Date Will Be Fixed as Soon as Last Units Sail for Home

Lieutenant Colonel Frederick Taylor Pusey, division quartermaster of the Twenty-eighth (Iron) Division, will begin a fight for a parade of the entire division, when he takes up his headquarters here at the Union League.

Colonel Pusey, with a staff of officers from the Twenty-eighth, is due in Philadelphia this afternoon. J. Jarden Guenther, secretary of the Philadelphia Wbicome Home Committee, called to see Colonel Pusey at the latter's New York bendquarters this morning, but found that he had left.

Mr. Guenther was in New York today getting information and arrang-ing details for the parade of the Twenty-eighth here. | Colonel Pusey has made it known that he will insist upon a full divisional parade. He said, before leaving New York, that he believed the men of the Twenty-eighth would be willing to remain in camp as long as might be nec essary to assemble the complete di
