

Two Millions

Tens of thousands of orders for the current April LADIES' HOME JOURNAL could not be filled. The edition was over one million, nine hundred thousand copies. But it was not enough.

The orders for the next (May) number are so large that the edition of that issue will be

Two Million Copies

The largest single edition of any American monthly magazine.

We beg the indulgence of the public until the next, the May issue, of

The Ladies' Home Journal