

ANARCHY HOLDS SWAY IN MUNICH Work Ceases, Looting Rages and Infantry Regiment Joins Spartacans RED FORCES DEFEAT FOE

By the Associated Press London, April 16.—Complete anarchy reigns in Munich, according to a Copenhagen dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph. All work has ceased, trains are not running and robbers are looting houses and threatening the banks, the dispatch states. The first infantry regiment is said to have joined the Spartacans. The siege of terror in Munich follows the second overthrow of the government by the Communists. The battle for the Central Railway Station ended in the complete defeat of the government troops, according to Nuremberg advices. Troops loyal to the government have received re-enforcements and are using artillery against the Communist stronghold in the railway station. Re-enforcements for the loyal troops are being hurried to Munich from various parts of Bavaria.

Copenhagen, April 16.—(By A. P.)—German government troops occupied the entire town of Maderburg yesterday, according to a Weimar dispatch to the Local Anzeiger of Berlin. It is reported there was hard fighting with many casualties on both sides.

Berlin, April 16.—(By A. P.)—Disturbances in the Duchy of Brunswick continue. Bloodshed has been avoided in the town of Brunswick, and several persons have been killed or wounded in fighting at Holmstedt. Soldiers and Boersans supported the government troops. Holmstedt, which since the release of minister of national defense and justice from prison, had been held by the Brunswick National Guard, was captured yesterday by Jager troops. As a result of the strike in the Ruhr district, the officials of the Frankfurt Railroad announce that express service over that line will be suspended in a day or two because of a shortage of coal. Express trains between Frankfurt and Berlin were not run yesterday and the line between here and Leipzig will be similarly affected. All service in the Berlin section is being operated under considerable restrictions. Although the strike is declared to be dwindling, there are large numbers of strikers idle, especially in the Essen district. An expert coal council has been created to co-operate with the economic ministry in matters of coal production and supply. The council will consist of workmen, producers, consumers, scientists and mine directors, and will formulate proposed coal laws.

It is officially announced that German officers will be demobilized and will formally leave the army when the War Ministry is able to lighten the economic difficulties incident to their transfer to civil life. Employers' labor have made concessions by which disputes with employees will be referred to an arbitration commission. It is hoped in this way to settle the strike of bank employees and metal workers.

BOLSHEVIKI PLAN MURMANSK ATTACK Large Supplies of Arms and Munitions Assembled

Washington, April 16.—An official cable from Stockholm says Helsingfors advices are that the Bolsheviks are making preparation on a large scale for an attack upon Murmansk. Large supplies of arms and ammunition have been assembled and Bolshevik transports are being sent northward. The Bolsheviks are shifting their troops in the direction of Archangel.

RED FORCES DRIVE RUMANIANS BACK Troops of General Petlura Are Defeated by Ukrainians

London, April 16.—(By A. P.)—Russian soviet troops, after heavy fighting, have compelled the Rumanians to begin a general retreat into Bessarabia from the line of Kamenetz-Mohiley along the Dniester in Podolia, a Russian wireless message says. Further north in western Ukraine, the message adds, the troops of General

Petlura have been driven from the line of Kamenetz-Proskurov-Sheplietovke. Athens, April 16.—There has been no disorder in Odessa since its evacuation by Allied and Greek troops, an official statement from the Greek War Office says. The retiring troops who withdrew under Bolshevik pressure have fallen back to a line running along the Dniester river northward from Akerman. The statement says that 8000 Greek residents of Odessa were safely embarked on ships for Greece.

