

TROOPS KEEP ORDER AFTER RIOTING OVER PHONE GIRLS' STRIKE

Indiana State Militia Called Out to Enforce Martial Law at Linton, Ind.

Linton, Ind., April 29.—(By A. P.)—Martial law was declared here this morning as a result of trouble attending a strike of about ten operators employed by the New Telephone Company.

Martial law resulted from a demonstration in favor of the strikers, following a mass meeting last night. Several hundred persons went to the telephone building, smashed the windows and caused all but one of the girls in the building to flee to the roof, from where they were rescued and taken to safety.

Shots were fired when the crowd was about the building, and there was a report of a fight among members of the mob. Today, however, it was said no one had been injured.

Governor Goodrich ordered state, county and city officials here to obtain the names of every person taking part in the disturbances last night and turn them over to the federal authorities.

The strike started several days ago. The strikers demanded increased pay, shorter hours and recognition of their union.

Governor Goodrich ordered state, county and city officials here to obtain the names of every person taking part in the disturbances last night and turn them over to the federal authorities.

The strike started several days ago. The strikers demanded increased pay, shorter hours and recognition of their union.

IMRE KIRALFY DEAD

Was Producer of "Black Crook" and Many Other Spectacles

London, April 29.—Imre Kiralfy, famous as the organizer of pageants and spectacular plays, died Sunday at Brighton.

Imre Kiralfy, who is probably best remembered in Philadelphia for his spectacular production, "Black Crook," was born at Budapest in 1845, and made his first appearance as an actor at the age of four.

He came to the United States in 1869, remaining in this country twenty-five years presenting spectacles. His great production, "The Life of Columbus," ran for nearly two years at the time of the Chicago Fair, and his "America," or "400 Years of American History," at the Auditorium, Chicago, was one of the biggest money-makers of the exposition.

Returning to England, Kiralfy managed many notable entertainments.

FIUME BOWS TO ITALY

National Council Hands State Powers to Victor's Government

Rome, April 27 (delayed)—Great enthusiasm was aroused at a meeting here today when it was announced that the National Council of Fiume had handed over all the powers of the state and the municipality to a representative of the Italian Government to be exercised in the name of King Victor Emmanuel.

Wilson Explains Changes Made in League Covenant

Paris, April 29.—President Wilson in his speech before the plenary session of the Peace Conference yesterday afternoon said:

"Mr. President: When the text of the covenant of the league of nations was last laid before you I had the honor of reading the covenant in extenso. I will not detain you today to read the covenant as it has now been altered, but will merely take the liberty of explaining to you some of the alterations that have been made.

"The report of the commission has been circulated. You yourselves have in hand the text of the covenant, and will no doubt have noticed that most of the changes that have been made are mere changes of phraseology, not changes of substance. And that, besides that, most of the changes are intended to clarify the document, or, rather, to make explicit what we all have assumed was implicit in the document as it was originally presented to you.

"The first paragraph of Article I is new. In view of the insertion of the covenant in the peace treaty specific provision as to the signatories of the league, and also as to neutral states to be invited to accede to the covenant, were obviously necessary. The paragraph also provides for the method by which a neutral state may accede to the covenant.

"The second paragraph of Article I is new, providing for the withdrawal of any member of the league on a notice given of two years.

"The third paragraph of Article IV is new, providing for a possible increase in the council should other powers be added to the league of nations whose present accession is not anticipated.

"The last two paragraphs of Article IV are new, providing specifically for one vote for each member of the league in the council, which was understood before, and providing also for one representative of each member of the league.

"The first paragraph of Article V is new, expressly incorporating the provision as to the unanimity of voting, which was at first taken for granted.

"The second paragraph of Article VI has had added to it that a majority of the assembly must approve the appointment of the secretary general.

"The first paragraph of Article VII names Geneva as the seat of the league and is followed by a second paragraph, which gives the council power to establish the seat of the league elsewhere, should it subsequently deem it necessary.

"The third paragraph of Article VII is new, establishing equality of employment of men and women; that is to say, by the league.

"The eighth paragraph of Article XV is new. This is the amendment regarding domestic jurisdiction, that where the council finds that a dispute arising out of an international dispute affects matters which are clearly under the domestic jurisdiction of one or other of the parties it is to report to that effect and make no recommendation.

