

Evening Public Ledger THE EVENING TELEGRAPH PUBLIC LEADER COMPANY C. H. K. CURTIS, President...

Member of the Associated Press THE ASSOCIATED PRESS is exclusively entitled to the use for republication...

THE GOVERNOR'S COAL PLAN

DELIVERY of coal in a city like Philadelphia is a complicated and expensive process, as every coal man knows...

OH, BILL!

YOUR polite, or parlor, Bolshevik is frankly a person who luxuriates in the sound of his own voice...

POLLY WANTS A CRACKER!

NEW ZEALAND is troubled with a pest of parrots which are killing sheep on the ranges...

SALOON SUBSTITUTES

WHEN Bishop Charles E. Woodcock, of the Episcopal diocese of Kentucky, lately demanded in this city...

Wherever the liquor question has been intelligently studied it has been demonstrated that barrooms are crowded...

A PLAN TO END GOVERNMENT BY FAVOR

The General Assembly is Expected to Put State Aid to Private Charities on a Business Basis

IT IS easier to protest against government by favoritism than to abolish it. No one defends it. Those who govern us simply practice it.

THE TIGER'S OLD COAT

CLEVER French bushmen—"stop-pears" is their official title—have plugged up the bullet holes in Georges Clemenceau's overcoat...

Something New Every Day

It has remained for the Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis to evolve the most picturesque charge yet made against the Wilson administration...

Excitable Italy is still "Flaming" at the Peace Conference

It is a dismal paradox that May coal prices will be inseparable from the must rate.

Colors of History

The Reds in Germany and in Russia might be a little more popular if they were not proving to be yellow fighters.

When the air routes become regulated and policed it will at least be impossible to roast the traffic cop for standing still and doing nothing.

The inference that General Blanquet's

projected and elaborately press-agented revolution in Mexico is not unconnected with all wells helps to confirm the belief that he is a slippery customer.

THE ERA OF HIGH TAXES

THE national government for years to come will have to collect annually about four times as much revenue as the maximum raised in any twelve months prior to the war.

THE TIGER'S OLD COAT

CLEVER French bushmen—"stop-pears" is their official title—have plugged up the bullet holes in Georges Clemenceau's overcoat...

THE TIGER'S OLD COAT

CLEVER French bushmen—"stop-pears" is their official title—have plugged up the bullet holes in Georges Clemenceau's overcoat...

THE TIGER'S OLD COAT

CLEVER French bushmen—"stop-pears" is their official title—have plugged up the bullet holes in Georges Clemenceau's overcoat...

Something New Every Day

It has remained for the Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis to evolve the most picturesque charge yet made against the Wilson administration...

Excitable Italy is still "Flaming" at the Peace Conference

It is a dismal paradox that May coal prices will be inseparable from the must rate.

Colors of History

The Reds in Germany and in Russia might be a little more popular if they were not proving to be yellow fighters.

When the air routes become regulated

and policed it will at least be impossible to roast the traffic cop for standing still and doing nothing.

The inference that General Blanquet's

projected and elaborately press-agented revolution in Mexico is not unconnected with all wells helps to confirm the belief that he is a slippery customer.

MAKING THE MOST OF THE SCHUYLKILL'S CHARMS

There is Notable Precedent for the Fairmount Park Art Association's Plan in the Accomplishments of Other Cities

IT is an embarrassment to city beautifiers that a river has two banks. That fact in nature enormously increases the magnitude of the Fairmount Park Art Association's war commemoration plan...

THE ERA OF HIGH TAXES

THE national government for years to come will have to collect annually about four times as much revenue as the maximum raised in any twelve months prior to the war.

THE TIGER'S OLD COAT

CLEVER French bushmen—"stop-pears" is their official title—have plugged up the bullet holes in Georges Clemenceau's overcoat...

THE TIGER'S OLD COAT

CLEVER French bushmen—"stop-pears" is their official title—have plugged up the bullet holes in Georges Clemenceau's overcoat...

Something New Every Day

It has remained for the Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis to evolve the most picturesque charge yet made against the Wilson administration...

Excitable Italy is still "Flaming" at the Peace Conference

It is a dismal paradox that May coal prices will be inseparable from the must rate.

Colors of History

The Reds in Germany and in Russia might be a little more popular if they were not proving to be yellow fighters.

When the air routes become regulated

and policed it will at least be impossible to roast the traffic cop for standing still and doing nothing.

The inference that General Blanquet's

projected and elaborately press-agented revolution in Mexico is not unconnected with all wells helps to confirm the belief that he is a slippery customer.

PRUNES AND PRISMS

If the League of Nations Were a Restaurant Syndicate OVER one billion people are spending their lives on this earth—such is the lure of this admirably planned planet...

OUR carefully planned system satisfies this unique clientele.

A New York paper is conducting a controversy on the old bicker about doughnuts and crullers. Our idea is that the ring-shaped sinner is the only true doughnut...

Sylvan Night

THE lonely woods are carpeted with needles inches deep; A blasing knot sends fragrant incense curling to the sky...

THE wind, with wistful sighings, rustles through the lofty pines; It brings a note of chilliness, and I nestle to my blaze; Above, the stars are twinkling like fresh gems still in the mines...

MY CAMPFIRE dies; the embers glow;

now silence reigns supreme; The creatures of the night are still; My pipe has long been dead; The whip-poor-will has ceased his call; I rouse from out my dream...

SOMEWHERE yonder, trees are mourning over days and times gone by; Telling secrets of the ages to the placid waters deep; Of the lake on which they border; they are restless—so am I...

The Caloric Value of Plump Urchins

"It had been a strenuous night. All day the mercury had been flirting with the zero mark and soon after sunset burrowed down into the bulb below all readings. My bed that night felt like a well-laid tomb. Probably daylight would have found me frozen."

SHARED

SOME things there be that are better shared— A cottage fire; a table spread; A country road and the evening hush...

Our Postman

They signed the peace—his boy was safe at last; He sighed relief for all the danger past; Then waited hopeful, but no letter came...

How to Know Satan When You Meet Him

H. G. Wells imparts some advance information that may be of value to some of us; "Satan has the compact alertness of habitual travel; he is as definite as a grip sack...

What Do You Know?

QUIZ

- 1. After whom were the Philippine Islands named?
2. What is basalt?
3. What is the meaning of the word "necient"?
4. Who wrote "What Will He Do With It"?
5. What were the names of Alexandre Dumas's "Three Musketeers"?
6. What is Taoism?
7. Who is the present French foreign minister?
8. What is a comit?
9. What is a consistory?
10. What is the largest city in Porto Rico, after San Juan?

Answers to Saturday's Quiz

- 1. General Innesides is the British commander opposed to the Bolsheviks in the Murmansk region of Russia.
2. Cairo is the largest city in Egypt.
3. The Iddas are a collection of ancient Icelandic poems.
4. Nacarat color is a bright orange-red.
5. The sachen was the chief of certain American Indian tribes. By extension the word has come to mean big-wig, eminent person. It is pronounced with the "ch" sounded as in church, with the "a" short, and with the accent on the first syllable.
6. Mathias Erbsberg is the head of the German armistice commission.
7. Spikenard is a perennial herb, allied to valerian. The word is also applied to certain kinds of fragrant oil and originally it described an ancient costly aromatic ointment.
8. The Metropolitan of Athens is the Greek Church prelate of that city, ranking above an archbishop and below a patriarch.
9. A sackbut is an obsolete bass trumpet with a slide for altering the pitch.
10. Two American Presidents, Martin Van Buren and Theodore Roosevelt, were of Dutch paternal ancestry.