NAVAL RESERVES TO BE RELEASED

Personnel on Active Duty Must Be Discharged at War's End

BECAUSE A BILL FAILED

Resignations of Officers of Temporary Navy Cannot Be Accepted Now

By the Associated Press Washington, April 4.—Because of the fallure of Congress to enact the naval ately upon the declaration of peace. the Navy Department said that because of this fact and of the great need of officers, due both to the continuing activities of the navy and the shortage of regular officers, it would be inadvis able generally to accept the resignation of officers of the temporary navy, Many of these officers have asked to be relieved from duty so as to return to civil life, but attention was called by the department to the fact they are under obligation to perform active duty with the navy for a period of not later than six months after the termination of the war. It was announced however, that resignations of such offi-cers would be accepted as additional officers were made or appointed in the temporary or permanent naval force. Work Still Before Navy

"Our troops abroad must be brought ne," said the department's announce, nt, "and they must be fed and provided for 'over there' before they come home. Our associates in the war still require food and provisions. To do this work, the navy today is operating 110 troop transports and 210 chrgo carriers. The temporary officers of the navy are making this work possible because the