"The last paragraph of Article XVI is new, providing for an expulsion from the league in certain extraordinary circumstances.

"Article XXI is new. The second paragraph of Article 22 inserts the words with regard to mandates, and who are willing to accept it, thus explicitly introducing the principle that a mandate cannot be forced upon a nation unwilling to accept it.

"Article XXIII is a combination of several former articles and also contains the following: A clause providing for form a part, certain duties are assigned to the council of the league of nations. In some instances it is provided that the action they shall take shall be by a majority vote. It is therefore necessary to make the covenant conform with the other portions of the treaty by adding these words. I will read the first line and add the words:

"Except where otherwise expressly provided in this covenant, or by the terms of this treaty, decisions at any meeting of the assembly or of the council shall require the agreement of all the members of the league represented at the meeting."

"Except where otherwise expressly provided in this covenant," is the present reading, and I move the addition of the words, "or by the terms of this treaty." With that addition, I move the adoption of the covenant."

"The second paragraph of Article XXVI is also new, and was added at the request of the Brazilian delegation, in order to avoid certain constitutional difficulties. It permits any member of the league to dissent from an amendment, the effect of such dissent being withdrawal from the league.

"And another is added giving the names of the signatories of the treaty, who became members, and the names of the states invited to accede to the covenant. These are all the changes, I believe, which are of moment."

"Mr. President I take the opportunity to move the following resolutions in order to carry out the provisions of the covenant. You will notice that the covenant provides that the first secretary general shall be chosen by this conference. It also provides that the first four members of the league to which are to be added to the five great powers of the council is left to this conference.

"I move, therefore, that the first secretary general of the council shall be the Honorable Sir James Eric Drummond, and second, that until such time as the assembly shall have selected the first four members of the league to be represented on the council in accordance with Article 4, of the covenant, representatives of Belgium, Brazil, Greece and Spain shall be members; and, third, that the powers to be represented on the council of the league of nations are requested to name representatives to act as members for the organization of the league and for the establishment of the seat of the league and to make arrangements and to prepare the agenda for the first meeting of the assembly, this committee to report both to the council and to the assembly of the league.

"The 'Radicals' Reply

When attention of Mr. Morris was called to the editorial, he said: "There will be a continued effort by the few progressive members of the board of trustees," said Mr. Morris.

"To see that a proper person is secured as dean of the Wharton School, or accepted from this source. The University possesses too many friends to ever consider going to a decided enemy for counsel. When we come to look over all the vile actions planned against the Wharton School by this Morris-Barker group, we have but one suggestion to make: The trustees should attend to those young radicals before they hurt themselves for any one else. Those who so deliberately abuse the freedom of the press should have a little guidance."

"I think it not necessary to call your attention to other matters so have previously discussed—the capital significance of this covenant; the hopes which are entertained as to the effect it will have upon steadying the affairs of the world and the obvious necessity that there should be a concert of the free nations of the world to maintain justice in international relations, the relation between people and between nations of the world.

"If Baron Makino will pardon me for introducing a matter which I absent-mindedly overlooked, it is necessary for me to propose the alteration of several words in the first line of Article V. Let me say that in several parts of the treaty, of which this covenant will form a part, certain duties are assigned to the council of the league of nations. In some instances it is provided that the action they shall take shall be by a majority vote. It is therefore necessary to make the covenant conform with the other portions of the treaty by adding these words. I will read the first line and add the words:

"Except where otherwise expressly provided in this covenant, or by the terms of this treaty, decisions at any meeting of the assembly or of the council shall require the agreement of all the members of the league represented at the meeting."

"Except where otherwise expressly provided in this covenant," is the present reading, and I move the addition of the words, "or by the terms of this treaty." With that addition, I move the adoption of the covenant."

"The second paragraph of Article XXVI is also new, and was added at the request of the Brazilian delegation, in order to avoid certain constitutional difficulties. It permits any member of the league to dissent from an amendment, the effect of such dissent being withdrawal from the league.

"And another is added giving the names of the signatories of the treaty, who became members, and the names of the states invited to accede to the covenant. These are all the changes, I believe, which are of moment."

