The Furniture in This New $50,000 Purchase Is Celebrated

High Thoughts and Great Thoughts Come Along the turnpike of almost every mind some time or other, and are lost because the overworked memory is unable to carry all that is offered to it.

Walking along the sea beach of the west coast of the far South, on days when Winter is everywhere but in Florida, numbers of visitors carry in their left hands cheap cotton bags to hold the pretty shells the sea is rolling up at their feet.

There are wise and beautiful thoughts flowing in upon us all the time from an invisible sea, much more worth saving than the pretty shells.

A peasant girl, a farmer's daughter, in whose little wooden house at Domremy, in France, we spent an hour, had a great thought of patriotism for her nation which immortalized her.

Who does not thank old Polonius for this thought that he put down in words and saved for us?—

"To thine own self be true, And it must follow, as the night the day, Thou canst not then be false to any man."

This is a good TAG to check all your business trunks with.

The Wheel of Fashion Turns Back to Chintz

"Grandmother's chintz" we call it now and it recalls the quaint, delightful frocks worn by Colonial dames. The printings are very small-figures or flowers-in pink, green, light blue, lavender, tan and black and white. Also there are bolder patterns, stripes with flowers scattered in between, suggesting Marie Antoinette and the Trianon.

Thoroughly charming frocks these chintzes make with organdie collars, fichus and sashes. They are all 75c a yard and 28 and 29 inches wide.

While There's Yet Time-Real Filet Laces for Less

While this large importation lasts we shall continue to sell these beautiful hand-made laces at the very special prices of from 30c to $4.85 a yard, both edges and insertions and in width from the narrowest edging of half an inch to 51/2 inches.

The patterns are fine and pretty and there are many that would do for collar and cuff sets or trimmings for Summer frocks or graduaon dresses.

Just How Pretty It's Possible for Petticoats to Be-you may see for yourself if you come to the corner of the Petticoat Shop where the white silk and satin skirts are shown. They are fluffy and lacy and as feminine as a woman could wish, and any Spring brid in search of something for her trousseau would revel in the things we have to show her.

Paintings Made by Famous Artists at the French Front

A remarkable collection of oil and water-color pictures may be seen on the Fifth Floor at Market Street.

They present the graphic record of a great mass of crowded impressions noted during the storm of battle and transferred to canvas by the soldierartists of France.

This is a collection said to be superior to any to be seen even in Paris. They are shown in America for the first time in the Wanamaker Store. (Fifth Floor, Market)

These Particularly Good Silks Special at $1.50 and $1.65

Nothing like such fine, beautiful qualities could ordinarily be expected for these very small prices. And, best of all, they are the silks that women want at precisely this time to make up into dresses, blouses, skirts and lingerie.

Only three are mentioned, although there is really a good variety of weaves, but many are in small quantities or only cer-

Fashion Reductions Tomorrow the First Reduction on Women's Spring Suits—Prices $25 to $50

Perhaps it is a bit early (many people would say so), but this is the time that women particularly want such suits as these to take away with them. And there are the first Fall days to think of. A good looking suit is almost indispensable then.

Find some pretty novelty suits in velour checks and plaids and shepherds' checks. There are also smart little sports suits, silvertone velours, practical mixtures, homespuns and mannish pin-striped worsteds and a few plain dark blue and black suits. A number have colored vests and other new touches Hardly any of these suits have duplicates, but there are all sizes up to 44, and almost any color you want. They are in excellent condition and ready to be put on immediately. (First Floor, Central)

for Its Fineness

It represents a deliberate effort to produce the best type of cabinet work, and the makers of it have achieved that result. In design it is finely faithful to the period it typifies, and in construction it has all the essentials of stability and service.

The entire purchase is made up of dining-room and bedroom suits of a character ranging from the very fine to the superb.

We secured them to sell at one-third less than today's standard price.

Trophy Cups in Sterling Silver

Some of the handsomest ones have been placed in one of the large glass cases in the Jewelry Store. Most of them are in old English designs and a number are made with covers, which is the newest fancy.

The trophy cups in the case are from $91 to $330, but we also have a large collection of sterling silver cups all the way from $8,50 up. (dewelry Store, Chestnut and Thirteenth)

Tiny Capes for Tiny Girls

Little sister, too, wants a cape this Spring, and there's really a wide assortment of styles in these pretty little wraps, planned specially for girls of two to six years.

A particularly good cape for the money is the blue serge at $6.50, which is well made and has a touch of scarlet and black braid to make it more attractive.

Other capes of blue serge, often lined with silk, some with hoods. and some with new style collars, or caught up at the shoulder, are $7.50 to $25.

Capes of broadcloth, in pastel colorings, are $18.50; and there are little capes for Summer wear, of crepe de chine, in flesh color, silk lined, at $7.50.

(Third Floor, Chestnut)

New Straw Hats for Small Boys and Little Girls

Plenty of black hats.

Plenty of sailor shapes. Ever so many mushrooms.

And many hats that turn up all around.

Plain hats and trimmed hats-usually rather simple, for that's what mothers like best; hats in dark colors and hats of two-color straw, hats in all the new shapes this Spring-that's what you'll find in the Children's Wear Store. $1.25 to $7.50.

Good Suits For the Boys

Fancy mixed fabrics in gray and brown and greenish mixtures are shown in wonderfully good selection, all of them noticeably well modeled and carefully made, the higher-priced suits being remarkably fine in cut and tailorwork and finish.

Prices, $18. $20 and up to $38 for 8 to 18 year sizes. (Second Vicor, Central)

Some Lovely Spring Dolmans Reduced to $30, $35 and $45

And this is the first time that the prices have come down on these very fashionable and desirable coats. Also it is early enough in the season for women to wear them a great deal before hot weather.

There are some in fine all-wool serge and gabardine in tan, Copenhagen, dark blue or black at $30.

Others at $35 are of plain or silvertone velour, one model with a yoke and gathered back and another with small box pleats.

For $45 are silvertone velour dolmans, a beautiful style in Chinese blue, brown, tan, taupe, beige and deer with plain colored silk linings.

(First Floor, Central)

The Reducing Pencil Has Been at Work on Fine Afternoon Gowns for Young Women Prices Are Now $35 to $95

There are even one or two imported gowns in the collection, but for the most part they are the handsome one-of-a-kind dresses which young women always enjoy wearing.

There are crepes, printed and plain, soft satins, taffetas and foulards in the collection, and though most of them are in dark or lighter blue shades, there are also Springlike grays and champagne and delicate tan effects.

You may be perfectly sure that their styles are right-for they are late Spring models, all of them, and have all the fascinating newnesses of the season as to sleeves and draperies, collars and girdles. Some are embroidered, some beaded and others variously trimmed.

Furthermore, they are fresh and dainty and ready to slip into.

Originally these dresses were from $10 to $25 higher in price, so you will see that the reductions are very worth while: 14 to 20 year sizes.

The First Principle in the Proper Choosing of a Man's New Suit

No man knows the first thing about buying a suit of clothes until he has learned that dependable quality at a just price is always the safest investment.

The men who know this and who believe in it and who are ready to act up to it will recognize that we have the suits they are looking for.

When we say dependable quality we mean all that the words imply. We mean a quality that reaches all the way down to the foundation of things and all the way back to the first process in the making of each garment; a quality that is sound all the way through and that makes a fitting groundwork for the finest kind of fashion that any man who knows fashions can wish for.

Suits that typify that kind of quality are here at $30 to $65. A specialized group of waist-seam models for students at $30 to $55.
