Good Manners Are as Easily Cultivated

as the learning of tennis, dancing or golf.

Manners are not mere formalities.

The grace of naturalness and simplicity is as the dew of the morning upon the flowers when their faces get the kiss of the early sun.

The charm of a well-mannered person is a passport universally acknowledged.

For the business duties of the kind of store we are conducting, our large stock of good manners must never be short or slow in its improvement.

The Most Luxurious of All Duvetyn'e Wraps

[Signed] John Mananake

must surely be those at this moment in the cases of the Women's Coat Salon. There are no two alike, except in their originality and lovely quality and color.

Just for instance-

There are rich black duvetynes which might be called either coats or wraps, with insertions of black silk thread. One rich purple with self-embroidery is a straight coat with gathers at the side.

A beige-colored wrap has the middle part of the wrap carried out in tricolette of a lighter shade, the latter being used for the facings.

A deer-brown coat has a fold at the waist and horizontal pinch tucks. Another deer-colored affair has facings of navy tricolette.

Some of these wraps are severely simple. Prices are $150 to $275.

Untrimmed Hats of Every Shape and Hue

that is fashionable this season are to be found in the Millinery Salons.

Such bright and pretty colors as the new reds, purples and greens, more sober shades like blue and tan and gray, as well as white and black, are all included.

These are Milans, horsehair split and fancy weave, smooth and rough straws and all the smart shapes and sizes. $2 to $15 each.

Gay posies, wreaths and sprays of flowers with which to trim them are 25c to $5.

(Second Floor, Chestnut)

Reynier Gloves for Spring

This is the first shipment in a long time of these famous French gloves, and women who know their fineness and good quality will more than appreciate these new arrivals.

We believe these gloves to be the finest French gloves made-and these new gloves come up to the high Reynier standard in every detail. These are the new colors and styles for Spring-

At $3.25 a pair, kidskin gloves of beautiful quality, in gun-metal, a lovely French gray that suggests horizon blue, brown, white or black. They have 3 clasps and are overseam sewn.

At $3.50 a pair are black, white or brown gloves, pique sewn and with 2 clasps; white has black and black has white embroidery. At $3 a pair are suede gloves of exquisite texture and the daintiest making. Two clasps, pique sewn in black. (Main Floor, Central)

A Summer Furniture Display of Great Interest

As revealed in this year's fine display, the most striking development in Summer furniture is toward a new stability and gracefulness, especially in the pieces intended for lawn and garden use.

The finest of these are of cypress, which has a self-preserving property and the added advantage of being thoroughly matured.

In outline and general characteristics it is practically a reproduction of the best types of lawn and garden furniture to be seen in Europe. This furniture has been given four coats of paint and is finished in a pure white. It comes in a complete assortment of outdoor pieces, such as chairs, tables, benches, gateways, hooded sets, swings, arbors and Summer houses in various sizes, priced from $16 for a table to $123 for an arbor with two seats.

Wicker, reed, rattan, fiber and crex pieces are in extraordinary choice variously upholstered in cretonnes and tapestries of many attractive colors and patterns.

There are serviceable hickory pieces in large assortment priced at $4 to $15 and maple furniture in natural and green color, with cane seats; also a number of pieces with green oak frames and backs of rattan at $2 to $12 each.

(Seventh Floor, Central)

HARMING candy boxes for Easter will be found on a table in the Oriental Store boxes in tiers, and other boxes pleasing in decoration and with the slightly exotic air which adds a certain interest to a gift of this kind. One of the best curry sets of seven pieces in a box is priced at $3.

(Fourth Floor, Chestnut)

EASTER BASKETS

The Basket Store has literally thousands of themfrom this country and the Orient; but we mention only the few which Easter purchasers are most keen about: Flower baskets of enameled and decorated wicker, tall and round and varied in shape, and including fern baskets with dishes inside them. $1.50 to $3.50. Tiny Easter baskets for candy, of reed and other materials. 10c to 35c. Japanese low handled baskets for fruits and flowers. 50c to $2. Little fern baskets for the table, each with four little feet. 75c to $1.25. Philippine baskets of curious and artistic shapes and really good workmanship. 50c to $2.25. (Fourth Floor, Central)

Summer Curtains Are in Order and They Are Here

Cool, dainty scrim and marquisette curtains, hemstitched and all ready to be hung.

They make ideal curtains for country or seashore homes because they are so easily laundered and they are inexpensive. In fact, the prices are those of last year, so far ahead did we place the orders.

The variety is very good, for scrim, $1.25 up to $4 a pair.

For marguisette, $1.50 to $3.50 a pair. (Fifth Floor, Market)

Suits for Women $25 to $50

Admirable Sports

Some of the best of the season have just come in—suits made by a specialist in country suits and out of rather unfamiliar materials. For instance, there is a most attractive mixture of black and browns which suggests a basket cloth; and another of a soft pine-needle-like green is mixed with black. Then there is a silvertoned jersey; a heavy ribbed jersey, re-versible so that the underside serves for trimming; and a light-weight jersey that lends itself to a tucked style which is less severe than the true sports cut.

One of the beauties of a sports suit is that its coat can often worn as a sweater with white skirt and blouse. Prices are $25 to $50.

(First Floor, Central)

Four New Waists

Number one is a heavy Georgette trimmed with real filet, and it may be had in white and flesh for $16.75. Two is a Georgette hand-embroidered and trimmed with steel beads; collar and vest are white. Flesh, white, bisque, sunset and black; $10.50.

Three, another Georgette in white embroidered with rose or blue, and bisque with blue. $6.75. And a new style of China silk in white and black, tailored, at $5.50.

(Third Floor, Central)