"Mr. President I take the opportunity to move the following resolutions in order to carry out the provisions of the covenant. You will notice that the covenant provides that the first secretary general shall be chosen by this conference. It also provides that the first four members of the league to which are to be added to the five great powers of the council is left to this conference.

"I move, therefore, that the first secretary general of the council shall be the Honorable Sir James Eric Drummond, and second, that until such time as the assembly shall have selected the first four members of the league to be represented on the council in accordance with Article 4, of the covenant, representatives of Belgium, Brazil, Greece and Spain shall be members; and, third, that the powers to be represented on the council of the league of nations are requested to name representatives to act as members for the organization of the league and for the establishment of the seat of the league and to make arrangements and to prepare the agenda for the first meeting of the assembly, this committee to report both to the council and to the assembly of the league.

"The 'Radicals' Reply

When attention of Mr. Morris was called to the editorial, he said: "There will be a continued effort by the few progressive members of the board of trustees," said Mr. Morris.

"To see that a proper person is secured as dean of the Wharton School, or accepted from this source. The University possesses too many friends to ever consider going to a decided enemy for counsel. When we come to look over all the vile actions planned against the Wharton School by this Morris-Barker group, we have but one suggestion to make: The trustees should attend to those young radicals before they hurt themselves for any one else. Those who so deliberately abuse the freedom of the press should have a little guidance."

"I think it not necessary to call your attention to other matters so have previously discussed—the capital significance of this covenant; the hopes which are entertained as to the effect it will have upon steadying the affairs of the world and the obvious necessity that there should be a concert of the free nations of the world to maintain justice in international relations, the relation between people and between nations of the world.

"If Baron Makino will pardon me for introducing a matter which I absent-mindedly overlooked, it is necessary for me to propose the alteration of several words in the first line of Article V. Let me say that in several parts of the treaty, of which this covenant will form a part, certain duties are assigned to the council of the league of nations. In some instances it is provided that the action they shall take shall be by a majority vote. It is therefore necessary to make the covenant conform with the other portions of the treaty by adding these words. I will read the first line and add the words:

"Except where otherwise expressly provided in this covenant, or by the terms of this treaty, decisions at any meeting of the assembly or of the council shall require the agreement of all the members of the league represented at the meeting."

"Except where otherwise expressly provided in this covenant," is the present reading, and I move the addition of the words, "or by the terms of this treaty." With that addition, I move the adoption of the covenant."

"The second paragraph of Article XXVI is also new, and was added at the request of the Brazilian delegation, in order to avoid certain constitutional difficulties. It permits any member of the league to dissent from an amendment, the effect of such dissent being withdrawal from the league.

"And another is added giving the names of the signatories of the treaty, who became members, and the names of the states invited to accede to the covenant. These are all the changes, I believe, which are of moment."

"Mr. President I take the opportunity to move the following resolutions in order to carry out the provisions of the covenant. You will notice that the covenant provides that the first secretary general shall be chosen by this conference. It also provides that the first four members of the league to which are to be added to the five great powers of the council is left to this conference.

"I move, therefore, that the first secretary general of the council shall be the Honorable Sir James Eric Drummond, and second, that until such time as the assembly shall have selected the first four members of the league to be represented on the council in accordance with Article 4, of the covenant, representatives of Belgium, Brazil, Greece and Spain shall be members; and, third, that the powers to be represented on the council of the league of nations are requested to name representatives to act as members for the organization of the league and for the establishment of the seat of the league and to make arrangements and to prepare the agenda for the first meeting of the assembly, this committee to report both to the council and to the assembly of the league.

"The 'Radicals' Reply

When attention of Mr. Morris was called to the editorial, he said: "There will be a continued effort by the few progressive members of the board of trustees," said Mr. Morris.

"To see that a proper person is secured as dean of the Wharton School, or accepted from this source. The University possesses too many friends to ever consider going to a decided enemy for counsel. When we come to look over all the vile actions planned against the Wharton School by this Morris-Barker group, we have but one suggestion to make: The trustees should attend to those young radicals before they hurt themselves for any one else. Those who so deliberately abuse the freedom of the press should have a little guidance."

"I think it not necessary to call your attention to other matters so have previously discussed—the capital significance of this covenant; the hopes which are entertained as to the effect it will have upon steadying the affairs of the world and the obvious necessity that there should be a concert of the free nations of the world to maintain justice in international relations, the relation between people and between nations of the world.

