A Detective Novel With Real Thrills

THE SHRIEKING PIT
By ARTHUR J. REES
FORMERLY OF SCOTLAND YARD
and Co-Author of
"The Mystery of the Downs" and "The Hamstead Mystery"

Cloth, $1.50 net.

A Haunted Pit—A Mysterious Murder—An American Detective

This new novel by the famous detective, who for many years was connected with Scotland Yard, shows clearly the author's fine literary ability and also his great skill in digging out the heart of a murder puzzle. In addition to a baffling mystery there is a clever American detective who solves the murder, a haunted pit for those who like thrills and ghost stories, a charming heroine, and a manly hero suffering from shellshock.

Romance—Humor—Surprises

NURSE BENSON
By JUSTIN H. MCCARTHY
Author of "The Glorious Rascal," "If I Were King," etc.
Cloth, $1.50 Net.

A charming modern novel, full of bright and sparkling conversation, refreshing humor and tender pathos, founded on the famous play by Justin Huntly McCarthy in conjunction with R. C. Carton, which has just passed its three hundredth performance in London, and is scheduled for early stage production in America. A lady of title masquerading in humble guise in order to effect an introduction to "Prince Charming," and thereby baffle her jealous lover, brings about an unexpected denouement.

Blood and Sand
By VICENTE BLASCO IBANEZ
Author of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse"

Introduction by Dr. ISAAC GOLDBERG. Net, $1.90.

BLASCO IBANEZ gathers all the elements of Spain's most sensational institution—the bull ring—into one thrilling story, reaching a climax of tremendous force. The reader actually sees and hears the fight in the arena and sways with the excitement of the crowd. The New York Herald says: "Blood and Sand" is quite certain to be much called for this summer. That it will also be called for during many years to come, I make no doubt, for it is a complete exposition of an enduring phase of Spanish life and character that is very little understood here. . . . The whole thing seems astounding to American readers, for no actor, preacher or politician in our country—to name the materials from which popular idols are fashioned here—can ever hope to attain the heights on which the Spanish matador dwells so long as his nerve does not falter or his hand forget its cunning."

Christopher and Columbus
By the author of "ELIZABETH AND HER GERMAN GARDEN"

Christopher and Columbus, the girl twins christened themselves when they started out to find the New World. More sparkling and clever than either "Elizabeth and Her German Garden" or "The Pastor's Wife." The book is comedy of the highest order, with a keen, kindly, good-natured dig in the ribs of American puritanism. Net $1.60.

THE LIFE OF THEODORE ROOSEVELT
By Wm. Draper Lewis, Ph. D.
Formerly Dean of the University of Pennsylvania Law School
Introduction by WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT

"An invaluable contribution to the History of the Time,"
Public Ledger

EX-PRESIDENT TAFT says: "Dr. Lewis is a teacher and publicist of wide experience and intimate knowledge of his subject, a man of high character and discrimination with whom the history is a labor of love. He has written an impartial, nonpartisan history of this great man, whom he knew personally and with whom he deeply sympathized."

"Most Striking Personality Since Napoleon"
Above and beyond the graphic account of Roosevelt as the sickly lad, the struggling student, the fearless reformer, Rough Rider, President, builder of the Panama Canal, world peacemaker, big game hunter, explorer and discoverer—thrilling as all this is—the most inspiring and satisfying feature of this vivid volume is that it reveals ROOSEVELT, THE MAN.

THE CRICKET
By Marjorie Benton Cooke
author of "Bambi," etc.

What could you expect of a girl whose mother was too fashionably occupied to bother with her and whose father was a good hearted blunderer with no idea of what was going on in his daughter's head? And Isabelle (the Cricket) she had brains, she had irrepressible energy and she had so much imagination. She was an exasperation to her mother, an enigma to her father, and her governesses and teachers considered her a devil. But Captain Larry O'Leary thought he would like the cricket to sing on his hearth.

"Do you remember 'Bambi'?" "The Cricket" is quite as sprightly and even more worth while.

By Marjorie Benton Cooke
author of "Bambi," etc.

Farm Voices

The "Farm Voices" series is a series of short stories, each of which is a story of a farmer's life. The stories are written by a group of authors who are familiar with the life of the farmer. The stories are written in a simple, straightforward style, and they are all very interesting and entertaining.