Faith in Wheeler Told by Woman

Continued from Page One Some time ago offered Mr. Pepper $25,000 to settle this. Offer Included Fee Mr. Gray: "Wasn't the offer made with the understanding that a fee should be included?" "I don't know anything about that. I was merely told that that was your offer," the witness rejoined. In describing her visit to Columbus to attend her husband's funeral, Mrs. Joyce asserted her sister-in-law warned her that Wheeler was not treating her fairly. "When I found my affairs were so tied up," she continued, "I was mortified that I was so taken in and was so gullible. "Once when the Wheelers called at my house the judge begged me not to do anything. I did everything Wheeler told me, even after he admitted his theft. "The barrage of questions was broken for a minute with an incident in which a calendar figured. Date is Recalled Mr. Gray called the witnesses attention to the date, March 8, 1917, on which she testified she made a call on the former judge. "In your testimony you said that date was on a Thursday. As a matter of fact it was Friday," said Gray, accusingly. Mr. Taulane stepped over quickly to where the opposing counsel stood. "We won't admit that," he declared. "A court calendar was found. It revealed that March 8, 1917, was on a Thursday, as the witness had said. Mr. Taulane turned triumphantly to Mr. Gray. "I wasn't going to admit anything that wasn't right," he declared. "You are never known to admit anything," was Mr. Gray's return shot. The defense counsel, addressing the jury, then said he wanted to be fair to the witness and that the date did fall on Thursday. Didn't Want Relations Mixed Mr. Gray asked the witness if she hadn't told the former judge that she didn't want Mrs. Wheeler to know about the matter. "I told him I did not want him to mix our social and business relations," she replied. "I thought Judge Wheeler acted as my trustee," the witness continued, in answer to other questions. "I authorized him to do nothing. He paid all bills. I would not have presumed to tell him what to do with the money at that time. I don't know how Judge Wheeler paid the bills. "Did he not give you his personal check?" asked Mr. Gray. "Yes, but it was my money," the witness replied. "There was never a time when the estate owed him money. He used my money as he did his own. "Did you think Wheeler was using your money in his account?" "I never gave it a thought. I was not living off the bounty of Judge Wheeler," Mrs. Joyce responded. "You knew your money was deposited with his account?" "I questioned that and I think as a result of my questioning he told me he would open up a trustee's account. You will see that later he signed his checks as trustee. Even though he did draw money on his personal account I knew the money was mine. An impression that the statute of limitations would be invoked in the case has gained ground in the courtroom. Should this act outlaw the $38,100 in bonds in dispute it would be but $10,200 to be accounted for. This, it was hinted, might be covered by a claim for "counsel fees" for that amount for Mr. Wheeler or for fees as secretary and treasurer of the Joyce Realty Company. Mrs. Joyce admitted under cross-examination yesterday that when she succeeded in having jurisdiction over her husband's will removed from Ohio to Pennsylvania Judge Black, of Ohio, warned Mrs. Wheeler that she was a "very dangerous woman." "I think he was probably right," Mr. Gray injected.

Germans Assail Allies' Peace Terms

Continued from Page One shall be a peace of lasting understanding and conciliation among the nations, and that it must thus give Germany the possibility of permanently observing the principle of understanding and conciliation. "Drive Germans to Despair" "The National Assembly and the government are working with devotion and energy to fulfill the great task of giving peace, bread, work and a new constitution to a great nation. The task is difficult to fulfill as long as those who have it in their power to give the world peace allow themselves to be dominated by the feeling of hatred and revenge and, by means of the hunger blockade and by threatening our annihilation, are driving the German people to despair. "Five months ago we accepted our enemies' terms. We agreed with them on the basis for a conclusion of peace, we have fulfilled the hard armistice conditions, disbanded our army and surrendered enemy prisoners, but peace is still withheld from us. Though defenseless and economically exhausted, we are still cut off by the blockade and our prisoners are still detained, which is equivalent to a continuation of the war. "It is a burden such as no nation has yet been compelled to endure. We have done everything to obtain peace from our enemies and to liberate our nation from this intolerable torture. The responsibility for all the consequences which must follow the continuance of the present situation, for us and the world, must fall on their shoulders."

