SERVING A DINNER FOR COMPANY—A GIRL WHO DIDN'T SUCCEED—A LUNCHEON SET—CYNTHIA

MRS. WILSON SUGGESTS MEALS FOR COMPANY

Gives Sample Menus for an Emergency and the Recipes That Go With Them-Welcoming the Sudden Guest

Ask Mrs. Wilson

If you have any cookery probems, bring them to Mrs. Wilson.

through these columns. No per sonal replies, however, can be given.

Address questions to Mrs. M. A.

Wilson, EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER,

and then place in a bowl, and sea-

Two tablespoonfuls of finely

Now fill into five pimentos. Place in a baking pan and bake for fifteen minutes. Remove and then place on a hot platter, flattening well; then place one poached egg on each pepper. Cover with cheese sauce

Kentucky Potpie

and milk. Cover with a crust and bake for forty minutes in a hot oven.

Japanese Cheese Cutlets

warm water and then cook until the rice is soft and the water absorbed

Two tablespoonfuls of

One pimento, chopped fine.

Start This Story Today

"Gee. I feel like a million dollars. I took a little flyer the other day and maybe I wasn't afraid, but came out on top all right-made three hundred "

all women do."
Scott had heard that Bradley was still in the first stages of marriage and that his wife was very pretty.

"Well, Mabel doesn't say much, but I know when she is going without things she wants, and without telling her anything. I took some money out of the bank. One of the fellows gave me a tip on the market. Gee, I've been nervous about it, because we promised each other not to touch that

65 Loganberries

Are used to flavor one

This is one of our best fruit flavors. Compare it with the old-style quick

Jiffy-Jell dessert. The juice is condensed and scaled in a vial.

y; it's a trust fund for a rainy But look at this, three hundred wanted to talk about it and Scott was he did lose.

minced parsley.

nhead."

Wash one-half cupful of rice in Use cold leftover chicken for this and garnish with parsley.

One onion, chopped fine,

son highly. Add

Copurisht, 1919, by Mrs. M. A. Wilson,

By MRS, M. A. WILSON N THE days of long ago, before the era of the electric tramcars and motors, the hostess welcomed and entertained her guest with lavish hospitality. Nowadays, when a guest literally drops in on us, we have done away with the formality of yesterday and today we greet our friends in the true spirit of "bon camaraderie."

Frequently the men folks will bring home a guest on just a few chopped parsley. hours' notice-and sometimes not even that - or perhaps some dear friend will phone you that she is just passing through town and would enjoy visiting you. Now, Mrs. Housewife, here is a real opportunity, one in which you can rise to the occasion; keep the fact in mind that true hospitality knows no barrier as to time or place. It makes little real difference to you to dish. Cut the meat from the bones play host to the stranger within in neat pieces and then place a your gates, because you know that layer of parboiled potatoes in the a baked potato, a salad and a cup bottom of a baking dish. Season of tea, all nicely served with a gra- with salt, paprika and grated onion. ciousness that true hospitality never and then add the chicken meat. Sealacks, puts into the heart of the son and cover with one and one-half guest a homey feeling, and what he cupfuls of cream sauce made by eats at your table tastes better than using equal parts of chicken stock the most elaborate banquet.

The invitation to come and have a bite with you, when extended with a wholesome "I truly want you to come and take pot luck with us," means to the guest that he may rest assured of a hearty welcome, though in two and one half cupfuls of boilthe feast were served on a plain ing water. Now add to the rice

This plea for true hospitality need cause you little extra labor and no onion. additional expense.

A Few Sample Menus for an Emergency Sardine Chevalier Cheese Souffle

Baked Potato Lettuce Corinthian Dressing Banana Supreme

Cheese Canapo Eggs a la Grenadier French-fried Potatoes

Coleslaw Fruit Meringue

Clear Tomato Soup Creamed Meat in Popovers Mashed Potatoes Buttered Beets Fruit Salad

Salpicon of Fruit Kentucky Potpic Mashed Turnips Celery Salad Ice Cream

Purce of Celery Japanese Cheese Cutlets

Tomato Sauce Baked Potatoes Lettuce

Fruit Purce of Celery French Omelet Grilled Potatoes Vegetable Salad

Cake

Sardines Chevalier

Coffee

Use small bread and butter plates for serving chevalier. Open a tin of sardines. Drain and then lay two sardines on each plate. Garnish two sardines on each plate. Garnish wanted to take about the and scott was he did lose. Or course the idea or with strips of pimentos. Lay a sympathetic listener. I don't know how you manage, said the chances were ten to one, and with strips of pimentos. Lay a sympathetic listeller "I don't know how you manage, and small leaf of the heart of lettuce on the side of the plate and fill with the side of the plate and fill with the following mixture:

Four tablespoonfuls of mayon-naise, a sympathetic listeller "I don't know how you manage, and the chances were ten to one, and why should be. Scott, be unlucky enough to draw the tenth chance?