"If Baron Makino will pardon me for introducing a matter which I absent-mindedly overlooked, it is necessary for me to propose the alteration of several words in the first line of Article V. Let me say that in several parts of the treaty, of which this covenant will

YOUNG MUSICIANS IN PRIZE CONTEST

Annual Competition for Membership in Art Alliance Is Held

The annual competition for membership in the Art Alliance was held this afternoon, when young musicians exhibited their skill before the music committee of the club.

Each year the Art Alliance offers three memberships to music students in the city. Notices are sent out to leading teachers and to music studios, and the competition takes place before the music committee and the friends of the contestants.

One membership is offered for vocal, one for instrumental and one for work in composition.

Among this year's contestants were Miss Bertha Levin, Miss Mary Huber, Thomas D. Gratz and Miss Esther Julius, vocalists; Miss Marguerite Strehle, Miss Eleanor Hamilton, Frank Hensel and Miss Shirley Watkins, pianists; Miss Helen Bader, composer; Mr. Grisha Monasewitch and Miss Cecilia Bonawitz, violinists.

The judges were Henry S. Drinker, Jr., Mrs. Leopold Stokowski, John F. Braun, Camille Zecrow, Ellis Clark Hammann, Philip Goepf and Miss Susanna Decum.

Advertisement for 'You'll Prefer It' FLOR DE MANUEL Super Quality cigars. 10¢ and up. ALLEN R. CRESSMAN'S SONS PHILADELPHIA.

No Morris Advice on Wharton Head

Continued from Page One

His absence will be sorely felt.

Morris Family Anties

As to the antics of the Morris family, little need be said. When the time comes to select a new dean, certainly no suggestions will be offered or accepted from this source.

The University possesses too many friends to ever consider going to a decided enemy for counsel. When we come to look over all the vile actions planned against the Wharton School by this Morris-Barker group, we have but one suggestion to make: The trustees should attend to those young radicals before they hurt themselves for any one else.

Those who so deliberately abuse the freedom of the press should have a little guidance.

The 'Radicals' Reply

When attention of Mr. Morris was called to the editorial, he said: "There will be a continued effort by the few progressive members of the board of trustees," said Mr. Morris.

"To see that a proper person is secured as dean of the Wharton School, or accepted from this source. The University possesses too many friends to ever consider going to a decided enemy for counsel. When we come to look over all the vile actions planned against the Wharton School by this Morris-Barker group, we have but one suggestion to make: The trustees should attend to those young radicals before they hurt themselves for any one else. Those who so deliberately abuse the freedom of the press should have a little guidance."

"I think it not necessary to call your attention to other matters so have previously discussed—the capital significance of this covenant; the hopes which are entertained as to the effect it will have upon steadying the affairs of the world and the obvious necessity that there should be a concert of the free nations of the world to maintain justice in international relations, the relation between people and between nations of the world.

"If Baron Makino will pardon me for introducing a matter which I absent-mindedly overlooked, it is necessary for me to propose the alteration of several words in the first line of Article V. Let me say that in several parts of the treaty, of which this covenant will

F. W. KEMBLE HELD IN CRASH

Villanova Man Charged After Accident With Traffic Law Violation

Francis W. Kemble, of Villanova, who recently returned to this country from overseas where he served with the United States army, was arrested last night for violating traffic regulations after an automobile accident at Bryn Mawr and City Line avenues, and was given a hearing today before Magistrate Stillwagon at the Ardmore police station. He was released under $100 bail for a further hearing.

Mr. Kemble was slightly injured last night, and appeared in court today in his blood stained uniform. According to the testimony he smashed into a traffic sign which is placed at the intersection of the two thoroughfares, and then swerved and ran into a telegraph pole. He was treated for his injuries at the West Philadelphia Homeopathic Hospital before being taken to Ardmore.

Will Benefits Catholic Charities

In a will probated today by Register Sheehan, Michael Casey, who died at Friends' Asylum, leaves two-thirds of an estate of $8,770 to be divided equally between St. Agnes's Hospital and the House of the Good Shepherd. Wills filed today were Julia Fitzpatrick, 411 South Fifty-sixth street, $12,000; Sophia Cochran, 2418 Waverly street, $3,650. Appraisements of estates to be included in the will of H. Snyder, $7,508.37; Ella B. Sallen, $4,006.40, and Eleanor Spreng, $3,238.53.