Denounces Bolsheviks "The yearning of the masses for human dignity," he continues, "is no excuse for a handful of disorderly agitators who systematically endeavor to disturb the construction of the German republic. The new Germany cannot be created by a jump in the dark, which would certainly be a jump into the abyss. A Bolshevik dictatorship of the proletariat minority would certainly ruin industrial Germany in a few months. "A speedy external peace, based on understanding and a league of nations, is a vital question for us, but no less does our salvation rest on the necessity for peace and work at home. I, therefore, in this grave hour exhort all classes of our people to cease tearing one another to pieces. Win a victory over yourselves; open your eyes and see the abyss."

Business-Man Type for Mayor Favored

Continued from Page One kind of man to the office of Mayor" were urged by Mr. Trigg at last night's dinner. Senator Vare would not comment on either of those points made by the Chamber of Commerce head. "I am not going to discuss the mayoralty now," he said. "I am not going to cross any bridges until I come to them."

"Business, not politics," was the keynote of Mr. Trigg's address, in which he urged business men throughout the city to "free Philadelphia from every condition which has exerted a restraining influence upon its progress." The Chamber of Commerce's "hat in the ring." Its platform, as announced by Mr. Trigg at the banquet, may be summarized as follows: Business administration for the city of Philadelphia. Election of the right kind of man to the office of mayor. High-speed transit system. Improved water supply. Clean streets. Revised charter, or amendments to old law to carry out plans. Elimination of smoke nuisance. Members of the Rotary Club heartily endorsed the sentiments expressed by Mr. Trigg, which mark the beginning of greater activity in civic affairs by the various business organizations.

BAILEY MAKES TART ANSWER TO PALMER

Asks if "Arrogant Officeholders" Eliminate Old-Timers. "What's the Use?"

Washington, April 16.—The statement of A. Mitchell Palmer, attorney general, in a Pittsburgh paper attacking Joseph W. Bailey, formerly senator from Texas, for his references to the existing organization of the Democratic party from which he was drawn from the Texas a sharp retort. A letter from Mr. Bailey to Attorney General Palmer, obtained yesterday, recited what the writer considers to be the primary and traditional policies of the Democratic party, which, he said, "in the days of our fathers were the precepts of democracy." "If, sir, the arrogant officeholders under this administration can succeed in driving out of the Democratic party all of the men who believe in these principles," Mr. Bailey said, "it would not be worth while for you and your friends to hold another national convention, for your candidate could not carry a single state in this union. "I understand, of course," the letter continued, "that the force of habit is so strong in certain states that you could not drive from you all of the men whom you would now proscribe and many of them will continue to vote your ticket, though your platform affirms what they have heretofore denounced and denounces what they have heretofore affirmed." Referring to Mr. Palmer's statement that the Texas has "lost the vision of Democracy," Mr. Bailey said, "I regret that the attorney general was 'talking in the clouds,' and that politicians with 'vision always are visionary and 'visionary politicians have never done anything but make mischief in this world."

The Perfect Piano for the Easter Bride

The Chickering Quarter Grand The "bride's piano," it has come to be called, because of all the pianos made in America it seems best suited for a bridal gift. The Chickering quarter grand is of the "baby grand" branch of the piano family. It is only five feet two inches long, but it has all the volume and power required by a piano in the home. Sweetness and clarity of tone you expect in a small piano, but to find such compass and strength as you do in a Chickering quarter grand is surprising. As a piece of furniture alone a Chickering quarter grand will be noteworthy in any home. It is as dainty and graceful of line as a piano can be, and only the finest woods are used in its construction. We have these quarter grands in good assortment just now. Any one who wants to make a regal present to a bride should see them. Or any one who wants to make a noble gift to a bride of some years' standing! Pianos have brought back honeymoon days to more homes than most people know of. The price of the Chickering quarter grand is $950. If you like you can buy it on convenient terms. This week the Wanamaker Piano Store is celebrating its twentieth anniversary. There are concerts by a string quartet and a pianist at 2:15 and 3:30 o'clock in Egyptian Hall. Visitors are invited to take seats in the gallery. (Egyptian Hall, Second Floor)