All day he dallied with the idea. In these days. Darn it all, I wouldn't care a bit if it weren't for Mabel, but she needs pretty things. I tell you was he spent every penny he made. It

Two pimentos, chopped fine, One small onion, chopped fine, Three olives, chopped fine. Mix and then use.

Cheese Souffle

Place in a bowl One cupful of thick cream sauce, One-half cupful of grated cheese,

Two tablespoonfuls of grated One tablespoonful of finely minced I'll put the hundred back in the bank and still have two to buy clothes. Say, Raymond, the next time I get a tip, parsley.

Two level teaspoonfuls of salt, One level teaspoonful of paprika, Yolks of three eggs.

Beat to mix and then carefully cut and fold in the stiffly beaten whites of three eggs. Pour in greased baking dish. Bake in a moderate oven until firm in the center, usually about twenty minutes.

Corinthian Dressing

This dressing is used in the famous Corinthian Club in Chelsea. Eight tablespoonfuls of salad oil, Three tablespoonfuls of vinegar, One teaspoonful of Worcestershire sauce, One teaspoonful of mustard, One tenspoonful of salt, One teaspoonful of paprika,

One canned pimento, rubbed through a fine sieve. Beat thoroughly to mix and then

Banana Supreme

Cut a slice on sponge cake and then cover with thinly sliced banana, and pile with whipped cream.

Eggs a la Grenadier three ounces of macaron A DAINTY DESIGN FOR A COLLAR

One-half cupful of grated cheese, Dainty embroidery is coming very leaves are gold or done in lazy-daisy the sash dots lend just the right touch Two tablespoonfuls of grated sheer organdle or chiffon voile dress to figure prominently in every woman's green to be used for the sheer and cool-wardrobe this summer. Not only can the design to be used for the collar and the design to be used for the collar and the design to be used for the collar and the design to be used for the collar and the design to be used for the collar and the design to be used for the collar and the design to be used for the collar and the design to be used for the collar and the design to be used for the collar and the design to be used for the collar and the design to be used for the collar and the design to be used for the collar and the design to be used for the collar and the design to be used for the collar and the design to be used for the collar and the daintier the gest themselves and the daintier the better for the sheer little afternoon dress to be worn at the seashore.

If you do not know how to transfer Mix thoroughly, cool and then mold into cutlets, and dip in flour and then in beaten egg. Fry until the design to be used for the collar and pretty. golden brown in hot fat. Serve with one and you could put the money right back again."

Scott shook his head.
"All right." and Bradley made for money back by strict economy even if he did lose. Of course the idea of was he spent every penny he made. I

And So They Were Married

whole attitude was one of suppressed feeling. He walked around the office a few minutes without saying anything, but he plainly wanted to tell Scott something and was only waiting to be asked. Finally he blurted out:

"I know what you could do, ne said thoughtfully.

"What?" Scott's tone was unsuspecting. He couldn't see a single way clear to getting any ready money if he had wanted it.

"Borrow on your life insurance."

"Not for me—that's too much of a chance."

"I know what you could do, ne said thoughtfully.

"What?" Scott's tone was unsuspecting. He couldn't see a single way clear to getting any ready money if he had wanted it.

"Borrow on your life insurance."

"I know what you could do, ne said thoughtfully.

"What?" Scott's tone was unsuspecting. He couldn't see a single way clear to getting any ready money if he had wanted it.

"Borrow on your life insurance."

"I know what you could do, ne said thoughtfully.

"I know what you could do, ne said thoughtfully.

"I know what you could do, ne said thoughtfully.

"I know what you could do, ne said thoughtfully.

"I know what you could do, ne said thoughtfully.

"I know what you could do, ne said thoughtfully.

"I know what you could do, ne said thoughtfully.

"I know what you could do, ne said thoughtfully.

"I was waiting for you to shoot. Go tell you this thing is ten chances to on top all right—made three hundred." the door. "If you change your mind.

Scott was interested; he couldn't let me know." And he was gone.
help it. "That's great Bradley." he Scott could not help thinking of this these couldn't help thinking of this these couldness.

said interestedly, "just great."

"I don't see how I had the nerve to do it. You see I had to take money out of the bank. I didn't dare tell the face if he came home one evening and wife, but after all I did it for her if threw some crisp bills in her lap. The the truth is known."

the truth is known."

It wasn't necessary for Scott to ask After all, suppose he did take a chance questions. Bradley was obsessed by the exhibitration of the thing. Success had gone to his head like wine. He money back by strict economy even if had been impossible to save. Only with the strictest figuring had he been

"Who has been interfering with us?" Ruth fidgeted. "O, mother has."

