Broken Engagement and Paste Diamond Figure In Testimony

A broken engagement and a paste diamond featured the larcency charge nade against John Kitchen, North Twenty-seventh street, by Miss Helen Moeller, of 4310 Walnut street, before Magistrate Mecleary in the Central Police Station today.

Miss Moeller, a pretty young woman, that that Kitchen stole a $480 diamond engagement ring given to her by "Jack" Greenaway, of Hanover, Pa.

She alleges that some time after Greenaway "popped the question" and was accepted, he decided not to get married and arranged with Kitchen to get back the ring. She accompanied Kitchen to the theatre, she said, and while there he asked to see the ring. She took it from her finger and he examined it, returning it with the comment that it was an excellent diamond. Two days later, she declared, she discovered that the ring was not gold and contained only a paste diamond Kitchen was held in $500 bail for a further hearing this week.
