, which leaves the bulk of an estate of $145,000 to his widow and children. The will was probated before Register of Wills Sheehan today.

The endowment fund of the Masonic Home at Elizabethtown, Pa., and the charity fund of Philadelphia Lodge No. 44. A. Y. M., are each left $500. The balance of the estate goes to his widow, Mrs. Mary Good, and their children.

General Good, who was widely known through his long service with the National Guard, died recently in the office of Dr. Clarence Bartlett, Spruce street, near Broad.

Other wills probated were: Mary E. Spankle, 6415 Overbrook avenue, $72,000; C. L. Doolittle, 4823 Pine street, $44,000; Gilbert W. Charming Springtime Wraps Are Made of Soft Velour

It's a material that many women prefer to all others because its softness of texture lends itself so well to the draped lines of this season's capes

Between $19.75 and $57.50

there are dozens of pretty styles in taupe, sand, henna, Pekin and navy, many of them lined with figured or striped silks in harmonizing colors.

Two pretty things are sketched. The cape on the right is made with a coatee front and a belt and is lined throughout with figured silk. It is in Pekin, henna and taupe at $19.75. The dolman is in Pekin, rookie and taupe, lined throughout with silk, and has several rows of self-colored buttons trimming the back. $35.

Rains Are Not Confined to April

A rainy day is a lucky day if it brings wraps like these. An attractive cape with a coat front and is belted in snugly at $16.50; or a light-weight changeable-color dolman is $15. Both of them are rubberized and can be had in tan, Oxford and navy.

Plenty of Good Undermuslins at $1

It seems almost like old times to be able to get such good things as these for such small prices, and they are most attractive and de-

Six styles in camisoles are of Jap silk, satin and crepe de chine. They are in slipover and open-front styles in pink and white; some are lace trimmed, others are hemstitched.

A good pink crepe bloomer, re-enforced and cut in ample size, has elastic top and ruffles at the knees

A chemise of soft batiste, trimmed front and back with embroidery medallions and Val lace is quite irresistible.

A white muslin nightgown, cut from a generous pattern, trimmed with neat embroidery round the neck and sleeves and ribbon run, is in the group.

Two styles of white petticoats are also here. One has scalloped blind embroidery flounce with an underlay, and the second a lace-trimmed flounce.

Any one of these can be had for $1. (Central)

Blue Serge and Poplin Are Best Choice for Women's Suits That Must Stand Hard Wear

They are favorite suit materials of women who wear their suits a great deal. And it is nice to know they are made up into inexpensive suits in the best Spring fashions. A suit at $16.50 is of navy poplin. The box coat has an over-collar and vestee of contrasting material and is lined in pretty plaid. This comes also in Belgian blue.

A serge suit is $22.75. The jacket of this suit has a vestee and overcollar of tricolette. The new bell cuffs show a facing of tricolette and rows of bone buttons are used for trimming.

At $25

There is a fine group of suits of navy serge. Most of them show overcollars and they have box or belted jackets with rows of buttons, tucks or braiding. They are gayly lined and the skirts are long and not too narrow, of course.