"O, she makes me discontented. She was here this afternoon and it wasn't exactly what she said, so much as it

She realized all right, Scott thought grimly, but she purposely injected these cruel little subtleties into her knew that she had been disappointed when Ruth had insisted upon marrying him. What her idea was in making him. What her idea was in making Ruth unhappy, he couldn't understand.

her mother, Ruth becomes still more conversations with Ruth.

for a man who hadn't money.

Yes, Scott did know, he knew "How?"

clothes.

thing.

much into its own again since the end of the war has brought its hours of leisure. Here is a design that seems Stitch.

Coor combinations will suggest themit is can be used very well for a little. as fresh and dainty as the spring daisy selves. Rose on the white organdie girl's dress. The collar will come a bit itself. It can be used on a separate set of collar and cuffs or can be embroidered on those that are to grace the proof of the set of collar and cuffs or can be embroidered on those that are to grace the proof of the set of collar and cuffs or one voite dress would be very the set of t Here again color combinations will sug-

the design to be used for the color and precty. Tellow emblodary on an emblodery of an emblode able to pay his premium regularly, and all the extras went to Ruth. He simply could not narrow Ruth's life down too much, she had to have some of the fripperies of life. Her very disgust yesterday, when they had visited gust yesterday, when they had visited erroment.

Paris Employment Office

of the fripperies of life. Her very dis-gust yesterday, when they had visited the Merritts, of the sordid things of THE morning after the rather unfortunate trip to Long Island Scott was in his office when Bradley, one of the other men, breezed in unceremoniously. His face was excited, his whole attitude was one of suppressed when attitude was one of suppressed.

The Merritts, of the sordid things of life, had inade Scott certain of that.

If wish we could go away, just you to President Wilson in Washington. It says that the girls sent by the Y. W. White sold for a minute looking down at Scott.

The Merritts, of the sordid things of life, had inade Scott certain of that.

If wish we could go away, just you to President Wilson in Washington. It says that the girls sent by the Y. W. A. E. F. for clerical work were the most efficient French girls employed. Miss Marguerite Jones, who comes from New York city and is very proud of "her girls," and the girls—well, they each have a copy of the report.

Of Interest to Women

A maple three eighty years old was cut down recently at Hydeville, Vt. In a crotch, ten feet from the ground, grew a black raspherry bush that reached nearly to the ground, and for two years had borne an abundance of fruit. "She keeps talking to me about clothes. She simply doesn't realize that we can't afford to have every-

Although the head of a whale is enormous size, from one-quarter to one-third of the length of the entire body, and the mouth fifteen to twenty feet long and six to eight feet wide, the open-ing of the gullet is not larger than a man's fist.

Please Tell Me What to Do

By CYNTHIA

Take Plenty of Exercise Attractive Blondey—Don't think about yourself and your blushes, dear; take plenty of fresh air and exercise and try to think about the people you meet and not about yourself. Take the business course if you have the time, but if you are at school in day time it would be better not to go at night, too. De you talk to your mother about your shyness? She will help you. Drink plenty of milk and do not eat to many sweets. Go to bed at regular hours and sleep eight or nine hours at least every night.

Man Snubbed Her

Man Snubbed Her

Anxious—My dear, if the man has refused invitations to your home and broken appointments with you and sent no word, my advice is the sooner you forget him the better. His saying to another girl that he cares for you is simply silly talk, or she is probably saying it to tease you. Give your time and thoughts to some one more worth while if you must have an object for your affections. Do not waste time on a man who has so deliberately played with you.

Elkton Marriage Rules?

Dear Cynthia—I am a girl of eighteen and I would like to know the details for getting married in Elkton, Md. I was told that it has become necessary to stay in the city of Elkton twenty-four hours before the wedding. I am anxious to know if that is true.

ADVENTURE.

It is quite as easy to marry here with your parents' consent as it is in Elkton. Consult your mother or the relative nearest to you on this matter.

Dear Cynthia—Though I am only a grammar-school girl, aged thirteen, I could not resist writing jo you on the subject of girls my age running after boys. Cynthia. The boys and girls are not together, in the classrooms at our school.

Our teacher is very nice and when she heard that some of her pupils were behaving disgracefully she remonstrated very gently at first, telling us how dangerous it was for girls as young as we to allow boys to "get free" with us.

Now, Cynthia, don't you think she is right? As she says, she doesn't mean that we shouldn't look at or speak to a boy; but she means that we oughtn't to allow them to yell at us or pull us around, etc.; nor should we promise to meet them at corners in the evening. vening.

Some of our girls protested that she too strict, etc. So what do you think, ynthia?

M. W. E. M.

Your teacher is perfectly right, my dear. It is certainly not nice for little boys to be familiar with them nor is it nice for them to meet on street corners. You will do well to listen to your kind

Do Not Write to Him Do Not Write to Him

Dear Cynthia—Last Saturday I met a fellow. Before leaving me he said he wuld come to see me Wednesday. He did not come. I like him very much and would like to keep up the friendship.
I also would like to correspond with him, as he lives out of town. Should I write and ask him why he did not come in that way start a correspondence or ignore him and probably never see him again? Please answer as soon as posstible, as I want to write before it is too late.

