PENN WINNING SPRINT MEDLEY RELAY

Frazier Surprised in Winning 440 Hurdles

Running Without Lanes, Penn Star Gained Pole and Outsprinted Field—Athletes Show Well in Medley Races—Bartels Fails in Pentathlon

World's Champion Middle Distance Runner, Frazier, for three weeks ago had been in the medal race, while Bartels will start in the relay team.

After a relatively unexciting 1918 season, Frazier has been back in the news in the past few days.

He won the 440 hurdles in the Pennsylvania State meet at Harrisburg, Pa., last night.

The two medley relays were the first of the season, and both were very close.

Penn's time was 1:10.4, the fastest ever in the history of the event.
