Tomorrow the Gray Salons of Millinery Will Present the New Millinery Fashions for Spring and Summer

The Vegetable Garden of the United States seems to be fixed for Florida, from present appearances. Moses places the creation of vegetables on the third day of creation, after the production of light and atmosphere and after the waters receded from the land.

The arrangement of the solar system came afterward.

The plants and seeds began the operations of germinating in the darkness and moisture and slight heat of the ground at times wherein they found a living principle of vegetation, though in their growth and flower they required the beams of the sun.

One writer has said, "There must be internal force and external stimulus. Neither is enough in itself. A rose will not flower in the dark, and a fern will not flower anywhere."

Spain is said to have nothing barren in it or not in some way useful.

This is possible to our lives and our work, whatever it be.

Never Were Women's Coats Lovelier

That is the opinion of nearly every woman who sees them. And the loose, graceful lines are so becoming.

Newest arrivals are some fine silver-tone tricotine dolmans, silk lined, with a tricolette collar. $57.50.

Beautiful dolmans of crystal cloth with trimmings of rows of buttons of the material. $65.

And Bolivia cape coats which have strap belts and the loose cape effect in the back. $75.

(First Floor, Central)

Rich Silk Handbags With Heavy Sterling Frames

Large bags in a new wide shape, with deep and rather ornate sterling silver frames which closely resemble Holland silver in design.

The silks are in beautiful striped and figured effects and are in black and navy.

Prices $55 to $67.50.

(Main Floor, Chestnut)

Women's New Gloves With the Fashionable Strap Wrist

One of the smartest Spring hand coverings is the glove that comes just above the wrist and falls in soft folds over it. These are some new and particularly fine quality strap-wrist gloves that will look well with new suits and gowns.

$3 a pair for tan capeskin gloves, washable, with flat point stitching; $4 a pair for gray with spearpoint embroidery.

$4.50 a pair for tan or pearl white washable cape-skin, with spearpoint embroidery.

$4.50 a pair—some beautiful mocha gloves in gray, with spearpoint embroidery.

$5.25 a pair for a new beaver shade of mocha gloves, in a longer length, pique sewn.

(Main Floor, Central)

The lovely light furs for Spring are being shown close by the new Spring millinery on the Second Floor, Chestnut

New Low-Heel Pumps Women Will Like

A trim, plain-toe style with little leather bow for ornament.

In patent leather, black calfskin and a new shade of brown calfskin at $9.

In white canvas at $8.50.

In white buckskin at $11.

(First Floor, Market)

Letitia Corsets

The latest Spring models to come are those designed for medium and full figures. For instance—

At $7. A corset model with low bust and re-enforcement over the abdomen.

At $9. A corset model top made with elastic gussets in the skirt.

At $7.50. A model very heavily boned, with broad abdominal clasp; eyelets and lace below front steel.

At $10. A beautiful pink broche model with low bust and elastic inserts at bottom, also a pink and white broche corset which is very comfortable and serviceable.

At $9. A design for women who like a long skirt and heavy boning.

After most of the American buyers had started back again across the Atlantic, when Paris was bringing out the hats she intended for her own wearing this Spring and Summer, then we selected the new hats we have to show you tomorrow. In consequence, they are not only very new, but the really authentic French modes for the coming season.

That you might best know these modes, we selected hats from the foremost Paris modistes—

from the picturesque flower-laden Watteau hats to the charming Directoire hats. There are demure pokes and large hats of beautiful lines; there are small straw hats and huge ones of silk and brocade.

There Is a Perfect Furore Over Hats of Fabrics

Every Paris modiste shows this tendency in some form or other. There are hats of organdie, crisp and transparent and Summer-like; hats of fine linens; hats of gingham in bright colors; hats of gleaming silks and glistening satins; gorgeous hats of rich brocades.

Some Fashions You Will Note—

That hats are very large—or so small. Paris goes from one extreme to the other.

Ribbons, ever so many! Great ribbon bows, ribbon streamers, ribbons smartly tied and softly draped.

And flowers—quantities of them. One hat (it's from Jeanne Duc) has a crown entirely of flower petals, and a flat brim of creamy raffia. But flowers of all sorts are chic, and beautiful foliage is highly approved, and fruits and even pine cones adorn other Paris chapeaux.

(Second Floor, Chestnut)

Crowns are high; brims are often wide; and hats are quite frequently very transparent, being of two or three folds of net—in two or three colors that only Paris would think of combining.

As to Colors

Brown is most fashionable; purple, henna and other similar shades are much in evidence; vivid greens, deep blues, rose and pastel shades—all these you will see.

From Marcelle Demay

11 Rue Royale, Paris

is a distinguished collection of unusual and charming models—these created especially for the Gray Salon. They are hats unlike any others you will find in America. Hats for tailored and morning wear; hats for formal occasions are all included.

It Is a Radiant Showing of Springtime Newness—
of hats that are wearable, always, quite the last word as to French newness and altogether charming.

Fashions Reflect Their New and Loveliest Notes In the Formal Showing of NEW SPRING CLOTHES FOR YOUNG WOMEN

Here are the new fashions for Spring and Summer—the new ideas and creations of the foremost American designers and clothes makers for girls and young women.