LOVE SICK.

My dear, I hope that in the time you have waited for your answer you have come to realize how very foolish and even wrong, you would be to write to this man, who is almost an absolute stranger to you and about whom you know nothing except that he made an engagement to call and did not keep it and gave no excuse.

Now what on earth can please you

Now, what on earth can please you about a man like that? By all means do not write. Forget him as soon as possible; he is not worth a second thought.

How to Keep a Velvet Dress

How to Keep a velvet Dress

A good deal can be done to avoid wrinkles in velvet garments by hanging carefully when they are not in use. Hang them so that they swing free of walls and doors and shelves, and so that, no other garments touch them.
The r very weight will often pull smooth their wrinkled surface and their freedom from contact with anything will keep them from getting new wrinkles.

MARRIOTT BROS, 1118 Chestnut

1217 Walnut Street

The new ideas in spring Millinery make one of the most interesting Expositions we have ever held. Among the showing are some ultra fine creations of which we make a

SHOWING

SPRING STYLES

A wide variety of shapes and sizes in appropriate materials for present wear.

WHY A CERTAIN SALESGIRL NEVER GREW TO BE BUYER

She Entered the Store With That Aim, but Eventually She Began to Measure the Interest She Should Put Into Her Job by What a Fellow Worker Put Into Hers-Why This Is Fatal to Success

I don't feel we put the matter quite correctly when we say self-satisfied. The thing that robs people of success and keeps them drawing the same salary year after year is not so much satisfaction with self as it is satisfaction with what the man or woman at the next desk is doing, or satisfaction with what the man or woman who last held the position did.

Take this example: A girl gets.

Take this example: A girl gets a position as saleslady in the shirtwaist department of a large store. She goes into the work with a great deal of enthusiasm. She has in fact, with all due respect to the present buyer, hopes of being buyer herself some day. Service is to be her watchword. That is, she is going to work her position up to a science.

In must beware of the man at the next counter. There is nothing more fatal to success than measuring the effort and interest you ought to put into your job by that which your fellow-worker puts into hers.

If you are aiming for something, don't be satisfied with what your neighbor does. For you and she may not be aiming for the same thing.

She is going to be as keenly interested in the smallest sale, and as solicitous about it as she would be fitting out a bride with all the blouses for her trousseau. She is going to know her stock so well that if there is any earthy thing in the department that would be apt to please a rather particular customer it will occur to her just because of her familiarity with just because of her familiarity with If a woman goes off without making a purchase after taking up a great deal of time she will extend the same unfalling courtesy, for there is always a tomorrow. In other words, she is never going to lose the smallest opportunity to make her department a particular personal friend to the woman who is thinking of buying a new shirtwaist new shirtwaist. She looks even further, this girl with

She looks even further, this girl with the makings of succes in her. She wants all her store—all that socies of vivid counters with their brightly col-ored bead bags, with their bolts of snowy lace and linens, with their books—to have the warm friendship of the public.

THERE are real definite sign-posts WHAT cured this girl of her enthuaway from success. Heads of large girl on her particular aisle! The other enterprises, renowned musicians, fa- girl was not an undesirable employe mous actors and actresses and others by any means, but she was a commonwho have worked hard to get where place one. She was selling waists they are today are agreed on one of but as for putting into her job these sign-posts. To win out you must never grow self-satisfied. little store of her own—why, she never dreamed of it. Gradually and almost counter began to be the more or less indifferent sort of an employe who seemed to be "getting away with it" on the other half of the aisle. She was

The removal of a hair growth from under the arms or the plished by using this excellent preparation. Sold by drug and department stores.
Price $1.00. Samples 10c.
Le Fevre Co., 329 N 15th St., Phila.

HEMSTITCHING TUCKING AND PLEATING L. NACHMAN & CO. 42 N. EIGHTH

quality in a corset. Of course, they prefer the perfection that few frontlace corsets have, and, of course, that is why they prefer a Redfern Front-Lace, with its self-adjusting net protector under the lacings.

125.00

Stone@ 1306 Walnut St. Very Becoming Georgette Afternoon Dresses The charm of Spring is delightfully expressed in our stunning little geor-gette frocks. They are beautifully fashioned in plain and beaded models—some hand embroidered — in colors of Navy, Taupe, Brown, Hen-na and other new Spring shades. 29.50

Wed. and Thursday Only Georgette Crepe All New Smart. Materials

Sale Starts 10 A. M. Wednesday. Don't Be Late!

Where You Save $2 to $5 1502 CHESTNUT ST. at 15th

Soldiers Soothe Skin Troubles with Cuticura