ELECT OFFICERS NEXT WEEK

Troy, N. Y., April 25.—A New York state league of baseball clubs was formed at a meeting yesterday. This New York league was organized by Evers, who was appointed temporary chairman and J. J. Mahar, of Schenectady, temporary secretary.

The organization meeting will be held next week at Syracuse, or by Sunday, May 4. Election of officers, arrangement of schedules and other details will be cleared away at that session.

The league has been divided into an eastern and a western district. In the eastern division Troy, Schenectady, Cohoes and Albany will play, while in the western Syracuse, Utica, Auburn and Seneca Falls will race.

Each section will play the squads within its own territory several times before the one and only trip away is staged about midseason.

The trip away will find the eastern clubs against the westerns in a series.

EXPLOIT LIKE FAIRY STORY, BUT TRUTH, SAYS CHAMBERLAIN

U. S. Aviator Accused of Romancing Gives Vivid Description of Air Battle

Paris, April 25.—(By A. P.)—This story may read like a fairy tale, but upon my oath it is true. It was a statement made by Captain Edmund G. Chamberlain, of San Antonio, Tex., testifying in his own defense in the American naval court-martial in connection with his reported exploit on the British front during the fighting last summer.

Captain Chamberlain related the story of the battle in which the British squadron, in which he says he was flying, took part. Returning after a bombing expedition of Flinches, where he was positive he brought down two German airplanes in flames and two other enemy machine of which he was uncertain, he said, he came down between the lines where he captured one German soldier and succeeded in bringing in a wounded French officer.

He made his report of the flight at the request of the British officer commanding the squadron, he said, to "cover him up," as he was liable to court-martial for permitting the American aviator to fly in a British machine.

Captain Chamberlain gave a vivid description of how he captured the German with a compass torn from his broken airplane. He demonstrated this method in court by picking up a compass from a table and threatening an invisible enemy. He said he had no idea at the time that the compass resembled a hand grenade, but merely desired to throw the exact thing that he could see. Chamberlain's story appeared to make a deep impression.

MOTHER BESTS PATROLMAN

Witnesses Movie, Then Retakes Infant Ordered to Police Station

Wilmington, Del., April 25.—An infant in a baby coach left outside a theatre while its mother viewed the pictures created so great a disturbance by its crying that the police called the police. A patrolman announced from the theatre stage that unless the mother came forward he would take the child to the police station. His appeal brought no response and he had to push the coach up Market street, followed by a crowd.

When about two squares from the theatre the baby's mother breathlessly worked her way through the crowd and indignantly snatched the coach from the hands of the patrolman.

ALL PREP BASKETBALL TEAM SELECTED BY LEW MARTIN

Dinsmore and McCullough Given Forward Positions by Former University of Pennsylvania Athlete

Martin's Selections for an All-Star Cage Team

Dinsmore, forward; Glin, Academy; McCullough, forward; Brown, Prep; Graves, center; Penn, Fresh; McManus, guard; Brown, P. D.; Laughlin, guard; St. Joe, Prep.

GRAVES IS BEST CENTER

Lew Martin, the former University of Pennsylvania basketball captain who assisted Lew Jurdet in coaching this season's champion Red and Blue quintet, believes that an all-prep basketball team should be picked. With this in view Martin has gone ahead and selected what he says is the best mythical prep team of this section.

"At forward," writes Lew, "I would give first selection to Dinsmore, the Germantown Academy star. Dinsmore is a fast and brainy player and a fine shot from the floor. He scored twenty-two field goals in one game and contributed most of the points tallied by his team.

"The other forward position should go to 'Kid' McCullough, of Brown Prep. While not so good a shot from the floor as some of the other forwards, McCullough more than makes this up by his great foul shooting. Out of a possible 141 chances he scored 120. He also is fast and fine team worker.

"Center goes to Graves, the Penn Fresh star. In addition to being a great shot from the floor, having led the local schoolboys with 80 two-pointers, Graves is a fine dribbler and out-jumped all his opponents this season. He should prove to be a wonderful player in another season.

"For guard positions I would have 'Whitey' McManus, the mite player of P. I. D. This fellow is a great defensive man, a fine foul tosser and a good shot from the floor. Laughlin, of St. Joseph Prep., gets the other guard post. For substitute, I would have Shandile, of Girard College."