There are gowns, suits, frocks, coats and wraps for every occasion. There are new and delightful clothes for girls and young women of many types. And they are all—these new and lovely Spring clothes—in those simple, quietly beautiful styles which well-dressed girls and young women will approve.

First, New Suits—

Handsome dress suits and simple tailored suits. Suits for country and sports wear, suits for business and school wear. There are many dark blue serges and tricotines, some smart braided suits, some shepherd checks and many of wool jersey and velour.

Capes, Dolmans and Coats—is the way fashion spells wraps this year! Graceful rippling capes, stunning dolmans of silk tricolette and more practical topcoats are in every fashionable color and all the fashionable fabrics.

As to Dresses—

there are ruffled taffetas and soft-clinging crepes, rich novelty silks and no end of practical serge and jersey dresses—and all new, too! Nattier blue, deep blue, sand and soft grays are some of the colors; there is much of the new silky embroidery suggestive of astrakhan and all sorts of new ideas as to draped skirts, necks and sleeves.

Separate Skirts This Spring

are important enough for a story all their own! Wool plaids, box-pleated, soft sports silks in gay and light colors and combinations, and plain-colored silks and poplins will be wanted to wear with separate wraps and pretty blouses.

If you wear 14 to 20 year sizes—and are interested in the new Spring fashions—you will surely want to see all these!

(Second Floor, Chestnut)

Colored Organdie Waists

Pure soft blue, delicate green and an orchid color, each relieved by very narrow white organdie cuffs and very wide white organdie collars. The price is $2.50.

A new all-white batiste style has hand-done collars and cuffs from the Philippines and a front all of tiny tufts.

Price $5.50.

(Third Floor, Central)

Pink Batiste Nightgowns

for women who like such gowns, but don't like low necks. These nightgowns have high necks with V openings and are prettified with blue feather-stitching.

Price $1.50.

(Third Floor, Central)

Women's New Spring Suits Made to Order

The little shop, which has been making uniforms for women doing war work, is now producing smart tailored suits, skirts and shirtrwaits to order.

A few suits are shown as an indication of the fine cut and tailoring, and customers can make their own selection of materials—either in this shop or elsewhere in the Store.

The prices are very moderate.

(First Floor, Central)

50-Inch Serge, All-Wool, $2 a Yard

This is a fresh shipment of this specially priced serge and probably the last one.

Being the heavier, tailoring weight, it is used a great deal for capes, separate skirts and suits. Some women also like it for street dresses. It is very good for children's coats and boys' suits.

In dark blue and black only.

(First Floor, Chestnut)

500 Emergency Umbrellas at $1.50

The sort you keep by twos and threes in the office or in the family umbrella stand for lending purposes. Their steel parasol frames are covered with cotton taffeta, and those for men have hook handles, while those for women have silk loops.

Price $1.50.

(Main Floor, Market)

The Rug Is the Foundation—

literally and figuratively—of the furnishings of a room. No matter how fine the other furniture may be, it will not redeem unattractive floor covering.

Here are some fresh, new rugs well worth seeing:

Wilton Rugs

- 9x12 ft., $85, $98.50 and $124.50.
- 8.3x10.6 ft., $92.50, $96.50 and $120.
- 6x9 ft., $48.50, $62.50 and $77.50.

Axminster Rugs

- 9x12 ft. $54.50 and $57.50.
- 8.3x10.6 ft., $32.50 and $35.

Note: We have some excellent room-size Wilton and Axminster rugs at specially low prices.

(Seventh Floor, Chestnut)

Fine White Pantry Ware and Tin Ware in the Housewares Sale

Another large shipment of high-grade white enameled Japan pantry ware and tin ware has just arrived.

This is the kind of ware that does not become wobbly with use. The pantry ware is edged with tinseling.

There is considerable saving to the customer in this list of special prices—

New Quilts—$6 and $7.50 Special

Quilts with a mixed wool filling, figured cambric center and back and plain sateen border are marked to sell at $6 each, regularly one-third more.

Wool-filled quilts with figured sateen centers and backs bordered with plain-colored sateen in rose, blue, green, pink and brown are $7.50 each—a saving of more than one-third.

Cotton-filled quilts covered with figured silkoline tops and backs, special at $3 each.

All fresh, perfect goods, the first two groups being new out of the boxes.

(Sixth Floor, Central)

The Music of the Masters or the Jazz Tunes of Today

Which do you prefer—or do you like both, in their places?

Most of us have a catholic taste in music. There are times when we feel like being borne away on the wings of great music, and times when some simple little melody or some regular rip-snorting jazz dance are what the doctor ordered.

Ampico Reproducing Pianos

will play them all—and play them perfectly.

People who play ragtime seldom can play fine music well, and artist-musicians turn up their sensitive noses at ragtime. But every type of melody has its place and its followers, and with an Ampico one can hear the music one's mood calls for.

The Ampico reproducing piano has no equal for marvelously human performance. It is associated with the following famous pianos, shown at Wanamaker's only in Philadelphia:

Ampico Uprights

- Chickering, $1500.
- Schomacker, $1275.
- Haines Bros., $1050.
- Marshall and Wendell, $950.
- The celebrated Knabe, $1550 and $1600.

(Egyptian Hall, Second Floor)

Ampico Grands

- Chickering, $2500 and $2900.
- The celebrated Knabe, $2500, $2750, $2900 and $3150.

Any of these splendid instruments may be purchased on convenient terms.
