tives came from New York, where they have formed a part of the international conference on the rehabilitation of the disabled. The meeting here is preliminary to a trip the party will make through the United States and Canada under the direction of the Red Cross Institutes for crippled and disabled men.

Foremost among the speakers is Dr. Andre Treves, of the French delegation to the conference.

Doctor Treves was appointed surgeon of the second class in the divisional hos-pital the first day of mobilization. He took part in the retreat from Belgium, also in the battles of the Marne, the ner of the Croix de Guerre.

Michael J. Doling, of Olivia, Minn. one of the best-known cripples in Amer- perstructure.

He enjoys roller-skating and dancing and drives his own car. He is particularly active in business.

Among other wis: will make brief of the talks are M. Louis Alleman, chief of the Robert Lombardi 65.060 educational staff, Belgian Institute for War Cripples, Port-Villo, France; Prof. Vittorio Putti, the famous Italian orthopedic surgeon and director of the Ports. pedic surgeon and director of the Rizzell

SOLDIER SALVAGE TEACHER RIDICULES REPORT WOMEN ACTIVE FIVE CAN LIVE WELL ON $1500

Elizabeth Cahill Says War Labor Board's Expert Investigators Are Not Expert Enough to Do What They Say Can Be Done-Gives Her Figure

Housewives everywhere will be pleased to find that $1500 will support a family of five—provided the investigators of the Department of Labor will volunteer their services as shoppers and show them how to do it, according to Miss Elizabeth Cahill, a public school teacher, of 1906 North Eighteenth street. Miss Cahill scouts the idea that $1500 will permit five persons to "live well," which W. F. Ogburn, statistical expert of the national war labor board, deduces from scientific investigations throughout the United States.