Lily Cups advertisement. 'Worthy of Touching Your Lips'. In Fairness to Yourself and Your Employes—Install LILY CUPS. When strangers come into your office or factory and use the drinking glass at your water cooler, you feel that it should be carefully washed. You're wrong—it should be sterilized. You can't have the glass sterilized every time some one uses it, so the fair and safe thing to do is to install Lily Cups. They prevent illness and infection. Their cost is small; their value, inestimable. Paper cups must be paraffined under extreme heat to be made absolutely sterile. Only Lily Cups are treated in this way. Are Lily Cups provided in your office or your factory? If not, install them today for your health's sake. THE PURITY SPECIALTIES COMPANY, Denckla Building, PHILADELPHIA, WALNUT ST., 4500, KEYSTONE PHONE, RAUC 2940.

Hartford Tires advertisement. WHEN you equip with Hartford Tires, you've got tires and tire insurance, too. Tires that reflect credit upon the smartest equipage. Insurance that assures you of supreme mileage—and travel without trouble. From the very first step in manufacture the fate of every Hartford Tire is put into the hands of competent, careful men—each an expert in his line. Too, these men have the very best materials to work with, and that is why the life of a "Hartford" on your car is insured. The pleasure of riding is increased when your car is equipped with "Hartfords"—and you'll have little use for your "spares." Hartford Tires are made in Cord construction, "H" and "Strongheart" Treads. Have your dealer supply you with Hartford Tires. Dealers: Quick delivery from our complete stock is just one of the practical services we render our Hartford Tire dealers. Supplee-Biddle Hardware Co. Wholesale Jobbers. 507 to 529 Commerce St. 510 to 524 Cuthbert St. Pneumatic Tire Repair Co. 1302 Callowhill Street.

Tonight! Our silk-lined Suits make their first appearance in the "movies". $25 & $28 (For full $30 to $40 All-wool quality) FIRST to appear will be a reproduction in colors of our hand-some silk-lined suits. Later the "camouflage" style will make its appearance. Then will come the double-breasted, followed by the "three-in-one" and the skirted coats with railroad stitching. Remember, when you see them, that they are all-wool—guaranteed qualities, many of them in exclusive patterns. William H. Wanamaker 1217-19 Chestnut St.

Triangle Refrigerators advertisement. Saves Ice—Saves Food Economical—Sanitary. TRIANGLE Refrigerators are perfectly constructed, lock inside and outside. Built on the principle of a Thermos Bottle, with perfect insulation. The saving in ice alone compared with poorly constructed refrigerators will pay for the Triangle Refrigerator in a year or two. 30 styles and sizes to choose from. Prices from $8.90 to $150.00. Every Triangle Refrigerator is guaranteed to keep your food cool and fresh during the warm weather months. See our complete line of Gas Ranges and Gas Water Heaters. PHILADELPHIA GAS RANGE ARCH AND CO. STREETS 13th AND

THE FIRST REINSURANCE COMPANY OF HARTFORD a Connecticut Corporation. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Alien Property Custodian will offer for sale at public auction the highest bidder, at the office of The First Reinsurance Company of Hartford, 18 Asylum Street, Hartford, Connecticut, at 1 o'clock P. M., the 7th day of May, 1919, the following property to wit: Those certain 4505 shares of the capital stock of the First Reinsurance Company of Hartford, a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Connecticut, held by the Alien Property Custodian, for which certificates are now held by the Farmers Loan & Trust Company in New York as depository for the Alien Property Custodian. It is expected that at the same time and place there will also be offered for sale by the present owners thereof about fifty shares (more or less) of the Capital Stock of the said The First Reinsurance Company of Hartford. Further information concerning the property to be sold, including the terms and conditions of sale, may be had by application to MR. W. C. SCHEIDE, Chief, Division of Insurance, Alien Property Custodian, Washington, D. C. FRANCIS P. GARVAN, Alien Property Custodian. 4505 out of an issue of 5000 Shares of the Capital Stock of THE FIRST REINSURANCE COMPANY OF HARTFORD